

New Social Calendar Released

First events on the Willamette university newly made social calendar was the navy unit Company C stag party Friday night and the sorority formal preference dinners Saturday night followed by pledge services at the chapter houses on Sunday, Wednesday night a student body dance will complete the social activities for the month.

Beta Chi sorority will hold a fireside December 3. The Alpha Phi Alpha sorority, Kappa and Frederickson halls will have informal parties the next day. Cap and Gown members will hold a scholarship tea December 7. Biggest event of the month is the student body formal which will be held December 11.

Two events, a Beta Chi date dinner and a Delta Phi open house, have been scheduled for December 12. December 17 is the date for firesides given by Beta Chi and Alpha Phi Alpha sororities. Delta Tau Gamma members will have a party the next night. Also set for the same evening are a Delta Phi house dance and a band and orchestra party.

Sororities will celebrate New Year's day with an inter-sorority formal. January 8 is the date for the Alpha Phi Alpha pledge and senior class parties. Dormitory formals are scheduled for the 15th, the day after the Alpha Phi Alpha and Delta Phi firesides. Beta Chi members will hold open house January 16.

January 22 has been reserved for the drama department. A student body party sponsored by the freshmen will be given January 29. The YWCA will hold a party February 5 which is the first social event in that month. The junior class will honor the graduating seniors on February 12 at the last scheduled social function of the semester.

Visitor Saturday in state highway commission offices here was Cpl. Tech. Vivian Fryer, former employe of the commission. Now serving in the women's army corps, she is stationed at Camp Belvoir, Va., an engineers' camp.

The Navy Mothers' club will meet at the YWCA Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. This will be a business and testimonial meeting.

STAYTON — The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Highberger will be observed Sunday with an open house at the Fred Albus home from 2:30 until 5 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Highberger came to Oregon 53 years ago from Iowa, and were married on November 23, 1893 in Sublimity. All of their children except one are expected for the anniversary.

WOMELO

"Double the Score in 1944" is the slogan for the Camp Fire Girls' fall membership drive, which ends on November 30. During this time many more girls have been added to Camp Fire and Blue Bird groups in Salem. Mrs. Paul Morse is now chairman of extension on the local board and will secure a person from each school district to help extend membership.

Efforts are now being made to set up good sponsorship for each group. At the last meeting of Englewood PTA they agreed to sponsor nine groups of Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds, eight of which are organized in the school. The ninth group is composed of former Englewood girls now in Parrish junior high.

The last of the training course for recreational leadership being sponsored by the local Camp Fire Guardian's association has been postponed until December 1, at 7:30 p. m. at the Presbyterian church.

Group Meetings
The Okiciyapi Camp Fire met for the first time this year at the home of their guardians, Mrs. Vida Bowers. They decided on the next Torch Bearers rank they are going to take. Games also were played and cookies eaten.

The Wicaco Camp Fire girls of the Englewood school elected the following officers: Roberta Kempel, president; Carol Fuhr, vice-president; Margaret Bown, secretary; Marilyn Thompson, treasurer; Donna Satter, scribe.

The Itanyan Camp Fire group met at the Leslie school Thursday afternoon, with their president, Beverly Gustafson in charge. Plans were discussed for the skit to be given at the party December 3, for all junior high groups. The next meeting will be in West Salem at the home of their guardian, Mrs. F. X. Hoerth.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Gilstrap were hosts on Saturday night to a group of friends at an informal housewarming. The Gilstraps recently moved to 1368 Fir street. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ragsdale and Mr. and Mrs. William Talbot.

Women's association of the First Presbyterian church will meet Tuesday afternoon at the church at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Charles A. Sprague will talk on the meeting of general council of Presbyterian churches which she attended in Chicago. The executive board will meet at 1 o'clock.

Miss Ida May Smith, professor of child education at Oregon College of Education, Monmouth, will present a series of discussions on "Democracy and the Home" beginning Monday, November 22, at the YWCA at 7:45 o'clock. All interested mothers of children under junior high school age are invited to attend the child study group sponsored by AAUW. Membership in the organization is not essential to attend the classes.

Junior Women's club members will meet at the clubhouse Monday night at 8 o'clock with the president, Mrs. Delbert Schwabbauser, presiding. Mrs. B. C. Harrison, American Home chairman, is in charge of the program. Mrs. Paul Heath will talk to the club on flower arrangements and display. Group singing will be led by Mrs. Roy Mink and members are asked to bring guests to the meeting.

Oregon State Mothers club will hold its first meeting of the season at the YWCA Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock and all Oregon State mothers are invited, with a special invitation issued to mothers who have first year students at the school. Miss Eleanor Stephens, state librarian, will review some of the new books of interest to college mothers. Hostesses will be Mrs. W. A. Reeves, Mrs. Lloyd Bell and Mrs. Lloyd Riches. Mrs. Elmore Hill, president, will preside.

Under the auspices of the AAUW radio committee, Prof. F. Lloyd LeMaster of the business and industries department at Oregon State college, will speak over KOAC at 2 o'clock Tuesday. His subject will be "Sir Halfred MacKinder, father of Geopolitics."

Miss Esther Baird will be hostess to members of her club at bridge Monday night at her home on North Cottage street.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Traglio have returned from Veneta, Oregon where they visited the latter's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Hill.

Chadwick Assembly, Order of Rainbow Girls will hold its annual father and daughter banquet Tuesday night at the Masonic temple at 6:30 o'clock.

SWEGLE—The Neighborhood club of Garden road met for luncheon Thursday at the home of Mrs. A. C. Schaffer on Garden road. Officers elected for the new year were: president, Mrs. A. R. Tartar; vice president, Mrs. A. C. Schaffer; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Ralph Werner. Other members present were Mrs. Walter Swingle, Mrs. Robert Reed, Mrs. Charles Siegmund, Mrs. A. E. Wood, Mrs. William Hartley and guests, Carol Werner, Jimmy Reed and Mrs. Paul Lynch. The December meeting will be with Mrs. Tartar.

Girl Reserves' Corner

The presidents and interclub representatives of the Girl Reserve interclub council held their first regular meeting on November 13.

Making its appearance this week is the Girl Reserve club at Chemawa. At the regular meeting Thursday Mrs. Elaine Fisher of the YWCA staff talked about ideals and aims of the organization. Miss Dorothy Baugler is the advisor. Officers are: president, Virginia Taylor; vice-president, Geneva Alex; secretary, Annabelle Summers; treasurer, Lillie Frye.

Preparations are being made by Parrish seventh Girl Reserve club for a turkey dinner at the YWCA Wednesday. Committee chairmen are: Catherine Sieg-mund, general committee, Beverly Cruzon, games, Jarine Fair, decorations, Dolly Davidson, dinner and Caroline Johnson, clean-up.

At a junior advisers luncheon Monday Miss Phyllis Nelson was appointed to assist Miss Marian Carter with Parrish eighth grade club; Misses Delvon Long and Laura Jean Bates will take charge of the Parrish seventh grade club, Miss Margaret Forsythe will continue as assistant with the Leslie eighth club. The Girl Reserve club at the state school for the deaf is planning a Thanksgiving dinner at the YWCA on November 23.

At the regular Tri-Y meeting Monday, Sgt. Alice Cline of the WAC will talk to the club on a girl's life in the army.

Miss Janet Bower is spending the weekend in Yakima, Wash., visiting her brother Aviation Cadet Don Bower.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton L. Meyers and Mrs. Walter Denton are entertaining with their annual Thanksgiving dinner today at their Court street home. Their guests will be Lieutenant Commander Milton B. Steiner of Seattle, Mrs. Steiner and children, Jean, Anne and Lee of Portland, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Jr., and Dan and Miss Marylee Fry of Portland.

SALLY'S LINGERIE

Quality Housecoats

Solid and quilted crepes, satins, taffetas, printed jerseys and chenilles. Come and see the whole collection. We've lingerie loveliness unlimited!

Sizes 10 to 48

$7.98

to $29.75

Vanity Fair Slips

These are favorites, cut to fit, fancy lace tops and tailored models.

$1.98

to $9.98

Pajamas

Delightful pajamas, a wide selection of styles and colors... see them today at Sally's!

$3.98

to $29.75

Beautiful Gowns

Beautifully cut gowns, angelic lace! So comfortable.

$2.98

to $7.98

Fownes Gloves

Famous Fownes gloves for all occasions. A variety of colors and styles.

$1.00 to

$5.00

Quality BAGS

Bags for your busy hours, bags for your off-duty hours. We have them all here. See our marvelous collection!

$7.98 to $22.75

OTHERS $2.98 UP

SALLY'S

N. W. CORNER COURT & LIBERTY STS.

SALLY'S COSMETICS

Special Announcement

It is with sincere pride we announce the introduction of America's foremost line of cosmetics!

Henri Bendel

COSMETICS, PERFUMES, TOILET WATERS, SOAPS... Also TALCUMS AND TOILET WATERS FOR GENTLEMEN

The people of Salem and ourselves are fortunate in obtaining this fine line of exclusively hand-packaged toiletries. Never before, to the best of our knowledge, has such a high class product been offered in any city the size of Salem, and we are grateful indeed to our New York connections who made it possible for Salem women to purchase direct cosmetics produced in one of New York's most exclusive shops.

You'll Find Henri Bendel

Featured in

Vogue — Harper's — Mademoiselle

