

Miss Leone Spaulding To Wed

The date has been set for the wedding of Miss Leone Spaulding and Mr. James Atkin Bennington. The young couple will be married on Saturday, December 4, at the First Methodist church at 8 o'clock with a large group of relatives and friends invited to the nuptials. The home of the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, on Court street, will be the scene of the wedding reception.

The wedding date was revealed at a smartly arranged supper party Friday night for which Miss Spaulding's aunt, Mrs. Roy H. Mills, was hostess. Guests were seated at small tables centered with bridal favors and bouquets of autumn flowers provided the decorative note.

Not until the guests were given their tally cards for bridge did they learn of the wedding day. Clever announcements, bearing the names of the couple, told the news.

A group of intimate friends were bidden to the party including Miss Spaulding, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. Alan Siewert, Mrs. Kenneth Hanson, Miss Jeanne Burrell, Miss Helen Ostrin, Miss Nancy Stricklin, Miss Kate Griffith, Miss Barbara Bell, Miss Patricia and Miss Dorothy Vandeneynde, Miss Betty Childs, Miss Dorothy Engel, Miss Mary Jane Brabec, Miss Mary Jane Simmons, Miss Beth Siewert and Miss Betty Simmons.

Miss Spaulding is a popular member of the younger set. She attended the University of Oregon and wears the pin of Pi Beta Phi sorority. The benedict-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville E. Bennington of Portland. He also attended the University of Oregon, where he is now taking his army training. He is president of his fraternity, Phi Delta Theta, a member of Scabard and Blade and Friars.

Mrs. Leon Ferry entertained informally Friday night at her home on Jefferson street for Mrs. Edward B. Marr.

JEFFERSON—Before an altar banked by arrangements of pastel chrysanthemums, greenery and lighted tapers, in the chapel of the Pasco naval air station in Pasco, Wash., Miss Fern Colleen Bolton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Clifford Bolton of Sunnyside, Wash., became the bride of Francis Smith Martin, aviation machinist's mate third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin of Jefferson, on Saturday at 8 o'clock.

The Reverend Father A. J. Chervenak, read the service. Mrs. A. Shangknessy of Kennewick played the wedding march, and Mrs. William LaRue of Kennewick sang.
The bride wore a beaver brown velvet suit with nailhead trim and matching accessories. She carried a white prayer book and wore a corsage of white gardenias. She also wore a necklace which was worn by the bridegroom's mother at her wedding.
Miss Constance Martin of Jefferson, sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's attendant, and wore a dusty rose frock with black accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and roses. Miss Martin also carried a white prayer book.
Hollis Albert Davis, aviation machinist's mate second class, of Albany, served as best man.
The bride's mother wore a blue silk crepe dress for her daughter's wedding and wore a corsage of roses and carnations.
The couple left immediately for Sunnyside, Wash., for a brief honeymoon, and the bridegroom left Monday for further naval aviation training at Peru, Ind. Mr. Martin was graduated from Jefferson high school and enlisted in the air corps more than a year ago. He has been stationed at Pasco, Wash., since Mrs. Martin graduated from Sunnyside, Wash., high school in 1943, and has been employed in a jewelry store in Kennewick, and after a visit at the home of the bridegroom's parents in Jefferson, plans to return to Kennewick.

Betrothal of Miss Pope Revealed

Miss Virginia Pope has joined the ever-growing ranks of the brides-elect. For Friday night her engagement to Mr. Lloyd A. Griffiths was announced at a charmingly arranged dessert supper party for which her mother, Mrs. Carl T. Pope, was hostess at her home on South High street.

A large bouquet of chrysanthemums in pastel shades centered the table with yellow candles on either side. Scrolls tied with ribbons extended from the center to each place and contained a line of a poem which disclosed the news. No date has been set for the wedding.

A group of Willamette university co-eds were invited to the announcement party. Covers were placed for Miss Emma Lou East, Miss Marianne Low, Miss Mary Jean Huston, Miss Dorothy Hoar, Miss Patricia Lamb, Miss Olene Mehlhoff, Miss Carol Young, Miss Betty Provost, Miss Kate Griffith, Miss Viola Jacobson, Miss Jean Rowland, Mrs. Lorene Griffiths, Mrs. T. L. Pope of Portland and Mrs. Carl Pope.

The brunette bride-to-be is a graduate of Salem high school. Last year she attended Oregon State college where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. This fall she registered for her sophomore year at Willamette university and is a pledge of Beta Chi sorority. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Pope.

Mr. Griffiths, the son of Mrs. Lorene Griffiths of Salem, is also a graduate of Salem high school. He has been attending Willamette university where he is enrolled in the navy V-12 program. His fraternity is Sigma Tau.

Mr. Ronald Jones was home from Oregon State college for the Thanksgiving holiday and was the guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Jones. Other guests were Mr. Dan Grimshaw of Portland, a classmate of Ronald's, Mrs. O. L. Bailey, Mrs. John Withycombe and Mr. M. L. Jones.

Mrs. Harry Foster and son Jim of Portland, Mr. Harold Rosebraugh, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rosebraugh and son were guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh Thanksgiving.

Servicewomen

What they can do
What they're doing about it

T/Cpl. Vivian Fryer of the WAC began her return trip to the east Thursday after spending Thanksgiving with her parents and two young brothers. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miller Fryer, with whom she has spent the major part of her week's furlough from Fort Belvoir, Va., where she is stationed with the engineers. Her work is largely typing and filing, similar to the work for the Oregon state highway department, where she was employed for several years before her enlistment.

Cpl. Fryer has four brothers in the service; Hyrtle, a motor machinist's mate in the navy, serving somewhere in the Atlantic; Maynard, in the army stationed near San Diego; Eugene, a navy torpedo mechanic with the Pacific fleet, Victor, the last to enlist is still in training at the navy training center, Norman, Okla.

Charles Erickson families of Portland were the holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bjarne Erickson.

Today's Menu

If there's turkey in the family, merely substitute that for the meat that's listed in these week-end meals. Other parts of the menus will combine with things left from Thanksgiving.

- TODAY
Cranberry-apple salad
Meat loaf
Riced potatoes
Buttered turnips
Custard with caramel sauce
- SUNDAY
Lettuce salad
Old fashioned veal pie with dumplings
Stewed celery and carrots
Steamed fig pudding
- MONDAY
String bean salad
Swiss steak with brown rice
Frozen asparagus
Baked apples and cookies

BAKED FIG PUDDING
2 cups dried figs
¼ cup shortening
¼ cup sugar
1 egg, beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
1½ cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
cup milk

Cover dried figs with boiling water, let stand 10 minutes, then drain and snip into pieces, using scissors. Cream shortening and sugar until fluffy. Add egg and vanilla. Sift flour, baking powder and salt, and add alternately with milk, beating well after each addition. Stir in figs. Bake in greased baking dish or 8-inch square pan in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 1 hour. Serves 6 to 8. Serve hot with your favorite pudding sauce. This one is especially good with it.

VINEGAR SAUCE
1½ cups water
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
½ cup sugar
Few grains salt
1½ tablespoons cornstarch
½ teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon vanilla
1 tablespoon vinegar (or lemon)

Heat water and butter or margarine to boiling. Mix sugar, salt and corn starch, add all at once to boiling liquid and cook, stirring constantly, until clear and thickened. Flavor to taste with nutmeg, vanilla and vinegar, and serve hot. Serves 6.
