

Local News Briefs

Road Graveled — Graveling of the Bridge Creek road has been completed for three and seven-tenths miles past Drake's crossing. Rock used was taken from the Union Hill stock pile. A two mile stretch up to the site of the old Bridge Creek school is still to be gravelled but this will not be opened until the county court has completed certain pending proceedings. The county shovel was moved Wednesday to a stockpile at Talbot and Thursday the crew will start putting gravel from that pile on the Greens Bridge road and the roads in the Marion district. Hennessey's bar in the river was the source of the gravel in this stockpile.

UNUSUAL DESCRIBES OREGON WEATHER
Oregon weather in the last months seems bound to go Californian — that is, to be unusual. October was wet, November was comparatively dry. A near optimum to the rainfall of the past month was that of November in 1935, both perhaps for similar reasons. In October of 1935 Oregon had a heavy snowfall. In October of this year there was a heavy rainfall.

November of 1942, also unusual, produced a rainfall of 13.38 inches, as compared with 2.36 inches this year.

CHICKEN POX CASES MOUNT IN OREGON
