

Major Orders Are Conferred

Archbishop Officiates At Ceremonies in Mt. Angel Abbey

MT. ANGEL — Major orders were conferred on eight young men by Archbishop Edward D. Howard of Portland Wednesday morning, December 8, in the abbey chapel at Mt. Angel.

The archbishop was celebrant at the pontifical mass and was assisted by Very Rev. Jerome Wespe, prior. Rev. Damian Jentges was deacon and Rev. Method Korn, subdeacon. Rev. Albert Bauman and Rev. Patrick Mesgher served as assistants to the throne. Masters of ceremony were Rev. Thomas Brockhaus and Rev. Stephen Hofmann.

Those receiving the order of diaconate included Rev. Frater David Prebula of Lacey, Wash., and Rev. Frater Dennis Marx and Rev. Frater Bernard Sander of the Mt. Angel abbey.

The subdiaconate was conferred on Frater Bertrand Trautman and Frater Eugene Kellenbenz of Lacey, and Frater Dominic Broxmeyer, Frater Louis Charvet and Frater Raymond Heade of Mt. Angel.

John Kendrigan received minor orders. At noon the archbishop was guest of honor at a dinner in the seminary dining hall. The hall was artistically decorated to represent the feast of the Immaculate Conception.

At 2 p.m. reception ceremonies for candidates to the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin at which the archbishop officiated were held in the chapel. Sixteen new members were received. The new officers were likewise installed. Father Damian and Father Patrick assisted the archbishop.

The traditional card party in the seminary building rounded out the day's festivities.

Real Estate Is in Demand

SILVERTON—Real estate continues to move briskly at Silverton, according to reports from local agents. The Homeowners' agency report the following sales within recent days:

The J. A. Hatch farm in Evans Valley to Mr. and Mrs. Oral Egan; the Jim Clark home on Madison street to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Larson of Scio; the Charles Harbec property in Geiser addition to Willard Gabbard; the Henry Sheldon acreage on Marquam road to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fry; the Edward Meehan home on Whittier street to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lautette; the Henry Maklakoff farm in the Silverton Hills to Gene Brown; the Mr. and Mrs. John Mostul home on Oak street to Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Drager; the Aloysius B. Wavra acreage in North Silverton to Mr. and Mrs. Sugiud Johnson of Tacoma, Wn.; the Olga Booth home on Whittier street to Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Smith; the Mrs. Minnie R. Fishwood residence on Oak street to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rice; the H. D. Dick 162-acre farm in the Silverton hills to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Damewood of Brooks.

Woodburn Library Has New Junior Books

WOODBURN — New junior books received at the Woodburn Carnegie library this week include the following titles: Pecos Bill, the Greatest Cowboy of All Time, by James C. Bowman; Caddy Wood's lawn, by Carol Brink; Prester John, by John Buchan; "Hello, the Boat" by Phillis Crawford; The Matchlock Gun, by Walter Edmonds; Red Sky, by Theodore A. Harper; Smiling Hill Farm, by Miriam Mason; Valiant, Dog of the Timberline, by Jack O'Brien; The Good Master, by Kate Seredy; High Water, by Phil Stong; and Farmer Boy, by Laura Wilder. An order had been sent for 33 books, but only 11 of the titles were available, as shipments from publishing houses are slow. However substitute orders will be sent in with the hope that still other attractive materials may be added for the younger readers.

Pippin Girl

From Hollywood comes this delectable shot of famed Washington actress. Pictured also is Irene Manning, film actress, who has been named the "Pippin Girl" by the Washington State Apple Growers association. (International)

Mid-Willamette Valley News

Reports From The Statesman's Community Correspondents

Salem, Oregon, Saturday Morning, December 11, 1943

PAGE THREE

Rainbow Girls Are Inspected

State Officers Come, Masons Serve Snacks To Entire Group

WOODBURN — Evergreen Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, met Wednesday for annual inspection by grand officers. Honor guests were Miss Nancy Austin of St. Helens assembly, who is now Grand Advisor for Oregon; Mrs. Mildred Oliver of Albany, supreme deputy in Oregon; Miss Margaret Yates of Evergreen assembly, grand drill leader; Miss Betty Brown of Newberg assembly, Grand Faith; and Mrs. Florence Stalley, mother advisor of Corvallis assembly. Miss Austin was presented with a beautiful victory corsage, the others with gay handkerchief nosegays.

The initiatory work was exemplified for the visitors, with Miss Donna Gilliam, a member of the class taken in at the last meeting, acting as candidate. Mrs. J. Melvin Ringo was soloist for the evening. Mrs. Oliver and Miss Austin both gave inspiring and helpful addresses. Miss Brown and Mrs. Stalley also spoke, expressing their pleasure at being present.

A large number of Masons and Eastern Stars were present. Another out of town guest Miss Jo Anna Herring of the Newberg assembly. At the close of assembly the Masonic Lodge members present invited the Rainbow girls and their guests to the dining room where they served hot weiner-wiches and coffee, fruit punch and cookies. Songs and a call for the Masonic hosts took a bow enlivened the social hour.

A Christmas party and election for the next meeting, December 22, was announced.

Mrs. Minnie Olson, worthy matron of Evergreen chapter No. 41, O.E.S. has had announcement made of the annual election of officers at the next meeting, December 13.

After election the Past Matrons' club will follow its long established annual custom of serving supper. In charge if the dining room are Mrs. Eulach Gilbert, Mrs. Martha Reiling, Mrs. Florence Butterfield, Mrs. Minnie Richards. The kitchen committee is Mrs. Gertrude Beach, Mrs. Eleanor Vickers, Mrs. Pearl Lansden and Mrs. Mary Smith.

Jefferson Girls Elect Officers

JEFFERSON—The girls of Jefferson high school Pep club met Tuesday and selected officers for the school year as follows: president, Lois Smith; vice president, Gaynell Cole; secretary, Irene Huber; treasurer, Lois Hampton.

Six new members were chosen by the faculty: Mary Karg, Theresa Bowen, Lorraine Bentley, Betty Fish, Betty Baxter and Betty June Ricks.

The freshman class has one new member, Aileen Armstrong from Woodburn. Two sophomore boys have moved away, Fred Horner to Chelan, Wash., and Gordon Smith to Amity.

Violin Concert Set for December 19

SILVERTON — Miss Catherine Petersen, well known violinist, will be featured soloist at the Christmas concert being arranged for Trinity church by Mrs. Tom A. Anderson for December 19 at 8 p.m. Miss Petersen will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Christian A. Petersen, and they will play two numbers from Bach. Trinity choir will sing a number of Christmas selections for the concert. This is the second in a group of vespers concerts which the choir is giving under the direction of Mrs. Anderson this winter. The first was given November 28 and was well attended.

Old Airport Is Sold, Will Be Used as Farm

SILVERTON — A deal was closed recently whereby John J. Moe became owner of the old Silverton airport off from the Seanty road. The place contained 121 acres and was purchased from the A. Coolidge company. Mr. Moe will have it farmed.

Silverton's airport was a popular place a number of years ago and at one time sponsored a large air circus which was widely attended.

Valley Births

WOODBURN — Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reinholdt are the parents of a 5-pound baby born December 7 at the Woodburn hospital. This is the third son in the family, and the fourth child.

SILVERTON—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jake Ehli at the Silverton hospital December 9.

The twins, a boy and a girl, born to Mr. and Mrs. A. Huber on the 9th, are reported as getting along very well.

National 4H Club Winner Speaker at Jersey Meeting

ALICE ROBERTS

Midstate Man In Santiam

MARION FORKS—W. F. King of Poneville was here Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Myers of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. J. Healey and son Timothy were Sunday visitors at the Scott Young home.

Lew Jacobs of Marion Forks has been visiting in Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pugh and JoAnne of Detroit visited here Sunday.

Mrs. Lenora Rinard and daughters Margaret and Ruth, formerly of Detroit, were Thursday visitors at the home of Mrs. Scott Young.

Mrs. Rinard sold her store building in Detroit while here.

Mrs. Charles Clester of Detroit spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Scott Young.

Home Ec Club Has Program

UNION HILL — The Christmas meeting of the Union Hill Home Economics club was held at the home of Mrs. W. M. Tate Wednesday. Mrs. Alice Atkinson was hostess.

Red Cross sewing was worked on until the noon hour when a covered dish dinner was served to the group by Mrs. Tate and Mrs. Atkinson. In the afternoon a business meeting was held with Mrs. Tate turning the meeting over to the new chairman, Mrs. F. Doerfler.

Mrs. Carrie Townsend arranged a Christmas program of songs followed by each member receiving a Christmas gift.

Present were: Mrs. F. Doerfler, Mrs. Alex Doerfler, Mrs. Albert Savage, Mrs. Phillip Fischer, Mrs. Marion Fischer, Mrs. O. W. Humphreys, Mrs. M. M. Gilmore, Mrs. Alice Atkinson, Mrs. W. F. Krenz, Mrs. Carrie Townsend, Mrs. Floyd Fox, Mrs. Verna Scott, Mrs. Byron McElhaney, Maurice Fischer and Mrs. Tate.

Maurice Davis Leaves For Aircraft Job

SILVERTON—Maurice Davis, son of Charles Davis, left Friday for Los Angeles, where he will be in the office of the Douglas Aircraft. His sister, Mrs. George McCuskey, is employed in the office also. Mrs. McCuskey, as Miss Dorine Davis, was employed at Salem for a number of years before going to California.

Caught in Pipe

While playing "commando" near his home in Los Angeles, Raymond Stone, 7, became trapped in this 12-inch irrigation pipe. While his mother (left) stood by offering comfort, firemen worked to free him with an acetylene torch. (AP wirephoto.)

Just returned from the national 4-H club congress in Chicago is Miss Alice Roberts, who has been chosen as one of the six national winners in the girls' record contest, sponsored by Montgomery Ward and company of Chicago. As a national winner, Miss Roberts receives a $200 scholarship to college.

This award climaxes an outstanding career in 4-H club work for this Marion county girl. In her eight years in 4-H club work, she has carried a total of 34 projects and has been a local 4-H club leader for five years.

To mention a few of her past outstanding awards, she was state champion winner in the Kerr emergency meal division in canning this year, was state home beautification champion in 1940, and won a blue ribbon award on canning at Chicago in 1939. She has been a consistent winner in county and state competition during her entire eight years in club work.

Total income from the 34 club projects she has carried is more than $8000. A good percentage of this income was in dairy work, in which she has been an outstanding breeder and exhibitor for several years, before it was necessary for her to move into town and sell her dairy herd in 1942.

Projects carried include cooking, dairy, clothing, canning, home beautification, rose and flower, dairy record keeping, homemaking, and poultry. Each project that was started was carried through in an excellent manner, it is said.

Miss Irma Kuenzi, state winner in food preparation, also has just returned from the national 4-H club congress. She has also been in club work for eight years, but has specialized mainly in cooking. As state winner, Miss Kuenzi was sent to the national 4-H club congress by Savel, Inc., of Evanston, Ind.

SILVERTON — M. G. Gundersen, president of the Marion County Jersey Cattle club, reports that the December meeting Sunday will be held at the D. C. Brock farm near Four Corners, Salem.

Alice Roberts, Turner, just back from winning national 4-H honors at Chicago, will be the featured speaker for the day.

Money Earned In Many Ways

WOODBURN—The Camp Fire Girls group have been active in achievement and social meetings, as well as in earning money for their various projects. A 45-minute cookie sale at a booth in front of Landon's furniture store Saturday netted $12.

The Tawanka Camp Fire group is interested in hiking and in learning to recognize and name the various trees growing in the vicinity. They are also learning to tie knots. Their newest interest is the preparation for singing Christmas carols.

The Okiah girls invited their mothers to a council fire the first of the week. Those present were: Mrs. Walter De Haan and Betty Jo, Mrs. O. L. Withers and Patricia, Mrs. J. B. Ernest and Nanette Lee, Mrs. A. R. Cole and Dolores, Mrs. Earl Housewair and Patsy, Mrs. Zora McGonegal and Margaret, Mrs. M. D. Woolly and Janet, Mrs. Rodney Alden and Alice, Jo Ann Olson, Hazel Hermanson and Carol and Doris Rose.

Honor beads were awarded to Alice Alden, Margaret McGonegal, Carol Rose and Patsy Housewair. Carol and Doris Rose were promoted to the rank of trail seeker. The girls served cookies and punch.

Health Nurse Visits In Pedee Community

LINCOLN—Miss Barbara Dike, Polk county health nurse drove to Pedee to speak to local PTA group at the monthly meeting at the school house. Mrs. C. Van Den Bosch, president, was in charge. Miss Dike spoke on nutrition and communicable diseases and their symptoms, also leaving charts concerning these diseases with the teachers.

After the business session and program a pie social was featured, the proceeds, $78.75 to be used as a PTA fund. Miss Dike was accompanied by Mrs. Lois Crawford.

Mrs. E. A. Domagalla Shows Improvement

SILVERTON—Mrs. E. A. Domagalla is reported as convalescing at her home where she was taken this week from the Silverton hospital, following major surgery.

Mrs. T. R. Hobart continues to improve at the local hospital where she submitted to a major operation several days ago.

Tent Dwellers Now in House

Jones House Occupied By Parrish Gap Family

JEFFERSON — Homer Bell has purchased a lot on Third street in Dungan addition to Jefferson, and is planning to build a house, garage and chicken house on the place.

Victor Oleman and family, who have been living in a tent in the Parrish Gap district, have moved into the Jones house in the north part of Jefferson.

The T. H. Pilcher family, who lived near Marion, have moved into the Delbert Murphy house on Second street.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Vail were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ambrose of Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wilson spent Sunday and Monday visiting at the home of Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Austin near Aumsville.

Earl Phelps is confined to his bed with a broken leg. He was working on a trestle on the West Salem bridge, and fell from the 18 foot trestle, breaking both bones just above the ankle and dislocated the ankle. Phelps has been employed by the Southern Pacific for a number of years.

Recent guests at the home of Mrs. Grace Thurston were Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Skelton and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sedgewick and daughter Linda of Portland. Mrs. Skelton is a daughter and Mrs. Vergen and Mrs. Sedgewick are granddaughters of Mrs. Thurston.

4H Club Work Grange Topic

WEST SALEM — The West Salem Grange met last evening at the city hall, Carleton Brown, master presided.

Mrs. Emily VanSanten, school principal spoke on 4-H-club work and how the grange can cooperate. Eleven 4-H-clubs are now working including cooking, sewing, gardening, chickens, rabbits, and woodwork. She stressed the fact that many of the youth problems might be solved by interesting them in this type of club work.

The installation of officers who were unable to attend the joint installation at Monmouth was held. Final plans were formulated for a demonstration of degree work to be held at Rickreall early in January.

The election of state officers was conducted. The secretary and tellers were indicated to canvass the vote and forward the results to the state secretary.

The master spoke on 4-H-club activities, in the school, and urged the individual grange members to interest themselves in this work.

Three visitors were present: Mrs. Grace Rackliff, member of the Myrtle Point grange and Mr. and Mrs. Ingram of the Yankton grange in Columbia county.

Woodburn Garden Club to Entertain

WOODBURN — The annual Christmas party of the Woodburn Garden club has been set for the evening of December 14. It will be held at the Lutheran social hall and will begin with a hot dinner at 7 o'clock to which all club members and their families are invited.

The table decorations, to be arranged by club members, will be judged and prizes will be awarded. Later in the evening there will be a Christmas program culminating in a gift exchange at the Christmas tree.

Woodburn Home Ec Club Elects Officers

WOODBURN—The Home Economics club of Woodburn high school met for organization and election of officers, Wednesday, December 8. The officers for the year include the following: president, Beverly Hughes; vice president, Kathleen Jensen; secretary, Elloraine McCormick; treasurer, Mildred Fish; reporter, Ina Leighty; custodian, Eileen Bliven; song leader, Jean Bentley; historian, Caroline Zuber; pianist, Virginia Olson.

About 35 senior and junior girls were present at the organization. They made plans for the initiation of new sophomore and freshmen girls at the next meeting.

HOLLYWOOD Last Times Today
DONT MISS Harry Riggall
Sundown Jim JOHN KIMBROUGH

Grant Permits For Buildings

Jefferson City Council Grants Permit to Homer Bell

JEFFERSON — Mayor T. O. Kester presided at the regular meeting of the city council Tuesday night in the council room of the city hall.

W. J. Looney acted as recorder in the absence of E. E. Howell, who has been ill. Building permits were granted to Homer Bell for the building of a house, garage and chicken house on a lot in north Jefferson which he recently purchased. To Claude B. Ray for the erection of a business building on Main street to be built of brick and tile.

Another permit was granted to Harold Wynd to build a chicken house on his property on South Main street.

Motion carried that the mayor and recorder be authorized to grant building permits whenever in their judgment it is justifiable.

A communication from D. M. Burnett was read and placed on file regarding his meter reading and the water superintendent was instructed to correct the reading.

A communication was read asking that the city water be extended beyond the city limits to a lot on the north part of the Homer West farm just north of Jefferson.

The McKee brothers asked for a renewal of a permit for the year 1944 for the sale of beer.

The street committee was instructed to make minor street repairs. Besides paying bills, no further business was transacted.

Nebraska Couple In Monitor

MONITOR — Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Scherich of Inland, Neb., are spending the winter with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Baker.

Mrs. W. L. Harrison returned Friday from Los Angeles where she visited her brother, Walter E. Revo. She is spending this weekend in Portland with her sister, Mrs. Josie Watson who is leaving for Sherwood, ND, very soon.

Mrs. Lee R. Allison and six children stopped for a week at the Harrison home on their trip from Sherwood to San Francisco, to join her husband who is employed there. Mrs. Allison and Mrs. Harrison are sisters.

Roy Newport Makes Trip to Portland

DETROIT—Roy Newport transacted business in Portland this week.

Mrs. O. J. White substituted for Mrs. Blanche Grafe, intermediate teacher on Tuesday.

BUY A BOND FOR XMAS! The Present with a Future!
CAPITOL - LAST TIMES TODAY - Bette Davis
Paul Lukas In a Play that won the N. Y. Critics Award—Now a picture to win the whole world's heart
"Watch on the Rhine" - CO-FEATURE - "Desperadoes" with Claire Green Randolph Trevor • Ford • Scott
STARTS SUNDAY
Here's the Wonder World's Wonder Musical!
Betty GRABLE
George MONTGOMERY
Conceit ROMERO
CONEY ISLAND in TECHNICOLOR with CHARLES WINNINGER PHIL SILVERS
Co-Feature
A Supreme Court Judge goes on a Vacation... The Results are Sensational...
"A STRANGER IN TOWN"
with Frank Morgan • Jean Rogers • Richard Carlson

Silverton Women Postpone Session

SILVERTON — Woman's club, which has its regular meeting date Monday, has postponed its meeting time one week in order to hold a Christmas meeting. This will be held at the home of Mrs. Glenn Briedwell, John Medcalf, art teacher in the Silverton high school, will demonstrate various Christmas decorations. Mrs. S. L. Altmie will appear in a reading and will be accompanied by a vocal trio composed of Mrs. Tom Anderson, Mrs. Alf O. Nelson and Mrs. Dan Riveness singing Christmas carols.

School Swings Are Repaired

CLOVERDALE—E. V. Vickers left Saturday by bus for Huntington Beach, Calif., where he plans to spend a few days visiting with his mother who has been in poor health. She is past 87 years of age.

The local school board has recently repaired the swings and installed a new rope on the flag pole. The stage for the Christmas program, also a Christmas tree, is to be put up Saturday by members of the board.

The consolidated 4-Leaf Clover club and Turner Better Homes and Gardens club will hold an all day meeting December 22 at the home of Elizabeth Ball in Turner. An exchange of gifts will be a main attraction of the afternoon meeting.

School Plans Holiday Program at Grange

UNION HILL — A Christmas program will be given by the children of the school assisted by their teacher, Mrs. Hougha. It will be presented to the public at the grange hall.

BUY A BOND FOR XMAS! The Present with a Future!

STARTS SUNDAY
BOGART
The great star of "Casablanca" in the year's mightiest adventure drama!
merciless sun!
endless sands!
merciless battle!
marchless thrill!
SAHARA
with BRUCE BENNETT • J. CARROL NAISH • LLOYD BRIDGES • REX INGRAM COMPANION FEATURE
TREMBLE with SUSPENSE!
SHAKE with LAUGHTER!
SWOON with JOY!
DANGEROUS BLONDES
with ALLYN JOHNSON • EVELYN KEYES
EDMUND LONE • JOHN HUBBARD • ANITA LOUISE • FRANK CRAVER

ELSINORE Last Times Today
People who make you glad to be alive... to laugh... to love... to live every gallant moment with them!
Claudia
Dorothy McGUIRE
Robert YOUNG • Ina CLAIRE
Reginald GARDNER • Olga BADANOVA
Adapted for the Screen by Morris Ryskind From the Play by Rose Franken as Produced for the Stage by John Golden
Co-Feature "THEY CAME TO BLOW UP AMERICA" with George Sanders - Anna Stenn