Wootons to Be Supper Hosts

Colonel and Mrs. Elmer V. Wooton will be hosts for a charmingly arranged buffet supper party Thursday night at 6 o'clock at their home on East Wilson street. The affair will honor the officers of Colonel Wooton's selective service staff and their wives.

The serving table will be festive with an arrangement of red candles from end to end down the center guarded by holly and a bouquet of red carnations. Christmas greens and candles will be used in the guest rooms.

Guests of Colonel and Mrs. Wooton will be Lt. Col. and Mrs. Carleton Spencer, Lt. Col. and Mrs. George Sande, Major and Mrs. Hugh Adams, Lt. and Mrs. Harold Hauk, Lt. and Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine, Captain and Mrs. Lawrence Berlin, Major and Mrs. Troy Walker, Captain and Mrs. Jack Routh, Major and Mrs. Frederick Brennan, and Mrs. Verden E. Hockett.

Staff Members Fed at Party

Members of the Marion county department of health staff were guests at a Christmas party held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Stone on Wednesday night.

The evening was spent playing games after which there was an exchange of small gifts with Batty Cooper acting as Santa Claus.

The Christmas theme was carried out in the decorations used in the rooms and small red candles were used in the individual plum puddings served at the refreshment hour.

Staff members and guests present were: Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Lermon, Mr. and Mrs. Batty Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Leif Bergsvik, Mr. and Mrs. Don Meyer, S. Sgt. and Mrs. Frank Tilley, Mrs. Bernice Yeary, Mrs. Ruby Bunnell, Mrs. Evelyn Basley, Mrs. Nora Wood, Mrs. Lucille Kelly, Mrs. Marjorie Wilkoff, Miss Grace L. Taylor, Miss Erma Plett, Miss Mervyn Darby, Miss Vera Wood, Miss Melba Conrad, and Miss Neva Collier.

Buffet Supper For BPW Club

Christmas party plans were under discussion at a joint meeting of the music, art and hospitality committees of the Salem Business and Professional Woman's club, called recently by Miss Josephine Evans, chairman of the music committee.

The party will be held at the YWCA Tuesday night, December 28, and will be a buffet supper, instead of the usual dinner meeting.

SCIO — Eva Green of San Diego, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Green of Gettysburg, South Dakota, and LeRay Howard Montgomery, radio mechanic 2/c, of naval repair base, San Diego, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Montgomery, of Scio, were married at First Lutheran church in San Diego December 7.

They were attended by Mrs. B. I. Johnson of Lakeside, Calif., and Leo Hoffart, of Beulah, North Dakota.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Vasseler.

The bride wore a street dress of aqua green with brown accessories and had a corsage of Talisman roses.

The groom is a graduate of Stayton high school, and a former employe of Bell Telephone. The bride has been employed at Consolidated Aircraft in San Diego.

AUMSVILLE—The Woman's club was entertained Friday at the home of Mrs. Ernest Towle for the annual Christmas party. Mrs. E. Klein gave a reading. Mrs. Roy Hough and Miss Minnie Peterson tied for honors in a contest game. Greetings from a former member, Mrs. William Forgy, now of Los Angeles, were read.

Couple Sings at USO Program

Solos and duets sung by Mr. and Mrs. William Bush, with their piano accompanist, Mrs. Jessie Bush Mickelson, were the surprise feature on the Sunday afternoon musical program at Chemeketa street USO. The growing popularity of these programs, under the direction of Mrs. E. J. Kortzborn, was indicated by an attendance of 150. Although civilians are welcome to attend, most of them were men in uniform.

Vocalists from Camp Adair were Pvt. Sam Boyer and Pvt. Benjamin Beitch, both of whom have sung on this program before. Accompanying them was Mary Hughes who accompanied also the 16 numbers for community singing ranging from "Pistol Packin' Mama" to "Holy Night," each chosen by request from the audience.

A very special program is promised for next Sunday. It will begin at 3 o'clock, earlier than usual. The Girl Reserve choir of 40 voices will begin the program. A string ensemble led by a soldier, formerly a concert violinist, will be featured. The public is invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. John Folsom Hayes (Irene Paulson) are now living in Portland where they have taken an apartment. Mr. Hayes will enter the University of Oregon Medical school in January.
