Guest Speaker

Rev. Arthur C. Bates, formerly minister at the First Christian church, Klamath Falls, will be the guest minister at the First Christian church Sunday morning, Rev. Bates resigned his post to give full time to the work of the Christian churches in Oregon. In 1946 the Centennial celebrations of the Christian churches will be held in Turner, where the summer camp grounds are located. One project of the five-year program, looking forward to the Centennial, has been increased evangelism, and Rev. Bates is the latest worker to be added to the staff.

Yakima Man Guest Speaker

Rev. Carl C. Harwood of Yakima, general superintendent in the northwest for the "Child Evangelist Fellowship," will speak Sunday at Calvary Baptist church. Rev. Harwood has served in Baptist pastorates for a number of years and for six years was associated with Charles E. Fuller of "The Old-Fashioned Revival Hour."

Rev. Harwood will also bring his therein on which he will play several selections. This instrument which has no strings, pipes, reeds or keys, is often referred to as "the strangest instrument in the world." It is played without the operator's hands touching the machine. Less than a dozen of these machines exist throughout the world.

Mr. Harwood will speak on "The Great Need for Child Evangelism." The FBI has reported that there are over two million children living in the Pacific Northwest, and in an effort to curb the high rate of juvenile delinquency, as prevalent today, the "fellowship" which this man represents has organized weekly Bible classes for over 11,000 children.

Rev. Harwood will be speaking at the First Baptist church at night.

Chaplain Kenneth A. Nelson of Camp Adair will be the speaker for the evening service at Calvary, and will bring a message on the subject "The Grace of God."

USO Picture To Be Shown

Presbyterian Church Sponsors Film of Work of Salvation Army

A colored-sound film depicting the work of the Salvation Army-USO units among the men and women in the service at home and abroad will be shown Sunday night at the First Presbyterian church.

An invitation has been extended to the local Salvation Army group to participate in this program, which is under the direction of Maj. William E. Parkhouse, divisional secretary for Oregon and South Idaho, with offices in Portland. Maj. Stevens of the local Salvation Army will share in the program.

This is an unusually fine picture, and will prove a real comfort to all families having people in the service. This program will be presented at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Irvin Williams will speak from radio station KSLM at 8 o'clock on "The Trial of Jesus."

Sunday morning the choir under the direction of Virginia Ward Elliott will present two anthems, "The Heavens Are Declaring" (Beethoven), and "The God of Abraham Praise" (Buck). The pastor's theme is "Watch and Pray."

The Thursday mid-week service for January will deal with the three short letters of the apostle John, and will interest those seeking to deepen their spiritual life.

Will Elect Church Heads

The annual election of elders and one trustee will be held Sunday morning at the First Christian church. Supplementing the sermon will be the anthem by the choir, "Rest in the Lord," by Stickler.

The evening sermon by Rev. Dudley Strain will be entitled "Seeking the Christian Way." At the evening service the choir will sing "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" by Shelley, and Miss Bernice Caplinger and Mrs. George Bowen will sing as a duet "In the Garden with Jesus" by Ackley. There will be a baptismal service.

The annual meeting of the congregation will be held Wednesday and will begin with a turkey supper at 6:30. Records of achievements during the past year will be reviewed and suggestions made for the new year's work. Smith B. Holt, chairman of the board of elders, will preside at the brief business session, after which a program has been planned to conclude the evening. Special recognition will be given to members who have died during the past year, to members now serving in the armed services, and also to the 125 new members who have been added to the local church during the past year.

Trachsel Speaker At Jason Lee

Rev. John J. Trachsel returned a few weeks ago on the SS Gripsholm from a concentration camp in China where he had been in missionary work since 1930. He will speak at the Jason Lee Methodist church Sunday morning relating his experiences in the Japanese concentration camp and his return to America on the Gripsholm. While a student at Willamette university, Mr. Trachsel for a time was director of the choir of the Jason Lee church.

Upon his graduation from the university in 1930 he went at once to China. His many friends in Salem are invited to hear him Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Jason Lee church. Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Ray E. Short will bring his series of sermons on "The Four-fold Meaning of Prayer."

GOP Leaders Plan Regional Meet
