Miss Enos Weds . . .

Miss Doris T. Enos became Mr. Raymond A. Hoffman's bride at a quiet ceremony Saturday afternoon in the fireplace room of the First Presbyterian church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Wood and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Hoffman.

Members of the two families were present for the 1 o'clock service with Rev. W. Irvin Williams officiating. The fireplace was decorated with an arrangement of yellow acacia and white chrysanthemums.

For her wedding the bride wore a smart black tulleur with black hat and accessories. She wore kolinsky furs and her corsage was of pink and white camellias. The couple was unattended.

A wedding dinner in honor of the newlyweds was held at Schneider's dining room after the ceremony. Later in the day Mr. Hoffman and his bride left for a short trip. They will return to Salem before he leaves the end of the month for Key West, Florida.

Mr. Hoffman is an electrician's mate, second class, with the submarine service, United States navy reserve. The new Mrs. Hoffman is employed at Homer H. Smith Insurance agency.

Mrs. Russell Woodward, who has enlisted in the WAVES and is leaving next Sunday for Hunter college, New York City, where she will take her indoctrination training. Mrs. Woodward is the former Margaret Bell and the daughter of Mrs. Kate G. Bell. She is a graduate of Salem schools and attended the University of Oregon where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. Her husband is overseas with the army.

Visitors in Salem . . .

Visitors in the capital for a few days are Captain and Mrs. L. Kimball Page and their daughters, Stephanie and Kathleen. Captain Page is stationed at Williams Field, Chandler, Arizona. They are the house guests of Captain Page's mother, Mrs. U. Scott Page. The family formerly resided in Salem while Doctor Page was on the medical staff at the Oregon State hospital.

MRS. GEORGE R. K. MOORHEAD

A Reception for Officers . . .

One of the largest social events of the month will be the Junior Woman's club reception on Monday, January 24 at the Salem Woman's clubhouse. The affair is being arranged in honor of Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. Moorhead is a past president of the Salem Woman's club. Sharing honors with Mrs. Moorhead will be Mrs. Joseph Felton, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Clinton Standish, junior extension secretary.

The reception and program is scheduled for 8 o'clock and during the evening Mrs. Moorhead will give an informal talk. Presidents of women's service clubs have been invited to attend and junior members will bring guests.

Mrs. James Pike will introduce to the receiving line which will include Mrs. Delbert Schwabauer, president of the club, Mrs. Robert Boardman, club advisor, Mrs. Moorhead and Mrs. Standish.

During the reception hour Mrs. Ralph Nohlgren and Mrs. Fred Gast will pour and junior club girls will serve.

Mrs. Maurice Brennan heads the directorate for the affair and on her committee are Mrs. Joseph Bray, Mrs. Fred Gast, Mrs. Carleton Roth, Mrs. Edwin McEwen, Mrs. Kenneth Carr, Mrs. Elmo Lindholm and Mrs. Francis Jernigan.

Leaving for Austin, Texas, Friday, will be Miss Betty Patricia Wirth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wirth, who will be married to Corporal Russell A. Beardsley, son of Mrs. Olive M. Beardsley of Salem and Mr. Harry J. Beardsley, of Klamath Falls, on January 25. The ceremony will take place at the First Presbyterian church and the couple will reside in Austin while Mr. Beardsley is stationed at South Camp Hood.

Older Girls Will Meet . . .

February 11, 12 and 13 have been set as the dates for the 31st Oregon Older Girls conference which this year will be held in Salem at the First Presbyterian church. The conference is sponsored by the Oregon council of churches.

Miss Frances Kells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kells, is president of the conference and will preside at the business sessions. The theme for the three day session will be "Hands." Dr. R. Franklin Thompson, former vice-president of Willamette university and now president of the College of Puget Sound at Tacoma, will be the guest speaker.

Luncheons and banquets will be held the two opening days and a tea will be given at the home of Mrs. C. P. Bishop on Court street on Saturday afternoon, the 12th. Inspirational meetings will be held in the church auditorium. All girls organizations in Salem are assisting in planning the conference.

They're in the News . . .

Social tidbits these days concern the whereabouts of people, where they are going and their future plans. Miss Patricia Livesley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley, arrived in Salem this weekend to spend the ensuing week with her parents before entraining for New York City. Miss Livesley will entrain for the east coast on January 21 and will be accompanied by a former Stanford roommate, Mrs. Richard Beebe Dudson (Joan Murray) of Portland.

Miss Livesley has been in the revision drafting department at Swan Island shipyard and has had an apartment in Portland with Miss Marylee Fry. She is a graduate of Leland Stanford and a member of the Spinsters. Miss Livesley plans to be gone six months or more.

Arriving this weekend from Savannah, Georgia, will be Mrs. Lawrence Blaisdell (Charlotte Burkholder) who will be the guest of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Blaisdell, and will divide her time between Salem and Portland, where she will be with her sister, Miss Shirley Burkholder. Lt. Blaisdell is now overseas with the army. Enroute west the traveler visited in Memphis, Tenn., with her brother-in-law and sisters-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. Donald Blaisdell and Miss Dorothy Blaisdell.

Is Going South

Mrs. Lee Hayes Andrews (Gertrude Dalk) is entraining for the south Monday after a month's visit in the capital at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Dalk. Flight Officer and Mrs. Andrews make their home at Augusta, Georgia, where he is stationed with the army air corps. Mr. Andrews came west with his wife in early December and returned several weeks ago. Mrs. Andrews' sister, Mrs. Robert Ross (Dorothy Dalk) of Eugene will be here for the weekend to say good-bye to her sister.

It is farewell for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Finsley and their two sons, who are leaving the first of February for Fossil to reside. Mr. Finsley has already left for the eastern Oregon city where he will resume his private law practice. He has been director of the state board of parole and probation.

Parties This Week Informal . . .

Entertaining these days is very informal with hostesses inviting a few friends to dinner or luncheon. Brides-elect still hold the social spotlight with parties given in their honor.

Dr. and Mrs. Burton A. Myers presided at an informal dinner party Saturday night at their North 24th street home for a group of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Taylor were dinner hosts Saturday night at their State street home. Covers were placed for 12 and several hours of bridge were in play during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague entertained at a buffet dinner Saturday night at their North 14th street home in compliment to a group of friends. Several tables of bridge were made up after the dinner hour. Mr. and Mrs. Harris Liez are planning a series of bridge dinner parties and the first one will be held tonight at their South Liberty street home.

Tea For A Visitor

A delightful visitor in the capital is Mrs. Rudolf Baar of New York City. She is the house guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Nicholson. Mr. Nicholson is arranging an informal tea for a group of Mrs. Baar's Salem friends Monday afternoon at her North Summer street home. Mr. and Mrs. Baar came west for the holidays and he returned shortly after the first of the year. Mrs. Baar is spending most of her time in Portland with her parents and plans to leave for the east in February.

Gleasons to Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gleason have invited guests to a dessert supper party Tuesday night at their suburban home. An arrangement of spring flowers and candles will be used on the supper table. Contract bridge will be in play during the evening.

The Gleason's guests include Mr. and Mrs. Lee Canfield, Mayor and Mrs. I. M. Doughton, Mr. and Mrs. William Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smart and Mr. and Mrs. William L. Phillips.

Shower For Betty Wirth

Mrs. David H. Cameron will entertain Wednesday night at her Center street residence for the pleasure of Miss Betty Patricia Wirth, who leaves Friday for Austin, Texas, where she will be married on January 25 to Corporal Russell Beardsley.

A miscellaneous shower will honor the bride-to-be and a late supper will follow an evening of bridge. The table will be covered with a hand crocheted cloth belonging to Mrs. Cameron's daughter, Mrs. Donald Nagle. Christmas roses and a bridal couple will center the table.

Bidden to honor Miss Wirth are Mrs. Ralph Wirth, Mrs. C. W. Parker, Mrs. Oscar L. Paulson, Jr., Mrs. J. H. Ryan, Mrs. L. O. Arens, Miss Lloyd Reinholdt, Mrs. Charles E. Stricklin, Mrs. H. Lawrence Lister, Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck, Mrs. Francis Wade and Mrs. Earl Cooley.
