The Parrish Huskies and the Parrish Wolves, both undefeated in four starts are ruling the roost in the Leslie-Parrish intramural basketball tourney, according to figures compiled yesterday.

Games this week: Tuesday—Leslie Tigers vs. Parrish Grizzlies and Leslie Lions vs. Parrish Huskies at Leslie; Wednesday—Parrish Bears vs. Leslie Wildcats and Parrish Wolves vs. Leslie Panthers at Parrish; Thursday—Leslie squads at Leslie, Tigers vs. Panthers and Lion vs. Wildcats; Thursday—Parrish squads at Parrish, Huskies vs. Wolves and Grizzlies vs. Bears.

Tuesday's round at Leslie will serve as a polo benefit afternoon, an admission charge of 10 cents to be made. The Leslie band, pep club and cheer leaders will be out en masse and a goodly crowd is expected. The first game starts at 4:15 p.m. This will be more or less a dress rehearsal for the band and rooters for the first night game of the season between the northern and southern rivals, to be played at Leslie February 18.

In the individual scoring parade Roger Dasch, Tigers, is leading with 45. Tied for second are Mel Boggs, Grizzlies, Dick Hendrie, Huskies, and Richard Province, Huskies, all with 40.

1944 Angling Laws Adopted

PORTLAND, Jan. 29—(P)—Limits on jack salmon will be removed after February 1, the state game commission announced today in adopting fishing regulations for 1944 at a special meeting here.

The legal catch of steelheads from coastal streams will be tightened from the present five in one day or 10 in a week to three in one day or nine in a week, effective February 1.

Tanner creek, which empties into the Columbia river near Bonneville dam will be closed August 1, instead of on the general closing date October 31, to avoid interfering with egg-taking operations at the Bonneville hatchery. The creek will be included in the general opening date of April 15.

Portland Hoop Race Sizzling

By the Associated Press

The most hotly contested hoop championship battle since 1907 loomed for Portland today as four teams emerged neck-and-neck from the first half of 1943-44 season play.

Jefferson knocked the Roosevelt quintet from its pedestal 27-22 last night to make standings even between them, and Grant moved into the victory column with a 36-32 defeat of Commerce.

This sends Jefferson, Grant, Roosevelt and Franklin into the stretch for the district 6 title and

Academy Quint Tops Gervais

Finishing up on the tuck end of a nip-and-tuck tilt when Center Dean Needham meshed a two-pointer in the last seconds, Sacred Heart academy's quint edged out Gervais 16-14 Friday night in a North Marion county B league basketball game on the St. Joseph's Hall court. The teams were tied at 10-all at haltime.

The victory was the second in league play this season for the Academy five.

'Jug' Leading Bond Tourney

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 29—(P)—Philadelphia Jug McSpaden whizzed through the Lakeside club course for a 65, five strokes under par, to set the pace today in the Bing Crosby-Bob Hope 36-hole war bond golf tournament to be decided on a pro-amateur best-ball basis.

McSpaden's partner, Bing's brother Bob, gave him six strokes by some mighty timely help, and they had an 18-hole best-ball total of 59, three strokes better than their nearest competitors. Bing scored a 40-38-78. The tournament concludes tomorrow. Hope and Crosby will award more than $2000 in prizes.
