Observation Post Sold For Red Cross Benefit

MILL CITY — The Mill City observation post has been closed, according to word received by Mrs. Lester Mason from Capt. K. E. Postlethwaite, signal corps ground observer officer. This is done to save on government funds. He said that the Mill City post observers have done excellent work the past two years.

The property will be disposed of by Mrs. Mason and the money will be turned over to the Red Cross.

A program in the auditorium followed with Mrs. Bertha Heckart, lecturer, in charge. For roll call the men named their favorite dish of food and the women their favorite flower. A skit was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Gus Cole; the audience sang "Hail, hail, the gang's all here."

A poem, written years ago by the late Percy Judd which told of the grange's wanderings in regard to seeking and finding a permanent place, was read by Frank Judd.

The feature of the program was the burning of the mortgage. Officiating were three former masters of this grange: C. W. Stacey, E. G. Clark and Gus Cole, and present master, Grant Teter. Former masters unable to be present were F. E. Wilson, E. O. Beckley and Ralph Dent.

The mortgage was written in 1938 for expenses incident to the purchase of the former store building, its removal to the present site and repairs and alterations. The home economics club was given credit for its many dinners, bazaars and other activities to raise funds; this tribute was made by Grant Teter.
