

Squash in Family Menus

Uncle Sam wants us to use up winter squash which is plentiful in Oregon markets. The price is reasonable and the supply will not remain good more than a month or so more, that's why the suggestion that squash be used in menus frequently.

Some family preferences are for steamed or baked squash served in whole pieces and seasoned with butter, salt and pepper; other families like theirs mashed, some like it arranged in a casserole in cubes, seasoned and baked and some like it dressed up a bit. But whatever the preference is, use it for the sake of saving the crop and cutting down on the food budget.

Here are recipes that are a little more elaborate than plain baked or steamed squash.

BAKED SQUASH WITH SAUSAGE

Cut squash in individual pieces, invert in baking dish and bake until partly done. Turn right side up and fill cavities with sausage patties. Replace in oven and cook until sausage is well done—or about 45 minutes.

SQUASH-CHEESE SOUFFLE

2 cups mashed winter squash
3/4 cup milk
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine or
3/4 cup thin cream
salt and pepper
1/2 cup grated cheese
2 eggs separated
Mix squash with milk or cream, seasoning and beaten egg yolk. At the last fold in whites—beaten stiff. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) for 40 minutes or until firm in pan which has been set in hot water.

SQUASH PIE

2 cups steamed or baked squash
3/4 cup sugar
2 cups scalded milk
3 eggs
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon ginger
2 tablespoons flour
salt
Make crust. Rub squash through sieve and add sugar, flour, salt, spices, milk and well beaten eggs. Line individual pie pans with crust and pour in filling. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) for one hour.

GLAZED SQUASH

2 cups mashed squash
1/2 cup margarine or butter
1/2 cup brown sugar
dash of nutmeg
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup pineapple or orange juice
Mash cooked squash. Grease baking pan and spread with 1/4 cup brown sugar. Sprinkle with salt and dot with margarine. Arrange squash in pan and pour over fruit juice, sprinkling lightly with nutmeg. Cover with remaining brown sugar and margarine. Bake in moderate oven (350-375 degrees) 30 minutes.

Christensen, past president of Silverton local of Lumber and Sawmill workers union; Charles Bays, millworker; Ernest Boesch, millworker; Mike Stewart, engineer; Col. Fred G. Sherrill, chief of materials and equipment section, operations branch US engineers; Charles A. Sprague, master of ceremonies at flag presentation; H. W. Preston, secretary and local manager of Silver Falls Timber company; Lt. Cmdr. Henry N. Anderson, representing the US navy. The picture was taken when the Army Navy E flag was presented to the Silver Falls Timber company late in January.

SILVERTON, Feb. 10 — Silver Falls Timber company with one of the largest payrolls in this part of the state has gone over the top in the fourth war loan, it was announced Thursday by company officials. With a quota of $24,180, a total of $26,000 in bonds have been purchased by company employees to make up part of the $225,000 sold in the Silverton district as announced by James Clough, bond sale chairman.

The company, which was awarded the army-navy E last month for its outstanding record in producing large quantities of lumber for war purposes, has one of the largest average payroll deduction records of any company in the state. The bonds purchased were $10,584.50 in excess of its pledged payroll deduction for the month. Silverton with $225,000 of its $300,000 quota of bonds sold expects to be well over the top,

James Clough, bond chairman, said Thursday. Of the total sold to date $48,000 is from the rural area which is part of the Silverton district and under the direction of M. G. Gunderson. The 70th infantry band will play Friday afternoon between 12 and 3 o'clock at bond headquarters. Mrs. W. P. Scarth, chairman of the school bond sale, announced that the schools had doubled their quota which was originally $2000.

L. S. Lambert Dies Thursday

Funeral of Stayton Resident to Be Held on Sunday

STAYTON—Lawrence Sylvester Lambert, familiarly known by his many friends as "Ves Lambert," died Thursday morning at a Salem hospital after a short illness.

He was born in Missouri, December 10, 1868, and came to Oregon with his parents in 1875, when seven years of age, and had resided in the Stayton neighborhood continuously until his death.

Mr. Lambert was married to Ellen Glover, daughter of Philip Glover and Delilah Edmondson Glover, early Oregon pioneers, January 7, 1897, and shortly after their marriage built the hospital home in which they resided for more than 40 years.

Surviving him in addition to his widow, are his sisters, Frances Trine of Los Angeles and Mary Tate of Sublimity, and numerous nephews and nieces.

Funeral services will be held at the Weddle Undertaking parlors at Stayton Sunday at 2 o'clock, conducted by Elder Fred C. Reusser, an old time friend of the family, from Portland, and Rev. Willard Buckner, Baptist minister of Stayton. Burial will be made in the Stayton cemetery.

Mr. Lambert was a member of the Masonic fraternity for more than 50 years, and a few months ago was honored by having conferred upon him a "Fifty Year Emblem" of that fraternity. San-tiam Lodge No. 25, AF & AM will conduct the Masonic ritualistic services at the funeral and prominent Masons of Oregon will act as pallbearers and honorary pallbearers. Rex Hartley will sing "The Old Rugged Cross" and another appropriate selection.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Lambert have been active in Eastern Star circles and the Oregon grange, and he was master of the Pomona grange for four years successively; was an officer of the state organization for some time and for 13 years was worthy patron of the Eastern Star. He became a major in the Oregon national guard and was active at all times, when health permitted, in patriotic and political circles.

Would Make Hitler Jump

HATTIESBURG, Miss., Feb. 10 (AP)—An American paratrooper stationed in England was declared winner today of the "Hattiesburg American's" "Furthest-for-Hitler" contest, suggesting that the Nazi Fuehrer be condemned to make two parachute jumps daily with 'chutes packed by himself.

The paper said it would mail first prize—a $25 war bond—to Pfc. John Sharkey, member of a parachute infantry unit, at his army address. Judges explained Sharkey's suggestion best employed the victim's fears, arguing Hitler, a former soldier, would appreciate fully the mental strain of jumping with unreliable 'chutes, and observed that every person shrinks from precipitately colliding with an unyielding surface.

MESA Asks FDR For Investigation
CLEVELAND, Feb. 10 (AP)—The Mechanics Educational Society of America called tonight upon President Roosevelt to "order an investigation" of CIO and AFL membership on the war labor board.

The union's national administrative committee telegraphed the appeal following MESA's decision to continue indefinitely a truce in its recent four-day strike.

Scouts Near Membership Goal of 1000

An announced goal of 1000 scouts by the end of 1944 for Cascade area is rapidly being achieved, reports Scout Executive Lyle Leighton. The area now boasts a total of 958 youths, 85 having been added in January and 40 more thus far this month—in spite of absorption of many boys into the armed forces.

Deaf school boy scout units, cub pack No. 16 and troop No. 16 and the explorer group—held a dinner Thursday night in observance of the first anniversary of founding of the organizations. The troop charter was presented, cub badges were awarded and an honor court was held for troop members. A dance and party was held later in the scout cabin for older boys in the explorer unit.

Guests at the dinner were Carroll Hayes, organizer of the cub pack; Ralph Campbell, Cherry City Charter club vice chairman; Bill Phillips, president of Cascade council and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Leighton.

The deaf school is the only sponsoring organization in the council to have three scout units. Also held last night was a dinner honoring recently instituted cub pack No. 16 at St. Vincent's, with badges being presented to 25 new cubs by Ted Perrenboom, cub master.

Salem C of C Budget Is $25,000

A $25,000 budget for the year, with $12,000 earmarked for salaries, adopted this week by Salem chamber of commerce directors, includes as its second largest item $6800 for promotion. Of this sum $200 is for industrial expansion, $4800 for reserve, postwar and emergency.

Twelve hundred dollars is budgeted for rent; $500 for lights, water and gas; $700 for telephone and telegraph; $800 for office, printing, periodicals, etc.; $1000 for publicity; $1000 for miscellaneous expense; $500 for taxes and insurance (social security and unemployment), and $500 for travel.

A new class of $50 business memberships is to be offered in the chamber, with the expectation of securing 100 such memberships. Team heads for the annual membership campaign, this year to be brief and intensive, will be Frank Doerfler, L. I. Smith, Ralph Campbell, E. J. Scellars, Al Ramsey and Fred Anunson, Ralph Johnson of the membership department announced.

The proposed Salem school district six-mill levy over a five-year period for postwar improvements was endorsed by the board.

Soldiers in Pacific Buying Many Bonds

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—Soldiers in the southwest Pacific area are buying war bonds at an approximate rate of a million dollars worth a month, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt said today.

Interviewed by Mrs. James A. Doolittle, wife of the air corps major general, Mrs. Roosevelt said on a radio program (CBS) that the uniformed men of the theatre she visited recently have purchased more than $6,000,000 in bonds.
