Oregon Family End Texas Visit

SMITHFIELD — Mr. and Mrs. Jake K. Neufeldt of Rosenberg, Texas, arrived in Oregon last weekend and have found a home in Polk county where they expect to locate.

They brought six of their 11 children and one grandchild with them. Until 14 years ago they lived in Dallas and are well known in Polk and Marion counties.

While in Texas they were cotton raisers and general farmers, with carpentry work as a sideline. The oldest five children are not along, Alice and Vivian, both married, are living in Texas and New Mexico; Raymond, the oldest son, is in defense work in Tennessee. Roy and Eddie are in the service.

Harold Lamb Camp Foreman

SILVERTON—Harold C. Lamb of Salem, former foreman of the Silver Falls Timber company logging group, is now in charge of logging operations on the N. I. Morrison timber in the upper Bileyu creek locality near Scio, according to word reaching here this week. Piling, ties and imension lumber are the products contemplated at the sawmill which is to be set up near the main body of timber, according to the information released at Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamb made their home at Silverton for many years. It will also be recalled that Lamb's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hedges, lived here and from here went to the Philippines. They were there in 1941. Mrs. Hedges returned with her two daughters to the states, but Mr. Hedges remained. Following the fall of the islands, word came from Mr. Hedges, but for the past two years no message has been received, according to information here. Both the Hedges and Lambs have many friends at Silverton.
