

Hockey Clubs Suspended

SEATTLE, March 2-(AP)—An official of the Pacific Northwest ice hockey league said tonight he had been advised that national officials suspended owners, players and clubs in the Southern California ice hockey league because it recently had raided the northwest circuit of various players.

Al Leader, executive secretary of the Northwest league, said he had been notified of the action by Phil Thompson, of Atlantic City, president of the Amateur Hockey association of the United States. Leader said the raiding of players from his league was done specifically by the Los Angeles club.

The players who jumped the Northwest league for Los Angeles hockey included Goalie Stubby Mason, Forwards Art Schuman and Flea Morrison, of the Vancouver, B.C. Maple Leafs, and Goalie Bill Gribble of the Seattle (Boeing) Bombers.

The amateur hockey group is affiliated with the National Hockey league, professional ice loop, and the suspension might extend to possible play with the latter organization, Leader said.

Keltner Returns Indian Contract

CLEVELAND, March 2-(AP)—Third Baseman Ken Keltner of the Cleveland Indians today returned his signed contract and telephoned Vice President Roger Peckinpaugh that he would give up his 2-B draft classification in a Milwaukee foundry "and see what happens."

Keltner explained his attitude: "If the army wants me, that okay, but I'm a ball player by trade and I'm going to play ball until I'm called."

General Finance Defeats Chemawa

Salem's independent General Finance quintet defeated the Chemawa All-Stars 51-44 last night at Chemawa, with Center Keith Morris potting 22 of the Financiers points. Forward Panier of the All-Stars led his club with 14 counters.

CHEMAWA (44)	(31) GEN. FINANCE
Panier (14)	F (9)
Wildor (4)	G (7)
Sanders (8)	C (12)
Metzger (10)	G (8)
Davis (13)	S (8)
Chemawa sub - Williams	General Finance - Gilhooley 2

Calvary Baptist Five Upset by Salt Creek

Calvary Baptist's league-leading quintet in the senior "A" church basketball league was upset 33-26 by Salt Creek Baptist last night on the YMCA floor. The losers led at halftime, 14-5.

Forward Bartell led the Salt Creek team with 12 points, the same number scored by Roy Houck of Calvary Baptist.

CAL. BAP. (36)	(33) SALT CREEK
Houck (12)	F (10)
Dowd (3)	F (12)
Zahare (2)	C (10)
Thomas (7)	G (8)
Lovell (8)	G (1)
Calvary Baptist sub - Bloom	Salt Creek - Thienes 8

Crossword Puzzle

- 2-29
- |                        |                        |                       |              |
|------------------------|------------------------|-----------------------|--------------|
| HORIZONTAL      | 47. burden             | VERTICAL       | 10. hop-kiss |
| 1. saucy               | 48. variety of lettuce | 11. venomous serpents |              |
| 2. three-toed sloths   | 49. college official   | 12. short bow         |              |
| 3. portico             | 50. malt drinks        | 13. perch             |              |
| 4. space               | 51. sanitation         | 14. place             |              |
| 5. wrath               | 52. spikenard          | 15. mineral spring    |              |
| 6. afternoon parties   | 53. annoyance          | 16. the rainbc.       |              |
| 7. row                 | 54. foot-like part     | 17. observe           |              |
| 8. expire              | 55. land-measures      | 18. sieve             |              |
| 9. grate               |                        | 19. lachrymal drop    |              |
| 10. ancient ascetics   |                        | 20. metal machine-bar |              |
| 11. wagons             |                        | 21. masculine name    |              |
| 12. hypothetical force |                        | 22. daughter o. Nyx   |              |
| 13. Hawaiian food      |                        | 23. short bow         |              |
| 14. position           |                        | 24. perch             |              |
| 15. speeding           |                        | 25. mineral spring    |              |
| 16. cone-bearing tree  |                        | 26. the rainbc.       |              |
| 17. parcel of land     |                        | 27. observe           |              |
| 18. Asaan silkworm     |                        | 28. sieve             |              |
| 19. changed            |                        | 29. lachrymal drop    |              |
| 20. snare              |                        | 30. metal machine-bar |              |
| 21. river in Scotland  |                        | 31. masculine name    |              |
| 22. note in the scale  |                        | 32. daughter o. Nyx   |              |
| 23. sedate             |                        | 33. short bow         |              |
| 24. modulation         |                        | 34. perch             |              |
|                        |                        | 35. mineral spring    |              |
|                        |                        | 36. the rainbc.       |              |
|                        |                        | 37. observe           |              |
|                        |                        | 38. sieve             |              |
|                        |                        | 39. lachrymal drop    |              |
|                        |                        | 40. metal machine-bar |              |
|                        |                        | 41. masculine name    |              |
|                        |                        | 42. daughter o. Nyx   |              |
|                        |                        | 43. short bow         |              |
|                        |                        | 44. perch             |              |
|                        |                        | 45. mineral spring    |              |
|                        |                        | 46. the rainbc.       |              |
|                        |                        | 47. observe           |              |
|                        |                        | 48. sieve             |              |
|                        |                        | 49. lachrymal drop    |              |
|                        |                        | 50. metal machine-bar |              |
|                        |                        | 51. masculine name    |              |
|                        |                        | 52. daughter o. Nyx   |              |
|                        |                        | 53. short bow         |              |
|                        |                        | 54. perch             |              |
|                        |                        | 55. mineral spring    |              |
|                        |                        | 56. the rainbc.       |              |
|                        |                        | 57. observe           |              |
|                        |                        | 58. sieve             |              |
|                        |                        | 59. lachrymal drop    |              |
|                        |                        | 60. metal machine-bar |              |

Guy DeLay "Improved" At Silverton Hospital

SILVERTON—Guy "Pop" De Lay, Silverton high school athletics director and coach, is reported "improving" at the hospital where he was removed Monday following several days illness at his home. DeLay was stricken with an inflammatory condition in leg arteries and veins during the recent basketball season.

NW Airlines Ask Fare Cut

WASHINGTON, March 2-(AP)—Northwest Airlines proposed a reduction of fares for air passenger service today in briefs submitted to civil aeronautics board (CAB) examiners supporting its application for direct one-carrier service from New York to the Pacific northwest.

The company proposed a Milwaukee-New York fare which its representatives said was $4.10 less than the existing air passenger fare and proposed similar reductions between Milwaukee and Cleveland and between Detroit and Cleveland.

The company's counsel, Seth Richardson, announced that 10 company witnesses would be available for cross-examination by attorneys for other airlines tomorrow.

The port of New York authority has appeared before CAB, urging establishment of direct service to the Pacific northwest, and representatives of Detroit have asked the CAB to extend the city's service to Chicago and New York. Northwest Airlines' application calls for a route from Seattle to New York via Minneapolis-St. Paul, Milwaukee, Detroit and Cleveland.

Pioneers Trim Milwaukie 5

MILWAUKIE, Ore., March 2-(AP)—Oregon City won the Clackamas county basketball crown tonight by turning back a last-half Milwaukie drive for a 41-37 win.

The Pioneers next meet Gresham, top team in Multnomah county outside of Portland, for the championship of district 7's eastern division.

Indians Play Saints Tonight

MT. ANGEL — Chemawa's Indians, champions of Marion county B league, clash with St. John's of Milwaukie, champions of Multnomah and Clackamas counties, here Friday night on neutral Mt. Angel college court in a state district B-1 quarter-final basketball game. The tussle is billed for an eight o'clock start.

EAST ORANGE, N.J.-(AP)—The wrong Guy got the two bucks sent by Mrs. E. A. Cahleman of East Orange as a birthday present to her nephew, Marine Cpl. George F. Guy, on duty in the Pacific theatre.

But Cpl. George A. Guy, also a marine in the Pacific, upheld the honor of the corps. He sent back the two bucks.

Mother of New Quads Hopes To Marry Babes' Yank Father

By RUTH COWAN
HEANOR, DERBYSHIRE, ENGLAND, March 2-(AP)—Nora Carpenter, frail, attractive, 23-year-old mother of quadruplets, said tonight she hoped to marry the American doughboy identified as the father of her babies and "would like to go to America with him."

Nora's mother, Mrs. Ellen Carpenter, and Miss Edith Mathews, nursing home superintendent, said the father is Staff Sgt. William Thompson of Pittsburgh, Pa.

He was present at the birth of the babies and saw all four before rejoining his outfit, Mrs. Carpenter said.

Nora evidently was very much in love with the soldier whom she met while she was serving in the A.T.S. She described him to interviewers as a "fine fellow" and gave happy assent when asked: "would you like to go to America?"

She smiled contentedly when told the babies were gaining in the nursing home where they were taken from their bureau drawer emergency beds in the grandparents' modest home.

"I am very happy about my babies," she said, "but I never could have believed there were four." Then she added, "I expect to be up and around in about two weeks" to take personal care of the children.

Miss Carpenter said the babies' father "was married about two years ago in America and they had no children."

She added, "I understand he has seen his commanding officer about the quads and I'm hoping arrangements will be made to enable us to get married some time in the future."

The mother declared, "everyone in Heanor knows I'm single and it would be foolish for me to pretend I'm not. I've never claimed to be married."

"I met the American, who is a fine fellow, when I was in the A.T.S. (auxiliary territorial service)."

The friendly, brunet mother told me tonight just before she went to sleep that she was happy to learn that the eldest of her babies had gained two ounces and that the youngest and weakest was "doing all right now."

Nora's mother, Mrs. Ellen Carpenter, who is a munitions worker, expressed hope her daughter might be married "for the children's sake."

She said the doughboy father was waiting in an adjoining room at the Carpenter home when the quadruplets were born.

"I took the first in to show him," she said, "and while he was still admiring her the second was born. He saw them all before he left."

With a twinkle, she added that after the first baby was born "I knew there'd be another, because the nurse winked at me, but when the third came, and then the fourth, I hate to tell you what I said, but it was bloody awful. I was shocked."

The babies were put to bed in the opened drawers of a chest

because there were no cradles. As the word of the births got around town, a crowd gathered in front of the house, but no one was admitted.

Wife Weeps; Husband Said Quads' Father

PITTSBURGH, March 2-(AP)—The Pittsburgh wife of Staff Sgt. William Thompson, identified by an English nursing home superintendent as the father of quadruplets born to an unwed girl in Heanor, Derbyshire, was in seclusion today.

Mrs. Mary Jenemann, mother of Mrs. Thompson, said the family had "no definite proof" that Sgt. Thompson is the quads' father. She explained:

"When Eleanor (the 25-year-old beautician whom Thompson married here in 1942) came home from work where she was called by a New York paper, she was hysterical. She has been crying ever since.

"She is suffering from a terrible shock. This is a terrible thing.

"Until we have definite word that it is Eleanor's husband, I feel that I shouldn't talk about it."

Six months ago, Mrs. Jenemann said, Sgt. Thompson wrote Eleanor from England that he was in love with an English woman.

"He told Eleanor he wanted a divorce so he could marry her," Mrs. Jenemann added.

Asked if Eleanor would give her husband a divorce, Mrs. Jenemann said they had consulted an attorney who had advised them not to discuss the case until the quads' father was "definitely" identified.

She added, however, "We are Catholics and it is against our religion to divorce. But Eleanor is over 21 and she'll have to make her own decision."

Later, Frank J. Jenemann, Eleanor's father, declared flatly: "We are not applying for a divorce. We are not going to do anything. Let him sweat it out."

Located at a sportsmen's club where he is employed, Sgt. Thompson's father, William H. Thompson, sr., said:

"I'll do all I can for him—and if it wasn't for the war, I'd be on a boat in the morning to stand by his side.

"I knew Bill's wife very well and I think she is a fine little person."

The elder Thompson said he and the sergeant's mother were divorced when Bill was a child. She later remarried.

Paul Lukas, Jennifer Jones Win Oscars for Best Acting

HOLLYWOOD, March 2-(AP)—Paul Lukas, 48-year-old Hungarian-born actor, and Jennifer Jones, a screen newcomer, tonight won filmdom's highest accolade—the academy of motion picture arts and sciences "Oscar" awards—for best acting performances of 1943.

Miss Jones, who previously had appeared in but few minor roles, was presented with the small cherished statuette for superb acting in "The Song of Bernadette."

Coincidentally, this was the Oklahoma-born actress' 24th birthday.

Lukas won his academy award for his performance in "The Watch on the Rhine."

Charles Coburn was adjudged the best supporting actor of 1943 for his work in the comedy "The More the Merrier," while Katina Paxinou, the Greek actress, won the award for best supporting actress for her performance in "For Whom the Bell Tolls."

The academy's high honors for the most outstanding movie of 1943 went to Warner Brothers' "Casablanca," while Michael Curtiz won the Oscar for best direction for the work he did on that picture.

Miss Jones, who was born Phyllis Isley, made her starring role as the saintly peasant girl in "The Song of Bernadette." It was her first big part.

She won the award over such academy nominees as Joan Fontaine and Greer Garson, both previous "Oscar" winners, Jean Arthur and Ingrid Bergman.

Lukas nosed out his four competitors, Gary Cooper, a previous winner, Humphrey Bogart, Walter Pidgeon and Mickey Rooney.

Nominated against "Casablanca" were the films "Song of Bernadette," "Heaven Can Wait," "On-Bow Incident," "Watch on the Rhine," "Human Comedy," "Madame Curie," "The More the Merrier," "In Which We Serve" and "For Whom the Bell Tolls."

Producer Hal Wallis was given the Irving G. Thalberg memorial award, given for the most consistent high quality of production, for his screen presentations which included "Casablanca," "Air Force" and "Action in the North Atlantic."

Unlike in the 15 previous years when the awards were made at a banquet by filmdom's elite, tonight's ceremonies, due to war conditions, were conducted at a theatre where they were shared with the ticket-buying public. The theatre's 2000 seating capacity was filled to overflowing.

CUPID IN ICE—Madeline Stone, 22, of Arlington, Mass., puts finishing touches on one of her ice sculptures—a Cupid to be used as a leap-year party table decoration.

BACK TO BROADWAY—After seven years in Hollywood, Margaret Sullivan has returned to Broadway where she is playing in "The Voice of the Turtle." Miss Sullivan is pictured here in a scene from the three-character comedy.

CONTRIBUTION—Bida Sayoa, Brazilian soprano of the Metropolitan opera, gives a check to Edward Johnson, general manager of the Metropolitan, as her contribution in the organization's drive for $300,000 for wartime needs.

ASSOCIATED PRESS PICTURE NEWS

CLIFF CLIMBERS—Soldiers of a combined American-Canadian First Special Service Force, is training for fighting under all conditions at Ft. William Henry Harrison, near Helena, Mont., climb a steep precipice with ropes.

GRANDSON—Winston Churchill, son of Capt. Randolph Churchill and grandson of the British prime minister, wears a party hat at an American Red Cross club in England where he was a guest of American soldiers.

HAT FOR SPRING—Spring is just around the corner—maybe—so here's one of the new chapoux, a swashbuckling Lilly Dachs model embroidered with jet beads and sequins, exhibited at an advance New York showing.

JAM SESSION—U. S. Coast Guardsmen provide a "jam session" for soldiers aboard a Coast Guard manned transport bound for the invasion of Makin in the Pacific. Musicians, one of whom is silhouetted at right, were crew men.

FIGHTING COUPLE—Lt. Cmdr. Charles G. McElwraith, USNR, looks proudly at the newly-won commission of his wife, Lt. (jg) Jane Brett McElwraith (left) of the Sparc.