Where They Are—What They Are Doing

Laverne Hopp, (left) sailor now in the south Pacific, who won local mention this week when it was discovered he was one of three sailors on a Red Cross folder distributed nationally in connection with the 1944 war fund drive. Leo Hopp, (right) his brother, now taking advanced V-12 training at Doane college, Crete, Neb. Both boys are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Julius F. Hopp, 460 North 13th street.

Clarence Magnuson of Salem has been promoted to motor machinist's mate first class according to information received by his wife here. He is at present with the navy in the south Pacific.

Among several hundred young men from 45 states who have started a course in advanced aerial navigation at the air force navigation school at San Marcos, Texas, is James Hill Lucas, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Lucas, 464 South 23rd street. At the end of 18 weeks' of study young Lucas will receive the silver wings of the navigator and a commission as second lieutenant.

Harold A. Sergeant, son-in-law of Mrs. C. H. Post, 1589 Chemeketa street, has begun a course of academic and elementary flight training at Washington State college, completion of which will earn him classification as a pilot, navigator or bombardier and qualify him for further study in schools of the flying training command.

SILVERTON — David Crabtree, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Crabtree of Salinas, Calif., has reported to High Point college, High Point, NC, for training. He was transferred to the air corps from the signal corps reserve.

His father was Smith - Hughes instructor at Silverton for 12 years and was responsible for giving the local group its start. Crabtree has been at Salinas for the past several years.

GERVAIS — Mrs. Valentine Miller, south of town, has received word that her son, Pius J. Miller, has been awarded a good conduct medal by the department for exemplary behavior, efficiency and fidelity. The commanding officer personally congratulated the soldier on his record.

L. L. Frantz, 1165 North 14th street, has qualified for bombardier training and has been assigned to school at Missoula, Mont. Cpl. Frantz has been on active duty with the coast artillery at Fort Canby and Fort Stevens since the mobilization of the national guard in 1940. He transferred to the air corps and was sent to Amarillo, Texas for assignment.

Fete Hoffert, petty officer in the navy has returned to San Francisco following a week's leave spent with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Eva Pilette of Salem. He was accompanied by his wife, the former Anne Pilette. Hoffert has recently seen action in the south Pacific. Also recent visitors to Mrs. Eva Pilette's home were two sons, Pfc. Melvin Pilette, instructor at Kingman, Ariz., airbase, and Ensign C. V. Pilette of the naval ferry command at Floyd Bennett field, New York.

Douglas Mackenzie Ross has been promoted from second to first lieutenant, the army temporary promotion list released this morning reveals. Ross, in the army signal corps, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Custer Ross, 787 Cross street, Salem.

E. O. Holland, WSC Prexy, Will Retire

PULLMAN, Wash., March 11 (AP) — Dr. E. O. Holland, president of Washington State college 28 years, said today he would ask to be released from his duties some time during this calendar year.

"I became 70 last month," he explained. "Seventy is the college age for retirement."

Under the retirement procedure inaugurated at the college two years ago, faculty members and administrators serve through at least part of their 70th year.

Dr. Holland expressed the hope that the board of regents "can find a man of vision and broad training not later than December 1, 1944." He relinquished a position as superintendent of Louisville, Ky., schools to take the presidency on January 1, 1946.

Herbert Hoover, Dr. Holland was offered the vice governorship of the Philippine islands but declined and stayed with the college. Discussing his retirement, Dr. Holland said he had no wish "to hurry matters since I am glad to help in this national emergency."

Points Cut On Sausage

WASHINGTON, March 11 (AP) — The ration point cost of a number of types of sausage was cut one and two points by the office of price administration today, effective Sunday.

The action reduces the popular dry and semi-dry sausage, such as hard salami, two points a pound. This dry sausage listed on the March table of consumer point values at eight points a pound, will cost six points. Semi-dry sausage is cut to four points, compared with the original March value of six.
