

Miss Anita Jarman Is Engaged

The Sunday afternoon tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel B. Jarman was given for a purpose, just as everyone suspected: For they took this occasion to announce the engagement of their daughter, Anita, to Mr. Ralph Schlesinger, private, United States army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Schlesinger. The wedding of the young couple depends on army orders, but plans are now for a June ceremony when the benedict-elect is home on furlough.

Anita, a tall brunette, is a graduate of Berkeley hall in Beverly Hills and Holmby School for Girls in Holmby Hills, Los Angeles. She attended Willamette university and is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha sorority.

Her fiance is a graduate of Salem schools and Willamette university. While at Willamette he was publications manager and active in dramatics. He is a member of Theta Alpha Phi, national dramatic fraternity, and was listed in College Who's Who of America. He is now stationed at Camp Fanning, Texas.

Many guests called between 3 and 6 o'clock and at the door were Miss Jane Findley and Miss Virginia Pope. Miss Theodora Schlesinger, sister of the bridegroom-elect, passed the tiny scrolls bearing the names of the engaged couple. They were tied with white satin ribbon and violets.

For her announcement party Miss Jarman chose a stunning afternoon frock of white silk crepe with draped skirt and ruffle down the front. The belt was of purple satin and pinned to her shoulder were purple orchids. Receiving with Miss Jarman were Mr. Jarman, his daughter, Mrs. M. Bayard Findley, who received in the place of her mother who is ill, and Mrs. Max Schlesinger.

Assisting in the living room were Mrs. Percy Kelly and Mrs. J. N. Chambers. On the piano was an arrangement of pink snapdragons and cala lilies. On either side of the mantle was a vase of pink tulips and flowering plum.

Presiding at the tea urns were Mrs. Harry V. Collins, Mrs. Raymond Walsh, Mrs. Homer Goulet, sr., and Mrs. Miller B. Hayden. Assisting were Mrs. William J. Thompson (Virginia Jarman), Miss Florence Duffy, Miss Doris Duffy, Miss Phyllis Fisher, Miss Marianne Low, Miss Mary Jane Keedy and Miss Eloise Findley. The tea table was centered with an old fashioned bouquet of pink tulips, white roses, anemones and hyacinths flanked by tall white tapers in silver candleabras.
