Coming back to Salem to reside are Mrs. Edward Raffety and little daughter, Susan. Mrs. Raffety is the former Bunny Miller and she and her daughter will remain here while Mr. Raffety is in the navy. He came north with his family and is now waiting his call. The Raffetys have been making their home in Long Beach, Calif.

Miss Marie Patton has been spending the week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Hal D. Patton. She has been in Prosser, Wash., with the army engineers and will continue with the same work with the navy in the Mojave desert in southern California. She expects to leave for the south on Tuesday.

Mrs. Earl Flegel will leave on Thursday for her home in Mineral Wells, Texas, after spending a fortnight at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner. She also visited in Portland with her husband's mother, Mrs. A. H. Flegel.

Mrs. Leon Perry and her sons, Stephen and David, are expected home Tuesday from a three weeks stay in Los Angeles where they were the guests of her mother, Mrs. H. H. Marsden.

News About Travelers . . .

Many service wives are leaving within the next fortnight to join their husbands while still others have come back here to make their home.

Mrs. Chandler Brown is entraining April 13 for Washington, DC, to join Lt. (jg) Brown, who is now stationed in the nation's capital city. She plans to be gone several months and her children will remain in Salem.

Mrs. James J. Walton and children, Jeff and Elisabeth, are leaving this week for Seattle where Lt. (jg) Walton is stationed. He has secured a house there for his family.

Entraining Friday for the east coast will be Mrs. John Kelly and young son, Jeffrey, who are going to Asbury Park, New Jersey to be with Mr. Kelly. He is a second class petty officer in the navy. Mrs. Kelly and her son have been residing in Salem this winter with Mrs. Ralph Nohlgren. Mrs. Kelly is the former Lucile Brainard. Accompanying her east will be Mrs. Edwin McWain (Barbara Hollingworth), going to Camp Dupont, Delaware, where her army lieutenant husband is stationed. Mrs. McWain has been in Salem the past week visiting her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer McWain, and her sister, Mrs. Ralph Nohlgren.

Mrs. Asa C. Wilson, jr. (Elisabeth Lewis) left Thursday for Colorado Springs, Colorado to be with her husband, Lt. Wilson, who was formerly stationed at Camp Adair. Before going to Colorado Mrs. Wilson will visit relatives in San Francisco. In June she will go on to Vanderbilt college at Nashville, Tenn., to complete work on her master's degree. For the past year she has been a member of the high school faculty at Vancouver, Wash. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lewis.

Return To The Capital

Mrs. Robert Hamilton (Marjorie Waters) arrived Saturday to be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Waters, while Ensign Hamilton is overseas. For the past three months she has been in Baltimore, Washington, DC, New York and Norfolk, Virginia, with her navy husband. They were married in the east in October. The young couple took an interesting trip by steamship from Norfolk to Washington, DC, before Ensign Hamilton left. In the capital they were the guests of his uncle, an army major.

Being welcomed back to Salem are Mr. and Mrs. Holly Jackson and year old son, Phillip. Mr. Jackson has received a medical discharge from the navy and for the past year they have been living in San Francisco while he was stationed at the Alameda naval air base. The Jacksons resided here before he went in the service 18 months ago.
