

Discuss Farm Labor Plans

Seek Woman Interest In Local and State Harvest Problem

WOODBURN — A planning committee for farm labor handled through the extension service in Marion county will meet at the library club rooms April 12, at 8 o'clock. W. G. Nibler, county agent, will be in charge. Others will be Mrs. Mable Mack, in charge of the women's division of farm labor service for the state; Frances Clinton, Marion county's home demonstration agent, and Mrs. James H. Turnbull, Marion county chairman of the women's division of farm labor service.

They will confer with a committee of representatives of local organized groups expected to bring working suggestions on the best way to get the women of the community interested in harvesting food crops.

Mrs. Turnbull, in town this week making arrangements for this preliminary conference, said, "The women of Woodburn and Marion county and Oregon must be made conscious of the fact that they must meet the problems of harvest. Manpower shortage is far more critical than it was last year. More than 5000 boys who helped with harvest then are gone now." She further insisted that we cannot depend on Mexican labor to do all the harvesting; for only 25 per cent of the harvesters needed here will come from Mexico."

Party Honors Birthday

PIONEER—Mrs. John Keller, Jr. and three daughters visited at the John Keller, sr. home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kent and son, Bob and Betty Henton visited the Roy Black home Thursday.

Harry Wells and son, Junior, visited the Howard Coys Sunday. Curtiss Dornhecker of Falls City was given a birthday dinner at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dornhecker Sunday. He expects to be called in the April draft. Those honoring him were Mrs. George Curtiss, Mr. and Mrs. William Hefner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dornachofsky and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Curtiss and children, Ruth Jackson, Skirley Woodhull, Bob Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dornhecker, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dornhecker and Mary Louise.

Alice Robbins of Portland visited her mother, Mrs. John Calavan, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Calavan and Alice and Truman Robbins visited at Talbot Saturday and enjoyed a birthday dinner for Mrs. Calavan.

Woodburn Club Plans Election

WOODBURN — The Woman's club met in the library clubroom, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Voorhies-Spear, president, was in charge and appointed Mrs. E. N. Hall, Mrs. A. E. Austin and Mrs. W. D. Simmons on a nominating committee. Election will be held in May.

The guest speaker for the afternoon was Frances Clinton, home demonstration agent for Marion county, who spoke on "Knowing Ourselves."

Mrs. Leighty, an additional guest of the afternoon, was introduced and welcomed.

At the social hour Mrs. Darleigh Slead and Mrs. J. Melvin Ringo presided at the attractively appointed tea table centered by a crystal console of daffodils guarded by yellow candles in pottery holders. Mrs. O. L. Withers, Mrs. J. J. Hall and Mrs. E. N. Hall served.

Guiss Woodburn Store Is Sold

WOODBURN — R. L. Guiss, pioneer business man of Woodburn, sold his drygoods and shoe store on Front street this week and is retiring on account of poor health. Mr. Guiss has been in the mercantile business here since 1906, with the exception of eight years, 1913-1921, as postmaster. For a few years he was in partnership with his father, L. W. Guiss, and then continued the business alone. L. M. King of Portland is the new owner of the store, and will continue merchandising in the present location, leasing the building from its owner, Mr. Guiss. The transaction was completed and King took over the store April 5.
