

Engagement Of Couple Told

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Leonhardt are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Barbara Louise Leonhardt, to Mr. Robert Merie Putnam, private, United States army, son of Mrs. Cleda Putnam of Salem and Mr. Merie Putnam of San Francisco.

Miss Leonhardt and her fiancé are graduates of Salem schools. She is employed at the state highway department. Private Putnam is stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas. The wedding date has not been set.

Miss Brown Now Mrs. Thompson

A profusion of spring flowers decorated the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Scheuerman at Monmouth, where the wedding of Miss Elinor Joyce Brown to Gervais to Mr. Orville T. Thompson, 2nd CPO, of Hannibal, Missouri, took place.

The bride wore a gown of white marquisette and a veil falling from a white bead coronet. She carried a shower of carnations and sweet peas.

Little Eloise Brown was the flower girl. She wore a dress of peach and blue silk and carried a nosegay of pink and white roses and sweet peas.

Little Gloria Scheuerman lighted the candles before the ceremony and Miss Opal Scheuerman sang "Because." She also played the wedding march. Rev. H. R. Scheuerman read the service.

Corp. Gilbert Arheer of Monmouth was best man for Mr. Thompson.

At the reception Mrs. Arthur Coffin served the bride's cake and Mrs. Karl Brown cut the ices.

After a few days' furlough Mr. Thompson will return to his ship. Mrs. Thompson will remain with her parents for the time being.

Octogenarian Honored

Mrs. Alice Hildebrand was honor guest Wednesday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Donald Brooks, who entertained on the occasion of the older woman's 80th birthday.

Hyacinths were combined with greenery to provide the color for attractive table appointments. Mrs. John Schmidt sang several numbers; antiques were displayed and refreshments served.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. E. W. Cooley and Mrs. J. Craft. Bidden were Mrs. Addie Barton, Mrs. Cooley, Mrs. E. C. Case, Mrs. Craft, Mrs. Frank Hunt, Mrs. Minnie Kerns, Mrs. Fred Pugh, Mrs. E. J. Reasor, Mrs. Rose Reilly, Mrs. Schmidt, Rodney, Kathleen and Gloria Schmidt, Mrs. D. B. Simpson, Mrs. C. S. Utterback, Mrs. Elizabeth Urigh, Mrs. Eva Wood and Mrs. Hildebrand.

WOWELO

A skating party was planned for girls coming into junior high school next fall, on Thursday when junior high school Camp Fire girls met with Mrs. Elmer Roth, their guardian. The party is scheduled for the Capitola rink on April 27.

Miss Eldora DeMots, district Camp Fire field secretary met with the area council when here on a visit last week. On Friday, April 21, a Blue Bird training session will be held at 2 o'clock, a publicity committee meeting at 4 o'clock and an executive board meeting at 7:30. All meetings will be in the executive office in the Oregon building.

The Wicaco Camp Fire group met Thursday at the home of their guardian, Mrs. C. S. McCollam. Roberta Klempel and Marilyn Thompson were appointed on an entertaining committee.

The Isun group met Thursday with Mrs. H. G. Henderson. Plans were discussed for a council fire and a tea for the mothers. Phyllis Trent was a special guest.

The Bambi Bluebird group met at the home of their guardian, Mrs. Homer Nordyke on Monday. Games followed a business meeting and a discussion of projects. Sandra May Nordyke, scribe, reported the meeting.

Other groups to meet during the week were the Waditaka group with Mrs. J. B. Manning and the Changinay group with Mrs. H. D. Smithson.

Mrs. Frank H. Spears, Sr., Mrs. J. Lyman Steed and Mrs. John Taylor will entertain the Gamma Phi Beta alumnae at the former's home on Chesapeake street Monday night at a 8:30 o'clock dinner.

Permanent Fish Wave $3.50 Complete. Open Thurs. Eve. by Appointment. Phone 3622. 305 First National Bank Bldg. Castle Park, Wavers.

MISS BARBARA LOUISE LEONHARDT

CLUB CALENDAR

MONDAY
Gamma Phi Beta alumnae with Mrs. Frank H. Spears, 1309 Chesapeake, 8:30 dinner.
American Legion auxiliary, Woman's club, 8 p.m., initiation of new members.
United Spanish War Veterans and auxiliary, Muster day services and birthday celebration, VFW hall, 8 p.m.
St. Anne's Guild with Mrs. George Bliss, 1389 Center street, 8 p.m.

TUESDAY
American War Mothers social meeting with Mrs. A. A. Lee, 2 p.m.
Past Presidents, Woman's Relief Corps, with Mrs. F. M. Hoyt, 753 North Winter street, covered dish luncheon.
Book-A-Month club, 1:15 desert luncheon, with Mrs. H. R. White, 645 South Church street.
Salem Ministers Wives meet at Old People's Home, 1823 Center street, 2 p.m.
Eloika club with Mrs. W. T. Grier, 1875 Maple avenue, 2 p.m.
AAUW recent graduates with Mrs. Stuart Lancelotti, 110 East Superior street, 8 p.m.
Salem Central WCTU meet at hall, 2 p.m.

WEDNESDAY
WCS, First Methodist church, 2 p.m.
Daughters of Union Veterans with Mrs. O. H. Horning, 960 Shipping street, 8 p.m.

THURSDAY
Friendly Neighbors Garden club, 1:15 desert luncheon, with Mrs. C. A. Ratcliffe, 170 Ratcliffe drive.

Dance Attracts Students

A group of high school students were in Portland Saturday night to attend the Anson Weeks dance at Jantzen beach.

Making the trip were Miriam Shellenberger and Bob Zeller; Dolores Hamilton and Evan Boise; Joan Randall and Jim Phillips; Jackie Torgerson and Dick Schlicker; Shirley Lukins and Bob Steeves; Harriet Huston and Stuart Compton; Delphine Rhiney and Daryl Jones; Joan Lochead and Joe Healy; and Dot Pyeatt and Keith Morris.

Church Women to Have Program

Salem Council of Church Women will observe Fellowship day on April 25 at the Calvary Baptist church, with a 1 o'clock luncheon and a program following. "Children and Youth Leaders of Tomorrow" is the subject of the meeting.

A new project of the council is the making of scrapbooks for the USO for army and navy. The making of these books is already well under way.

Congratulations are being sent to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clason on the birth of a son, Richard James, born Tuesday, April 11. The little boy has an older sister, Myrna. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Clason and Mr. W. L. Graen.

The Trained Nurse Depends on the Druggist

To give the most efficient service she must have medical supplies of the best quality. Our label on a prescription bottle is recognized by nurses as a sign of the best. Ask them, and have your prescriptions filled by Schaefer's.

1899-1943
SCHAEFER'S
Drug Store
Phone 5197 or 7023
135 N. Commercial

Seen and Heard...

By JERYME ENGLISH

RECEPTION NOTES... Mrs. John W. Bricker, Ohio's first lady, was honor guest at an informal morning reception Thursday at the home of Governor and Mrs. Earl Snell... Mrs. Bricker, charming and gracious, is pleasant to meet and has more than just a "how do you do" to say to those passing down the receiving line... Mrs. Bricker and Mrs. Robert Barton, whose husband is executive secretary to Governor Bricker, were on their first trip west and enjoying our many camellias and early spring blossoms... Mrs. Miller Hayden in a smart black and white dress introduced to the line... Next came Mrs. Walter Spaulding, local Pro-America president, wearing a black fur trimmed suit and purple felt hat... Mrs. Snell and Mrs. Bricker both wore black suits and corsages of iris and roses... Mrs. L. L. Riggs, state president of Pro-America, wore a becoming grey suit and small pink felt hat... Also receiving was Mrs. James Mott, smart in black with a wide brimmed shiny black straw hat with green and black grosgrain ribbon trim... Mrs. Dean Walker came over from Independence and later attended the luncheon.

Among those assisting... Mrs. E. M. Page wearing a navy blue suit, green orchids and a clever chapeau... Mrs. Ronald Jones stunning in a black dress suit, small black straw sailor with high crown and veil dotted in white... At the coffee table, Mrs. Charles A. Sprague in a grey tweed suit and black and white straw sailor... Mrs. Percy Kelly in bayleaf green dress and sailor of purple and white straw... At the door Mrs. Paul Wallace smart in black with a black and white check coat and black straw hat... With her was her house guest, Miss Edna Sterling of Seattle, who wore black with a Kelly green hat... Noted Mrs. John L. Rand's navy blue straw with rose flowered brim... Mrs. Guy Hickok's white hat... Mrs. Claude Murphy's blue tulle, brown furs and brown hat... Mrs. George Alexander's chic calot of fuchsia grosgrain ribbon with bows in front...

Members of the Past Reliefists club of the Woman's Relief corps will hold election of officers on Tuesday when they meet at the F. M. Hoyt home, 753 North Winter street. A covered dish luncheon will be served.

Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans will preside at luncheon Monday afternoon at her Center street home for the pleasure of members of the Gaiety Hill Garden club.

FORMAL DANCING PARTY for the high school set a week ago when Jim Phillips, Richard page and Stuart Compton entertained at the Eks club... and credit goes to the hosts' mothers for clever decorations...

The stage a mass of greens, spring blossoms, forsythia, spirea... in the center a huge Easter bunny and along the front many camellias... In the windows were altars of greenery and colored Easter eggs... The hosts looked handsome in the white coats, dark trousers and narrow bow ties...

Escorted by the hosts... Attractive Mary Ana Bolinger with Richard Page, wore white net with white satin ribbon enhancing the bodice and pinned to her shoulder was an orchid... Harriet Huston in a navy blue and white pique formal and pink camellias in her brunette curls, acquired by Stuart Compton... Miriam Schellenberger in pink with black butterflies scattered down the side of the bodice and fall skirt, with Jim Phillips... White was chosen by many for their dresses... Margaret Cooley in white with iridescent sequins on the bodice... Kathleen Hug in white with flowing skirt... Jean Swift in white silk crepe with gold sequins embellishing the gathered bodice and skirt... and Nancy Wallace in a handsome gown of white organza combined with lace and a narrow black velvet ribbon belt...

The punch table was a popular place during the evening and at midnight a buffet supper was served... The long table covered with a green cloth and centered with a round mirror encircled with pink and red camellias, in the middle a huge globe fill with colored Easter eggs and on either side white tapers in silver candelabra... Around the punch table noted the McClintock twins, Gloria and Barbara, wearing identical white satin and net dresses with Juliet caps... Mary Ann Brady in red moire taffeta with white eyelet edging the skirt and around the sleeves... Jeanne Busick in white net with bands of silver brocade... Marilyn Hjort in flame chiffon with rushing around the drop shoulder... Mariann Croisan in sky blue crepe dotted with rhinestones.

Twosomes... Joan Randall in a becoming gown of white net with red roses on the bodice and extending down into the skirt... Her escort, Travis Cross, sent her red roses for her hair and a wrist bracelet of the same flowers... Blonde Sally Smith in petal blue net combined with silk, with young Don Phillips... Bill Poorman arrived with Nancy Montgomery... she in white chiffon, carrying a pink ruffled muff to which were pinned gardenias, Pete Hoar with a newcomer, attractive Fat Age, who wore a pretty pique frock of white printed with large blue flowers and three-quarter length sleeves edged in net... Caroline Coleman over from Corvallis and with Rollin Page... Another newcomer, Helen Shephard, who wore delft blue chiffon, the skirt trimmed with white satin bands of the same color...

Pre-party hosts... Mary Lou McKay in heaven blue chiffon with sequin trim... and Jane Walsh in white taffeta with a narrow red ribbon belt in back... she carried a lovely lace fan with ivory trim from her mother's fan collection... Chatting between dances... Nancy Buren in white with red embroidery bands on the skirt... Blonde Pat Vlesko in a pink and blue plaid taffeta dress and an orchid corsage... Joan Beakley in chateaux chiffon... Home from college for the weekend... Miriam Becke in her off the shoulder dress of white chiffon and lace ruffle around the low neckline... and Lisbeth Kennedy in a white silk jersey gown and orchids in her hair...

Mrs. Girod Feted On Birthday

Mrs. Ida Girod celebrated her 80th birthday Easter Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Girod when seven of her 11 children and their families gathered for a birthday dinner. The four sons who were unable to be present were Jesse of Grand Rapids, Michigan; Milton of Decatur, Indiana; Paul in the navy, stationed at Trinidad; and Ralph of the Seabees, stationed at Pearl Harbor.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Girod and Dorothy; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Peterson, Mrs. Paul Girod, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Girod, Myra and Bert, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stanley of Gresham; Albert Girod of Worland, Wyoming; Roy Girod and Pauline from Berne, Indiana; and from Salem, Mrs. Ida Girod, Harvey Girod and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Girod and Jerry.

Family Dinner For Visitor

A visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead this weekend is their cousin, Mrs. Elva Nelson of Los Angeles. She is in Portland with Rodney McDowell, the actor, serving as his tutor while he is on production for 20th Century Fox.

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Moorhead arranged a family dinner at the Spa for Mrs. Nelson. Covers were placed for the visitor, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. George Winslow and Miss Harriet Winslow of Tillamook, Mrs. H. H. Vandevort, Van and Bruce Moorhead and Mr. and Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead.

Gene Kester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kester of Portland, is spending the weekend at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. G. N. Thompson. He is here for the First Evangelical league at the Christian Endeavor rally being held this weekend. He is the president of the Portland district ELCE. Mrs. Johnson spent Easter weekend at the Kester home in Portland.

1/2 PRICE SALE

Dorothy Gray
Nosegay face powder

Reg. & Colling Price, $2.00

NOW $1.00 PLUS TAX

Exquisitely fine... spreads lightly, covers smoothly without showing, and clings! Free of ingredients generally suspected of arousing allergies. Choice of smart shades.

LIMITED TIME!

Willett's CAPITAL DRUG STORE

Corner State and Liberty

Phone 3115

AS SEEN IN VOGUE

Grey Galabouts... ETTA GAYNES

suggests this timeless pair to escort

you smartly on gay Springtime rounds. The cardigan suit...

slip-slim and trimly tailored...

the short topper... wonderful over this or any other suit. Both in "SILVERSTONE" an imported 100% virgin wool by NIRON WOOLENS. In grey only. Quality rayon lined with EARL GLO.

Smart Shop
110 N. LIBERTY
SALEM

Freedom from doubt

There are some things you accept... without question, without doubt. They are the people... the institutions... yes, and the products... which have proven themselves worthy of you through the years.

That is why, today... when the quality of a shoe, the honor of its maker and the merchant who sells it are so important... more and more women are turning to

Gold Cross Shoes and to

MILLER'S

when they spend their treasured coupons.

GOLD CROSS SHOES

Famous for over 50 years in Red Cross Shoes... Unchallenged value at 6<sup>95</sup>

AND
7<sup>45</sup>

Miller's
SALEM, OREGON
SHOE DEPARTMENT