

Scout Court Set Tonight

Annual Cherry City district court of honor, sponsored this year by Sea Scout ship No. 12, will be held tonight at the floral room in the chamber of commerce, Judge Arthur Hay, court of honor chairman, presiding.

The entire affair will be nautical in tone, with proceedings occurring aboard the Sea Scout "ship" Willamette. Awards this year, for the first time, will be made to troops as a unit, thus providing recognition to the troop as well as the scout.

Extra feature will be presentation of movies and colored slides of scout camping activities at Camp Pioneer.

All parents and scouts of the 30 Salem troops are invited to the event.

33 Seniors Enter Sigma Lambda

Thirty-three senior high school junior and seniors were inducted into the Sigma Lambda honor society at appropriate ceremonies held in the high school auditorium Tuesday.

Meier, chairman; Bob Busick and Jean Demytt.

Included into the society were: Bill Juz, Betty Staab, Wanda Steinbruck, Stanley Wilkes, Lester Purcell, Joan Beakey, Joan Bartlett, Gayle Croger, Aileen Hanner, Phyllis Howland, Elmond Decker, Buzz Yocom, Roy Houck, Marilyn Hjork, Mary Lou McKay, Bob Bennett, Ruby Vernhan, Edith Fairham, Eugene Lowe, Jack Slater, Frank Rock, Addyse Lane, Carolyn Carson, Jean Swift, Jean Fidler, Helen

Oregon Apples Please Dewey

An eastern newspaper columnist recently wrote that the box of Hood River apples sent to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York by Gov. Earl Snell of Oregon should keep the New York executive in fine health until the republican national convention.

A copy of the column was received from Gov. Dewey here Tuesday.

The columnist suggested that it might be well for Gov. Dewey to give some of the apples to the New York legislative correspondents to bring back color to their cheeks.

"The correspondents lost their color," the columnist wrote, "because of working long nights in the legislature."

Death Toll Up to 340 From Bombay Blast

BOMBAY, India, April 15 (AP)—The death toll from a fire which touched off two heavy ammunition explosions along the Bombay waterfront Friday rose to 340 today, with scores of persons still hospitalized.

A freak incident of the explosion was the flight of a bar of gold valued at 90,000 rupees ($27,000), which crashed into the third floor apartment of a retired civil engineer.

Funeral Services Held For Edison Ballagh

ST. HELENS, April 15 (AP)—Funeral services will be held here Wednesday for Edison I. Ballagh, president of the Port of St. Helens, who died Saturday. He was a one-time mayor of St. Helens, a member of the state legislature, president of the lower Columbia Associated chamber of commerce, and master state fish warden.
