Grain Market Has Upswing

CHICAGO, April 19-(AP)-A further recession in the movement of corn from the country, combined with widespread delays in spring farm work as a result of wet weather, gave support to grain futures today. Most deliveries were slightly higher, but May rye dropped almost a cent.

Selling of the nearby rye contract, which came mainly from commission houses, was ascribed to diminished hopes that this grain would be used more extensively in livestock feeding. A substantial increase in the importing of Canadian wheat and oats led to the prospect of a decline in the already moderate rye feeding de-

Seabees Also Good Cooks

WASHINGTON, April 19-(AP) The navy reports that its Seabees, best known for their combat construction activities, also are tops in another line of endeavor.

A lemon meringue pie entered by the Seabees won first prize in a recent bakers' contest in North Africa. The pie, vouched for by its bakers as weighing less than nothing, took top honors in a field which included the best the army and the regular navy had to show. The Seabees also garnered a second prize for some tasty rolls and still another second-place award for an assortment of luscious pastries.
