Penney's Anniversary

NEIGHBORLY FOR FORTY-TWO YEARS

1902-1944

THE dictionary says that a good neighbor is one who helps, serves, obliges, encourages, stretches out a helping hand.

A good neighbor keeps the latch-string out, is always cordial, warm-hearted, making neighbors feel welcome and at home.

The most valued achievement of our 42 years in business is the reputation we have made for being good neighbors.

From the very first, Mr. Penney treasured the confidence and good-will of his customers as his best stock-in-trade.

And so, after 42 years, does your Penney store today.
