

Salem Girl Weds Navy Man

A surprise to the couple's many friends is the marriage of Miss Audreann Reynolds, daughter of Mrs. Carl E. Reynolds, and Mr. Earl John Gustafson, petty officer, United States naval air force, son of Mrs. Arnold Bishop, which took place Wednesday afternoon. Although the couple have been a frequent duo for some time, no plans had been announced for the wedding.

The afternoon ceremony was read at 5 o'clock by Dr. Henry Marcotte in the fireplace room of the First Presbyterian church. Only members of the immediate family were present.

For her wedding the bride chose a smart navy blue dress-maker suit with navy accessories and a corsage of orchids.

Her sister, Mrs. John Griffith, was her only attendant and she wore a navy blue and white print dress with navy accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Dr. Griffith was best man for Mr. Gustafson.

Mrs. Reynolds wore a navy blue dress with corsage of gardenias for her daughter's wedding.

A wedding dinner for the bridal couple was held at the Congress hotel in Portland. The newlyweds left Thursday for Key West, Florida, where they will reside while Mr. Gustafson is stationed there with the navy air force.

The new Mrs. Gustafson is a graduate of Salem schools and has been notions buyer at Miller's. Mr. Gustafson, who has been home on leave, also went to Salem schools.

Sororities Name Officers

Members of two Willamette sororities elected officers this week for the 1944-45 school year. The new officers will take over their duties in May.

Beta Chi members elected Betty Andrews, junior from Portland, as president of their group. Miss Andrews has served as class officer and is co-manager of the Bearcat Tavern. Other officers who will work with her are Betty Jeanne Smith, Salem, vice president; Jean Wing, Burlingame, Calif., recording secretary; Pat Lamb, Salem, corresponding secretary; Alice Jones, North Bend, manager; Lois Butler, Lake Grove, treasurer; Jane Huston, Salem, sergeant-at-arms.

Bette Burkhardt, junior from Portland, was elected president of Delta Phi. She was secretary of her class during the fall semester and is society editor of the Collegian. The sorority members also elected Louise Wrisley, Salem, first vice president; Kay Wilson, Portland, second vice president; Joyce McClendon, Salem, recording secretary; Betty Randall, Salem, telephone secretary; Ann Strother, Newberg, manager; Ruth Farmer, Rickreall, social treasurer; Miriam Day, San Francisco, historian; Margaret Hughlett, Salem, and Jan Patterson, Fort Lewis, Wash., rush chairmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Spaulding are leaving today for Medford where they will attend the board of governors meeting this weekend.
