

Miss Elene Douglas Weds

In a spring setting of apple blossoms and candlelight at the Christian church in Eugene Wednesday night, April 19, Miss Elene L. Douglas became the bride of Sgt. Robert T. Nelson. Rev. Alfred Cromwell officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Nelson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Douglas of Eugene, formerly of Salem, and Sgt. Nelson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Nelson of Silverton.

The music included organ numbers played by Mrs. Nel Murphy Dickson, and two solo "O Promise Me" and "At Dawning" were sung by Mrs. Donald Burch, sister of the groom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a slate blue suit with a short veil. She wore a corsage of orchids.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Davis of Salem was the bride's only attendant. She wore a powder blue suit with a corsage of gardenias.

Mr. Norwald Nelson, a cousin of the groom, was best man. Mr. Thelmar Nelson, also a cousin, was usher.

A reception following the ceremony was held in the white room. Assisting were Mrs. Clifford Hodgins, Miss Mary Elizabeth Davis, Miss Beverly Goetz and Miss Betty Jean Taylor.

The bride is a member of Mu Phi Epsilon, Pi Lambda Theta and Pi Delta Phi. She attended Willamette university and the University of Oregon where she received her degree. She is supervisor of public school music in Ashland.

Sgt. Nelson attended Mt. Angel academy and Fullerton college at Fullerton, California. He is stationed at San Luis Obispo, California.

They left after the reception for a brief honeymoon at Brea-mar beach resort.

Meat Ring Makes a Dressy Main Dish for Family, Guests

A good luncheon dish is this crusty tomato meat ring to be served with a rich meat gravy, or a savory tomato or mushroom sauce. Yet the recipe requires only two cups of ground cooked meat so it's a thrifty entree in both ration points and price.

This meat ring is an excellent way to utilize leftover meat, whether beef, lamb, veal, or ham. If you'd like to serve the but haven't any leftover meat on hand, use browned hamburger or 1/4 pound of dried beef.

With this meat ring serve a buttered green vegetable, as broccoli, green beans or peas, and a fruit salad, such as apple and celery salad. This ring will serve six persons.

MEAT RING
1/4 cup shortening
2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder

FILLING
2 cups ground, cooked meat
1 cup white sauce or gravy
1/2 cup diced green pepper
2 tablespoons diced onion
Salt, pepper

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in shortening until mixture is the consistency of coarse cornmeal. Stir in

LIVER LOAF
1 pound liver
1 cup thick white sauce
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon paprika.
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 cup bread crumbs
1 small onion, diced
1 egg

Cook liver in salted water until tender. Grind. Combine liver, white sauce, seasonings, bread crumbs, diced onion and egg. Place mixture in loaf pan. Top with slices of bacon. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degree) one hour. If desired serve with a tomato or mushroom gravy.

milk to form a stiff dough. Turn onto lightly floured board or pastry cloth and knead gently 3 or 4 times. Roll out into rectangular sheet about 1/2 inch thick. Spread with meat filling. Roll up jelly fashion and shape into a ring. Place on baking sheet and cut with scissors at 1 inch intervals almost through ring. Turn each slice slightly on its side. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees), 25 to 30 minutes.

For a brown gravy, blend 4 tablespoons of flour with 4 tablespoons of meat drippings. Add 2 cups of meat stock, water or milk. Cook slowly to thicken, stirring to keep smooth. When thick and bubbly season and serve. If a mushroom gravy is desired, wash and clean mushrooms, slice, brown in fat before making gravy.

Liver Loaf Is Good Dish

Baking liver into a loaf is an excellent way to serve this favored meat.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"We can't argue with the Judge on that point, can we Mabel? It's not fair to penalize the many for the actions of the few."

"That, folks, is exactly what we would be doing in this country if we ever voted for prohibition again. Authorities who have made a careful study of the problem, report that only about 5% of those who drink abuse the privilege occasionally... 95% drink sensibly. Probably doesn't compare with the number of folks who overeat and do other things to excess. Prohibition certainly isn't the answer. It's not that simple. We had nearly 14 years proof of that, didn't we?"

"The real answer is education and better control. In fact, the responsible members of the distilling industry are working constantly toward that end. They don't want anybody to abuse the use of their product any more than the three of us do."

"If everybody would take that sensible attitude, Judge, and cooperate as more and more are now doing, we'd be a lot better off a lot quicker."
