'Wolf Packs'

Run Rampant In Bremerton

SEATTLE, April 27-(AP)-Sentencing of three adult residents of a Bremerton housing project and of three navy sailors, on morals charges involving two girls 13 and 14 years old, was announced today while authorities investigated the sex and liquor orgies of juvenile "wolf packs" in the war industry federal housing projects at Renton near here.

In the Bremerton case, a man and his wife received six months jail terms; the other civilian, three months, and the sailors' state reformatory terms were deferred by Superior Judge H. G. Sutton.

At Renton, Sheriff H. S. Callahan and Police Chief Vincent Stewart estimated 75 arrests will be necessary, involving boys and girls brought here from the midwest to work in war plants. A 44-year-old housewife yesterday pleaded guilty to furnishing liquor to her 17-year-old son, another boy and two teen-age girls last Easter eve. She denied contributing to the delinquency by offering them a cabin for the night and breakfast the next morning, and this charge was dismissed. One of the girls testified the four spent the night in a va-

On Its Life

PORTLAND, April 27-(AP)-An extension of life has been granted the west coast lumber commission, subsidiary wage fact-finding subsidiary of the war labor board, Alfred Hartung, a member, said today.

Members of the commission were called to Washington about the time demands were made that the commission be abolished. Hartung said the board passed a resolution Tuesday continuing the commission's existence. Hartung is the CIO member.

Doyle Pearson, assistant secretary of the AFL Northwestern Council of Lumber and Sawmill Workers, said the board had decided upon further study of the demands of 60,000 northwest lumber workers for wage in-Alan Hale and Fredric March, the latter east in the title role in "The creases, upon which hearings Adventures of Mark Twain," re-enact the Jumping frog contest the have been held here. author made famous in his story, "The Jumping Frog of Calaveras," in this scene from the Warner Bros. picture coming May 5th to the

The board created a panel within itself, headed by Dr. Dexter M. Keezer, public member and former president of Reed college, Portland, to carry on the study. The CIO has asked for an increase in the basic minimum wage of 90 cents and hour to $1.021/2. The AFL seeks $1.05 an

Stassen Men After Oregon

PORTLAND, April 27.-(AP)-An all-out campaign is planned by Minnesota's delegation to the national republican convention for nomination of Lt. Comdr. Harold E. Stassen, Governor Edward J. Thye of Minnesota said here to-

Governor Thye made no move toward a Stassen write-in campaign in the Oregon primary of May 19, but he made clear his candidate would welcome support of Oregon's 15 delegates.

Reduction of labor troubles, elimination of the public debt, and a sharp cut in the number of state employes were among Stassen's accomplishments as Minnesota

Thye's principal talk was made t the Benson hotel here, where he was introduced by Oregon's Governor Earl Snell.

Lack of Labor May Hit Peas

PORTLAND, April 27.-(AP)-Heavy labor demands in neighboring states will make recruiting Boeing Makes gon unusually difficult, J. D. Wilson, state official of the war man- Many Planes power commission, said today.

Wilson warned at a war manpower conference here than 1000 men and 1000 women will be needed for the pea season in the Pendleton and Milton-Freewater areas early in June. Washington will need between 600 and 800 workers for food processing at the same time, and northern California will need approximately the same number a short time later. he said. -

WMC directors from 10 western states, Washington, DC, and regional directors are attending the conference. One proposal under study is to organize labor training courses to increase effectiveness of workers.
