

Salem Man And Bride Visit

Corporal Thomas Medley and his bride, the former Rosemary Fazio of Omaha, Nebraska, have been visiting in the capital the past week at the home of his mother, Mrs. L. C. Mitchell. The marriage of the young couple took place in Omaha on Saturday, April 22 at the Sacred Heart church at 11 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fazio of Omaha. She was attended by her sister, Miss Phyllis Fazio, who wore a powder blue dress and carried pink sweetpeas. Lt. Tony Arvola was Mr. Medley's best man.

For her wedding the bride wore a white satin gown with train and long sleeves. Her full length veil was of tulle and she carried a white prayer book with gardenias.

A breakfast for the bridal couple and members of the wedding party was held after the ceremony. Later in the day the newlyweds left for Salem.

Mrs. Medley will return to Omaha, where she is with the adjutant general's office. Her husband will go on to Camp Pickett, Virginia, where he is editor for the 78th division paper. Corporal Medley is a graduate of Salem schools.

Oregon Mothers Weekend Slated

Oregon mothers will be honored at the 17th annual Oregon Mothers' Weekend, May 5, 6 and 7, in conjunction with Junior Week. They will be guests at the All Campus Sing Friday evening in McArthur Court, at a tea in their honor Saturday afternoon, as well as at the Terrace dance, all-campus picnic, and the Junior Prom, Saturday night.

Despite rationing difficulties, it is expected that many fathers, as well as mothers, will arrive for the event. Registration will take place Friday between 1 and 5 p.m. in Johnson hall, and Saturday between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Business meetings for the Oregon Mothers include an executive board meeting, 2:30 p.m. Friday in the Men's Lounge of Gerlinger hall; the annual business meeting for all mothers at 10 a.m., Saturday in Guild theater, Johnson hall; and a meeting of the Oregon Mothers' state board of directors at a no-host breakfast, Eugene hotel, 8:30 a.m. Sunday.

Special services are being planned for the mothers at the Eugene churches Sunday morning, followed by Mother's Day dinners in the various living organizations. The final event of the weekend will be the Sunlight Serenade from 3 to 4:30 o'clock in the Music school.

Officers of the Oregon mothers are Mrs. Herbert A. Buserud, Marshfield, president; Mrs. Gene Vandeneysde, Salem, vice-president; Mrs. B. V. Hancock, Portland, secretary; Mrs. Dean Vincent, Portland, treasurer; Mrs. George C. Huggins, Marshfield, corresponding secretary; Karl W. Onthank, University of Oregon, executive secretary.

Leslie Garden Class to Meet

The garden class held at the Leslie junior high school will meet tonight at 8 p.m. Miss Frances Clinton, Marion county home demonstration agent, will speak on "food preservation." This is one of the series of meetings being held on the production, planning and conservation of the family food supply. The next meeting will be held at the community cannery on a date to be announced later.

Anyone interested in the preservation of food may attend tonight's meeting. These meetings are sponsored by the agriculture department of the high school in cooperation with the state department of vocational education.

Miss Rovena Eyre has returned from a several days' stay in Portland where she was the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. David W. Eyre, jr. On Friday afternoon Mrs. Eyre and Mrs. Henry Corbett, jr., entertained at tea for Mrs. Ralph Cake, who recently returned from a trip to New York, and Miss Eyre was among those presiding at the tea.

Joan Elliott, daughter of Major and Mrs. John J. Elliott, entertained a group of friends at a line party at the theatre Saturday afternoon. Later Miss Elliott and her guests gathered for dinner at her home on E street.

Mrs. Gene Vandeneysde presided at a bridge luncheon Monday afternoon at her home on D street in compliment to members of her club.

Mrs. James McClelland will entertain the neighborhood Westminster Guild group Wednesday afternoon at her home on North 21st street.

Mrs. John Marvin Ritchie has invited members of her club to bridge and supper tonight at her home.

Miss Brown Is Honor Guest

Mrs. Dean Ellis was hostess for a smartly arranged party Monday night at her home on East Lefelie street for the pleasure of Miss Jeannette Brown, who leaves Wednesday for Chicago. Miss Brown, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Brown, is going east to attend the United Airline training school.

Bridge was in play during the evening and a late supper was served by the hostess. The serving table was centered with a miniature May pole and individual gifts marked places for the guests.

Saying au revoir to Miss Brown were Mrs. William Stein, Mrs. Richard Nelson, Mrs. Wendell Patch, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. William Bush, Miss Kay Hanks and Mrs. Dean Ellis.

Service Women What they can do What they're doing about it

Pat Niemeyer, pharmacist's mate second class in the WAVES, who has been stationed at the naval air station at Livermore, California, is at home on leave after ten months of active duty. Miss Niemeyer was formerly stationed at San Diego naval hospital, where she did convoy duty, and at the Oakland naval hospital.

She attended University of Oregon medical school and was a registered laboratory technician in a Portland clinic before enlisting. Her brother, Bob is at the naval repair base at San Diego and is a torpedoman's mate third class. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Niemeyer of Salem.

Pharmacist's Mate Niemeyer discussed her work enthusiastically with the Statesman reporter and said "girls should enlist, they are needed very badly." Those already in the service would have much shorter hours if there were more recruits, she said.

Salem Girls in U of O Activity

The Red Cross board of University of Oregon at a meeting held late last week named committee heads. In charge of home nursing will be Virginia Tomkins, Salem, freshman in art, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Tomkins.

Jean Templeton, Salem, sophomore in drama, heads a committee for the presentation of a skit at Junior Week, to be held May 5, 6 and 7, on the campus. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Templeton.

Work has begun on a Women's Athletic association handbook which will describe the various sports, club, and include the constitution and by-laws and which will be distributed to freshmen fall term next year.

Mary Elizabeth Davis, Salem, junior in anthropology, has been named in charge of the handbook which was decided upon during the WAA council meeting held late last week. Miss Davis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Davis, Salem.

Salem Junior Women's club members are arranging an informal dance for tonight at Crystal Gardens from 9 to 12 o'clock. All Junior girls will act as hostesses and Mrs. Joseph Felton is in charge of the affair. Proceeds from the dance will be used to defray expenses of the club's delegates to the national convention.

A group of friends arranged a surprise no-host dinner for Mrs. Walter Kirk on the occasion of her birthday Saturday night at the Kirk cabin in Morningside.

Wait a minute, lady— Don't wash that pan!

YES, WE KNOW you've poured off the grease into the fat can, but take a look! See that greasy coating that still clings to the bottom and sides? Take a spoon and scrape! You'll probably get another whole tablespoon of precious fats, enough to make 5 machine-gun bullets! Or to make enough protective vaccine for 73 men!

NEVER WASH THE BROILING PAN, the roaster, or frying pan until you scrape them well. It doesn't matter if the grease is black or smelly; it's all urgently needed for munitions, battlefield medicines and other vital materials. Please do your share in this important job. Help our fighting men—and help yourself at the same time. You get 2 free red points and 4¢ for every pound of used fats you turn in.
