St. Joseph's Scene of Rites

St. Joseph's Catholic church was decorated with white spires, red peonies, blue iris and tapers Tuesday afternoon for the wedding of Miss Helen Marisfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Marisfield, to FM 1/c Alfred Down, jr., of the US Marine corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Down, sr., of Silverton. The Rev. Father T. J. Bernards officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white embossed marquisette fashioned with a floor-length skirt. The bodice was made with a sweetheart neckline and the three-quarter-length sleeves were gathered. Orange blossoms held her fingertip-length tulle veil in place. She carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid, and the streamers were made of bridal knots.

Miss Rosemary Marisfield was maid of honor for her sister. Her dress was of pink embossed marquisette and she wore a matching shoulder-length tulle veil caught with shirred blue ribbon and carried a nosegay of white and pink sweetpeas centered with small blue iris.

Mr. Pat Lambertus served as best man. Mr. Eugene Marisfield, brother of the bride, served as altar boy.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Margaret Becker sang "Ave Maria" and was accompanied by Wayne Meusey, who also played the wedding marches.

Mrs. Marisfield wore a print jersey dress with navy blue accessories. Mrs. Down, sr., also wore a print jersey dress with navy blue accessories. They both wore corsages of pink rosebuds and sweetpeas.

A reception followed at the Marisfield home for members for the two families and bridal party. The rooms were decorated with spring flowers. The cake was topped with a bride and a marine and two flags, flanked by four white candles. Miss Margaret Traeger lighted the candles. Mrs. Susan Booth cut the cake, and serving were Miss Kathleen Dahl, niece of the bridegroom, of Valsetz, Miss Marjorie Pratt, Mrs. Orien Otjen, and Mrs. Pat Lambertus, both sisters of the bride. Mrs. James Marisfield, sister-in-law of the bride, had charge of the wedding book.

For going away the bride wore a brown top coat over a blue suit, with white and brown accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Down graduated from Sacred Heart academy, and before her marriage was connected with the Farm Labor bureau. Mr. Down graduated from Silverton schools and has just returned from 16 months of active duty in the South Pacific. After a short honeymoon he will return to duty and Mrs. Down will return home.

Carnations on Sale Today

American War mothers, and assistants working from the Disabled American Veterans auxiliary, the American Legion auxiliary and the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary, will appear on the streets this morning with their annual allotment of red and white carnations.

This year they hope to sell 4000 carnations, and funds will go toward the American War Mothers' annual donation to the Red Cross and the war chest, and to buy bonds.

Miss Edna Mae Poulin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donca Poulin, whose engagement to Mr. Milford D. Litwiller, seaman first class, armed guard, United States navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Litwiller, has been announced. No date has been set for the wedding.

Annual Spring Formal Slated

Members of Delta Tau Gamma will hold their annual spring formal tonight in the Mirror of the Marion hotel with dancing between the hours of 8:30 and 11:30 p.m. Theme for the dance is "Spring is in the air, there is music everywhere." Huge bouquets of spring flowers and cherry blossoms will be used as decorations throughout the room.

Miss Marian Erickson is general chairman for the affair. Heads of committees working with her are Miss Joyce Swan, Miss Janice Lemmon, Miss Peggy Gabriel, Miss Imogene Roye and Miss Rosalie Hoover. Miss Laura Jean Curtis and Miss Claire Toomb will serve.

Achievement Day Is Held

TURNER — Turner's annual Achievement day was attended by 300 students, parents and faculty. A basket dinner was served. Opening with the high school and grade program at 10 o'clock, Lee Ritchey, student body president, was master of ceremonies and led in the flag salute and assembly singing of America.

Mrs. Florence Booth and Mrs. Leola Sloan's pupils of the first to fourth grades presented a play entitled "The School Months Party." Chorus selections were given by the seventh and eighth grade pupils, directed by Miss Deslie McClay. Mrs. Bernice Barker's pupils of the fifth and sixth grades presented a negro minstrel show.

The high school program was conducted by the seniors, and included the class history by Kenneth Young; class will by Helen Carlson; class prophecy by Neva Beach; presentation of key, Arlene Petersen; acceptance of key Pat Davis; with the concluding number, "God Bless America" by the audience. A baseball game between Turner and Stayton high school teams drew a crowd. Turner defeated the visitors, 5 to 2.

William Carrs Return To Live in Albany

ALBANY — Mr. and Mrs. William Carr, who for several years have made their home in the Coos bay area, have returned to Albany and have purchased the Robert Andrews farm at Riverside, southwest of town. They expect to make their home on the farm. Mrs. Carr will be remembered better as Magdalene Koutz, formerly of Salem and Albany.

Two other farm sales in the same community have also been reported, the Phil Haddon place on the Peoria road having been sold to E. A. Blackford of the Camp Adair area, while in turn the Haddons have bought and moved to the Nele Peterson farm opposite Riverside community
