

Lt. A. T. Brophy New Chaplain At Camp Adair

CAMP ADAIR, May 13—New Catholic chaplain to arrive at Camp Adair this week, is 1st Lt. Arthur T. Brophy, who will take over duties at Post chapel 1.

Stationed at the Oakland area station hospital, Calif., before his transfer here, the chaplain worked as both priest and friend, making it a daily habit to visit the patients in all parts of the wards.

Receiving his education in Paterson, N.J., he did post graduate work at the Catholic university in Washington, D.C. and Columbia university in New York.

As a student and teacher, he surveyed certain housing projects, concerning social and economic conditions. He taught social science at various schools throughout New York state and also served as dean of men, registrar and hospital chaplain.

Athletically inclined, the chaplain participated in many sports while a student, and when time permits indulges in an occasional tussle with the traps on the fairway.

MONMOUTH — Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Winegar of Monmouth and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Harding of Portland, this week purchased the Hall building at corner of Knox and Main streets. It is a large, well-constructed business building. Originally erected as a fraternal home for the local IOOF, it went to the Hall estate heirs on a mortgage default some years ago. It cost more than $20,000 and was sold to the present owners for an asserted $7500.

Its first floor housed the Cady and Woodworth grocery for several years, and is now occupied by the Cooper & Guthrie grocery and Cooper Hardware. The entire second floor has been the local USO for the last 18 months.

High Schools Will Receive "Trailblazer"

CAMP ADAIR, May 13 — A complete file of the "Trailblazer" magazine, a story in pictures of the 70th division at Camp Adair, will be sent to every high school in Oregon this year. Capt. George H. Godfrey, division public relations officer announced today.

Because the division is known as "Oregon's Own" and the people of the state have taken such an interest in its activities, pupils of the schools are expected to find the "Trailblazer" an interesting source of material on their own organization.

The second printing of the current issue of the magazines arrived Thursday and is now on sale at all PX's on the post. This month's issue marked one of the few times that any such all-soldier, divisional publication anywhere in the United States has enjoyed a near sell-out in the first days during which it was on sale.
