

Seen and Heard . . .

By JERYME ENGLISH

BUSY MAKING PLANS for their weddings are Pollyanna Shinkle, Mary Jane Kestly and Mary Jane Brabec . . . Due to army orders and furloughs the exact dates cannot be set . . . Pollyanna and Bob Findley plan to be married the end of May after he receives his air corps wings . . . If he obtains a leave they will be married at a church ceremony here . . . Mary Jane Kestly and Jimmy Davis of the coast guard are planning a June wedding, the date depending on his leave . . . Mary Jane Brabec leaves next Sunday for San Antonio, Texas, where she will become Mrs. John Richard Kelly. The young brides-elect are attending shower parties, doing trousseau shopping and deciding what to pack and take for their first home, even though it be an apartment or small room . . . Mary Jean McKay left last night for Raleigh, North Carolina, where she will be married to Ensign Elmer Harold on May 20 . . . They will be there for a few months while he attends engineering school.

NAME CHOSEN . . . Lawrence Kenneth is the name Lt. and Mrs. Kenneth Potts have selected for their second son, born earlier in the month in Georgia . . . The little boy weighed six pounds thirteen ounces and has a two year old brother, Ronald.

CONVENTION NOTES . . . Mrs. James G. Pike is home from the national convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs at St. Louis . . . She reports a streamlined session and was much impressed with the way business details were taken care of . . . On junior night Helen was selected as one of the models . . . Just to show what other Junior clubs are doing . . . The New Jersey Juniors bought 16 ambulances last year, costing $1355 apiece . . . Mrs. Clinton Standish and Mrs. Delbert Schwabauer also represented the Salem juniors at the convention . . . They spent some time in Chicago . . . saw Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra, "Blossom Time" and tried unsuccessfully to get seats for "Oklahoma." Echo went on to Staunton, Virginia to see Clinton . . . She says it was quite a sight to pass through the Blue Ridge mountains which are beautiful . . . lots of trees in bloom and whole hillsides of trilliums.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS for the Kenneth Mannings . . . They are now at home with Peter and Nancy, at 2099 West Nob Hill, their newly purchased home.

RETURNED is Mrs. John J. Roberts, who has been in Jacksonville, Florida, with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Daves (Mildred Roberts) and small daughter, Darcey, the past two years . . . Mrs. Roberts visited in Salem last week and is now in Portland where she hopes to find a house and get settled soon . . . It is possible Mildred and her little girl will come west for a visit in the summer.

TRAVEL BITS . . . Homeward bound is Mrs. Thorne H. Hammond, who arrived in Los Angeles on Tuesday and after a several weeks stay there and in San Francisco, will come on to Salem . . . She has been in New York City the past year . . . her navy lieutenant husband was stationed there before going overseas . . . In Chicago Helen met Mrs. Wayne Page, who had arrived the day before to be with her army captain husband, stationed at Camp Grant . . . In Los Angeles Helen will visit Mrs. Robert Welden (Maxine Rogers) and will be the guest of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boardman . . . She hopes to visit a number of the Salem people who are now residing there.

Mrs. Ralph Nohlgren is leaving for San Francisco this weekend to go house hunting so that she and her young son, Douglas, may next month join Lt. (jg) Nohlgren, who is stationed at Treasure Island. Jean drove down with their belongings and is coming back on the train.

THEY'RE VISITING . . . Chatted with Mrs. Verlin G. Coleman (Gwendolyn Hunt) who looked smart in a grey silk polka dot dress and grey princess coat . . . She is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hunt, but plans to go on to Portland while her army husband is overseas.

Mrs. Stearns Eason and baby daughter, Mary Lynn, are here from Wenatchee at the David Eason home until the end of the month . . . She looked smart in a grey three piece suit with white pin stripe and a small grey hat with white bows and white dots on the veil.

Mrs. Kenneth Gullett (Hattie Ramp) is back from Seattle at the country home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ramp . . . Ken recently received a medical discharge from the marine reserve . . . The couple's future plans are not certain, but depends on where Sears Roebuck and company locate him . . . He is now at their Seattle office.

Mrs. Frank A. Elliott is leaving today for Portland where she will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Garson have returned from a business and pleasure trip which took them to Washington, DC, New York and New Orleans. They visited their son, Private Lawrence Garson, in Paris, Texas. They returned home by way of Los Angeles.

Miss Leisla Darr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Darr, whose engagement to Mr. Clarence H. Weber, private first class, United States army, has been announced. Mr. Weber is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weber of Freeport, Illinois. No date has been set for the wedding. (Jesten-Miller).

Weekend visitors at the home of Ernest Wagner were Captain and Mrs. Robert L. Howard of Oakland, California. Capt. Howard has just recently returned from the south Pacific where he has seen 18 months of service with the Fifth air force, and is now enroute to an air base in Washington.

Officers wives of the 70th division will have a luncheon at the Marion hotel at 12:30 on Thursday, May 18. Mrs. Charles E. McFarlane at 21705 and Mrs. Ora Roof at 3041 will take reservations.

At Home Is Slated for Tuesday

Slated for Tuesday afternoon is the second annual "at home" sponsored by the Salem high school Home Economics club. All mothers and persons interested in seeing the work of the home economics department are asked to call between 1 and 4 o'clock. In the past the club has sponsored a style show in conjunction with the Girls League Mothers tea.

Reference material, textbooks, pamphlets and charts will be on display and demonstrations will be given by the regular classes. Articles to be on display range from laundry bags and waste baskets to tailored coats. Various food products will be on exhibit and the punch and cookies to be served will be prepared by the foods class.

Punch will be served in High Home and serving will be a group of club members including Betty Manoles, Colleen Kroner, Joan Randall, Pat Farrell, Nadine Beach, Margie Smith, Charlotte Hain, Pat Larson, Gloria Evanson, Betty Hill, Delores Lebold, Joan Smith, Evelyn Stockman and Phyllis Wilson.

Pouring will be Mrs. A. F. Marcus, Miss Frances Clinton, Miss Betty Pierce and Mrs. Walter E. Snyder.

A feature of the at home will be the awarding of ribbons to the honor students of the Home Economics club. A ribbon and a certificate is taking the place of the pins from the American Home Economics association which were awarded in the past.

Miss Margaret Smith is president of the club and Miss Iris Wall, next year's president. Miss Jean Hoffert is chairman of the at home and in charge of displays are Phyllis Wilson, Evelyn Stockman, Barbara Baldwin and Nadine Beach. Others assisting are Betty Manoles, Lucille Swindler, Joan Randall, Pat Larson, Ruby Burnham and Nadine Beach. Advisors of the club are Mrs. Eula S. Creel and Mrs. Earl Cooley.

Miss Clark, Lt. Lamka To Wed

Surprise announcement of the weekend is the coming marriage of Miss Georgiana Clark, daughter of Mrs. Evangeline Clark, and Lt. Raymond Lamka, United States navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lamka, sr. Miss Clark and her mother are enroute from New York Friday and from there will go on to Newport, Rhode Island, where the young couple will be married on June 1.

While in New York Miss Clark and her mother will visit with Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Gleason. The bride-elect was born and raised in New York, coming to Salem 12 years ago. She is a graduate of Salem schools.

Lt. Lamka is a graduate of Salem high school and attended Willamette university where he was a member of Alpha Psi Delta fraternity. He was home on leave in March after seeing active duty in the navy for the past two years.

The couple will live in Newport while Lt. Lamka is stationed there. Mrs. Clark will return to Salem after her daughter's marriage.

Mrs. Ivan Merchant will entertain the Gamma Phi Beta alumnae at a 6:30 o'clock dinner Monday night at her suburban home. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. LeRoy Grote and Mrs. Richard Nelson.

Miss Beth Siewert and Mrs. Alan Siewert have left for New York City where they will visit for ten days. Enroute home they will stop in Denver, where Mrs. Siewert's husband is stationed at a nearby army air base.

For Delegate

Republican National Convention

FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

Meet Fred H. Cockell

Let's Return to a Safe Constitutional Government

(Paid Advertisement)

MRS. ORA F. McINTYRE
Republican Representative
Marion County
Pa. Adv.

Bring your furs to Wards for safe storage

And bring them in today! Leave them in our modern cold storage vaults all during the hot summer days . . . well protected from moths and drying heat, safely leached against fire and theft. Then when you want them next Fall, they'll be soft and lovely and lustrous.

Expert cleaning and repairs, too . . . all at low Ward prices!

Have your fur coat cleaned and repaired by experts. Bring it in . . . let us give you an estimate of the cost.

Montgomery Ward
155 N. Liberty Phone 3194

So many smart women ARE BUYING THEIR FUR COAT AT WARDS THIS MAY . . .

Not surprising, when you consider how easy it is to own a lovely fur on Wards Lay-Away Plan. Just think, for only $5 down you may choose any coat in Wards stocks and we'll hold it for you until October 15 while you complete your payments.

What's more, you'll receive a coat made from only prime, choice pelts — those prize skins that wear longer and look lovelier over many seasons. It will be expertly made, too, with careful attention to every detail. Isn't it worth it, then, to make YOUR selection now? Of course! Drop in today and let us show you our beautiful new 1944 collection, ranging from

$47 to $289
Plus 20% Federal Tax

Montgomery Ward
155 N. Liberty Phone 3194

FREE LECTURE on CHRISTIAN SCIENCE Public Invited
Charles V. Winn, C.S.B. of Pasadena, Calif.
Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston, Massachusetts.
In the CHURCH EDIFICE Cor. Chesapeake & Liberty Sts. Under Auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Salem.
SUNDAY AFTERNOON, MAY 14 AT 2 P.M.

SUMMER SESSION
CHARLES O. HARGRAVE
Graduate and Personal Pupil of Sherwood, Chicago
For Years a Prominent Portland Teacher
Accredited Teacher of Piano
BEGINNERS OR ADVANCED
Phone 4617 Studio: 732 N. Cottage