

Peace, it's wonderful but these people never heard of it! They're too busily involved in Paramount's screamingly funny picture, "The Miracle of Morgan's Creek," co-starring Eddie Bracken and Betty Hutton now showing at the Elsinore theatre. In supporting roles are Diana Lynn, William Demarest and Porter Hall. The tug of war shown above has Demarest and Diana on one side, Betty and Bracken on the other. Better put your money on Blonde Blitz Betty! Companion feature "Nine Girls" stars Ann Harding and eight young Hollywood celebrities.

"Miracle of Morgan's Creek" Draws Laughs at Elsinore

It is no miracle that Paramount's comedy "The Miracle of Morgan's Creek," which opened last night at the Elsinore theatre, is one of the funniest Hollywood has produced in a long time. 'The elements that have gone into it to make it so, couldn't have resulted in anything less than that.
