

She'll Marry a Flyer . . .

Miss Pollyanna Shinkle, bride-elect of Mr. Robert Sherman Findley, is making plans for her marriage and busy attending bridal showers. The tentative date is Sunday, May 28, but may be changed due to army orders. Mr. Findley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Findley of Rickreall, expects to receive his air corps wings and lieutenant's commission on May 23, at Phoenix, Arizona. He will arrive in the capital the end of the week.

The wedding will take place at the Knight Memorial church at 8 o'clock with Rev. Willard Hall officiating. Miss Jane and Miss Eloise Findley, sisters of the groom-elect, will light the candles.

Miss Shinkle, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solon Shinkle, will be given in marriage by her father. She has asked her sister, Mrs. Raymond Beard, to be her matron of honor and Miss Mary McKay, the bridesmaid. The best man and ushers will be selected after Mr. Findley's arrival.

A reception will be held in the fireplace room of the church after the nuptials.

Miss Shinkle and her fiance attended Willamette university and are members of Beta Chi sorority and Sigma Tau fraternity respectively.

Bridal Parties Arranged

Miss Louise Lucas has invited guests to a dessert supper Monday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lucas, on South 23rd street in compliment to Miss Shinkle. Guests will be seated at small tables and bouquets of pastel garden flowers will provide the decorative note. A miscellaneous shower will honor the bride-to-be.

Bidden to honor Miss Shinkle are Mrs. Solon Shinkle, Mrs. Bayard Findley, Mrs. Raymond Beard, Mrs. Francis Kettleson, Miss Virginia Case, Miss Vesta Shinn, Miss Jean Nieswander, Miss Eloise and Miss Jane Findley, Mrs. William Thompson, Miss Mary and Miss Stella McKay, Miss Sally McClelland, Miss Emma Lou East, Miss Carol Young, Miss Dorothy Estes, Miss Aileen Sechrist and Mrs. J. E. Lucas.

For Tuesday night Miss Emma Lou East is arranging a bridal party for Miss Shinkle at the W. H. East home on South Church street. Bridge will be in play during the evening and a late supper will be served by the hostess. A linen shower will compliment Miss Shinkle.

Honoring the bride-elect will be Mrs. Solon Shinkle, Mrs. Bayard Findley, Mrs. Jane and Miss Eloise Findley, Miss Sally McClelland, Miss Mary, Miss Stella and Miss Connie McKay, Mrs. Stanley McKay, Miss Evelyn Collins of Corvallis, Miss Mary Jean Huston, Miss Sybil Spears, Miss Rosella Bell, Miss Louise Lucas, Miss Dorothy Estes, Miss Vesta Shinn, Miss Olene Mehlhoff, Miss Carol Young, Miss Elaine Mury and Mrs. W. H. East.

A Visitor Is Coming . . .

Miss Jean David of Washington, DC. is expected in Salem on Wednesday to visit at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knox. Miss David formerly resided in Salem and is a niece of Admiral Ross T. McIntire. Miss David came west to San Francisco with her sister and is now in Portland visiting with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harvard McIntire, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Buck. Mrs. Buck will accompany Miss David to Salem. Several parties are being arranged to honor the visitor during her stay in the capital.

WOMEN'S Society * Clubs * Music The Oregon Statesman SECTION

Mrs. James J. Hague, jr., and two year old son, Scott, above, who are leaving Monday with Mr. Hague for Berkeley and Los Angeles. The Hagues plan to visit in Los Angeles for a month before he enters the service, and then she will return to Berkeley to reside with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wagy. (Jesten-Miller).

Mrs. H. Lawrence Lister, left, pictured with her two children, Patricia and Larry, who have been the incentive for a number of au revoir parties prior to their departure for Portland where they will reside. Mr. Lister has entered private law practice in Portland, their former home. (Kennell-Ellis).

Leaving for Olympia, the first of June will be Mrs. Herman Miller and her daughters, Norma, Carol and Marilyn, who are pictured at the right. Mr. Miller is already in Olympia where he is deputy director of war production training for the state of Washington, a similar position to that which he held here. (Kennell-Ellis).

MISS SYBIL SPEARS (Jesten-Miller)

Tables Will Be Displayed . . .

Spinsters are busily engaged these days making preparations for their decorated table display which will be an event of Saturday, June 3 in the Valley Motor show rooms. All interested persons may view the tables from 3 o'clock in the afternoon to ten in the evening. Several years ago the Spinsters gave a similar affair and it proved so successful they decided to repeat it this year.

Miss Sybil Spears, the newly elected president of the philanthropic organization, is announcing classifications for the table display this weekend. For formal tables there will be dinner and tea arrangements; informal; breakfast, luncheon, dinner and tea; occasional; coffee, children's and hall tables.

Organizations, clubs, stores and individuals are asked to enter the exhibit and a small entry fee will be charged. The grand prize will be a war bond, ribbons will be given to stores exhibiting, and clubs and individuals will receive cash and prizes. Anyone interested in exhibiting is asked to contact Miss Spears at 5610.

A Church Ceremony Today . . .

Spirea, iris and calla lilies will decorate the First Church of God this afternoon when Miss Claudine Gillespie, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Gillespie, is married to Mr. John Stuart Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Smith of Halsey. The four o'clock ceremony will be read by Rev. U. G. Clark of Portland, who married the bride's parents and her brother, Mr. Harold Gillespie. Members of the two families and intimate friends will witness the nuptials.

Miss Mary Margaret Livesey will sing "O Promise Me" and "God Gave Me You" before the bridal party enters and Miss Margaret Anderson of North Bend will be the accompanist. Lighting the altar candles will be Miss Catherine Smith of Halsey, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Faith Idso, who will wear pink and blue dresses. They will carry white candles with streamers of spring flowers.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father. For her wedding she has chosen a white gown, fashioned with a satin bodice and made with long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. The full skirt is of net over satin and terminates in a short train. White satin medallions are applied on the skirt. Her fingertip veil of illusion will be arranged in a halo of the same material. She will carry a white prayer book topped with a white orchid from which will fall white satin streamers of lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Eloise Smith, sister of the groom, will be the maid of honor and she will wear a shell pink frock. Mrs. Clare Palmer will be the matron of honor and her dress is of ice blue. The gowns are made identical with satin bodices and silk marquisette skirts enhanced with satin applique. They will wear matching julet caps with shoulder length tulle veils. Their colonial bouquets will be of pastel spring flowers.

Technical Sergeant Robert H. Davidson of Camp Adair will stand with Mr. Smith as best man. Seating the guests will be Mr. Harold Gillespie and Mr. Marvin Bagwell.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Gillespie has chosen a rose crepe dress with black and white accessories. Mrs. Smith will wear a powder blue crepe dress for her son's marriage. Their corsages will be of gardenias and Cecile Brunner roses.

A Reception Afterwards

The bridal couple will greet their guests at a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gillespie after the ceremony. The bride's aunt, Mrs. E. R. Lemley of Cottage Grove, will cut the cake and pouring will be the groom's two aunts, Mrs. F. E. McCaslin and Miss Marie Sneed of Portland.

Mrs. Waldo Mercer is in charge of the dining room and assisting will be Mrs. Harold Gillespie and Mrs. F. O. Repine. The bride's table will be covered with a hand crocheted lace cloth and in the center will be the tiered wedding cake encircled with a wreath of lilies-of-the-valley. White candles in crystal holders will guard the arrangement. Bouquets of roses and other spring flowers will decorate the guest rooms. Miss Maxine Clark will be in charge of the gift table and guest book.

When the newlyweds leave on a wedding trip along the Oregon coast the bride will don a petal blue tailleur with matching top coat and hat. Her accessories will be brown and white to the shoulder of her coat she will pin a white orchid.

Mr. Smith and his bride will live near Halsey where he is engaged in farming. The bride is a graduate of Salem schools and has been employed at the state division of vocational education. Mr. Smith attended Halsey schools.

Arbuckle-Wheeler Engagement Told . . .

Of interest to the couple's many friends is announcement of the engagement of Miss Dorothy Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane E. Wheeler of Portland, to Lieutenant (jg) George A. Arbuckle, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Arbuckle. The news is being told this weekend by the bride-elect's parents. No date has been set for the wedding.

The couple met at the University of Oregon where Miss Wheeler is a member of Chi Omega sorority. Her fiance is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Lt. Arbuckle was recently home on leave and is now enroute to join his ship. Lt. Arbuckle is a graduate of Salem schools.

Marriage Set for Tuesday . . .

Tuesday has been set as the date for the marriage of Miss Irma Charlotte Illert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Illert, and Sergeant Robert Earl Unruh, United States marine corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Unruh. The double ring ceremony will be read at the Christ Lutheran church with Rev. F. H. Theurer officiating at 8:30 o'clock.

Miss Donna Unruh, sister of the groom-elect, will sing before the ceremony and Miss Jewell Gueffroy will be the accompanist. Mrs. F. H. Theurer will play the wedding marches. Lighting the candles will be Miss Marianne Pfeiffer of Portland.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, has asked Mrs. Robert Baker to be her honor attendant. Delores Hillner of Aurora will be the flower girl.

Mr. Al Mason will serve as best man for Sergeant Unruh and ushers will be Mr. Eugene Kester of Portland and Mr. Lloyd Noffsiger. A reception will be held in the church parlors after the ceremony.

Miss Illert attended Salem schools and is now with the public utilities commission. Sergeant Unruh was graduated from schools in Chicago and Salem. He later attended Oregon State college. Before enlisting in the marine corps he was connected with the state printing department. He recently returned to the states from overseas duty in Hawaii.

News About People . . .

Mrs. John M. Lamb, jr., arrived in the capital Thursday to visit with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lamb. Lt. Lamb is now overseas with the army air corps. The young couple were married in December in Phoenix, Arizona, when Lt. Lamb received his wings. Mrs. Lamb, the former Helen Pearson, has been visiting in Seattle with her mother.

Mrs. Kenneth Hanson and her young son, Charles Kenneth, returned Thursday morning from Manhattan, Kansas, where they have been with Corporal Hanson for several months. They are now at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Mills. Corporal Hanson is stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas.

Installation Being Planned . . .

The weekend of June 9, 10 and 11 has been set as the official date for installation of Alpha Chi Omega, national sorority, on the Willamette university campus, received its Alpha Chi Omega charter earlier this week. This will make the third Alpha Chi Omega chapter in Oregon, the other two being at the University of Oregon and Oregon State college. The Willamette university chapter will be known as Beta Chi chapter of Alpha Chi Omega.

Six national officers will be here for the occasion as well as representatives from the Eugene, Corvallis and Washington chapters.

Mrs. Robert E. Shinn, Salem Alpha Chi Omega alumna, local chairman for the installation acted in a similar capacity when Alpha Chi Omega was installed on the Oregon State college campus in March, 1915. Mrs. Wilbur Carl of Portland is in charge of pledging and initiation.

This week's activities include pledging on Friday, June 9, installation on Saturday with a formal banquet at the Marion hotel. Open house and a reception will be held on Sunday afternoon to which Willamette faculty members, townspeople and fraternity representatives are invited. Mrs. Gardner Knapp is chairman of the open house and reception committee.

Mrs. Burton Myers is president of the Salem alumnae chapter of Alpha Chi Omega and Miss Betty Provoet is president of Alpha Phi Alpha.

A Formal Reception . . .

Final social event of the year for Salem Junior Woman's club members will be the formal reception and installation of next year's officers Monday night at the clubhouse. Club members, their mothers and guests are invited to attend.

Mrs. Ruth Lear, president of the Salem Woman's club, will install officers and Mrs. Vern Robb will present the girls for installation. Mrs. James C. Pike is the new president; Mrs. Fred Gast, vice-president; Mrs. Merrill Falkenhagen, second vice-president; Miss Juanita Syverson, recording secretary; Miss Mabelle Frazer, corresponding secretary; Miss Emelyn Frazer, financial secretary; Mrs. Robert Worrall, treasurer; Miss Hattie Bratzel, parliamentarian; Mrs. Howard Elsmann and Mrs. Maurice Brennen, directors.

Mrs. Delbert Schwabbauer is the retiring president and her officers and committee chairmen will make their annual reports. General Federation convention reports will be given by the delegates, Mrs. Schwabbauer, Mrs. Clinton Standish and Mrs. James Pike.

Presiding at the serving table will be Mrs. Ralph Hensley and Mrs. Robert Boardman. Club members will assist in serving and about the rooms. A bouquet of roses will center the table and arrangements of spring flowers and blossoms will decorate the club rooms.

Mrs. Joseph Felton is chairman for the affair and assisting are Miss Emelyn Frazer, Miss Hattie Bratzel, Mrs. B. C. Harrison, Mrs. Gerald Fisher, Mrs. Roy Van Dorn, Mrs. Arthur Rohlin, Mrs. Howard Elsmann and Mrs. Paul Silke.