Poppy Sale Is Next Week

Veterans in hospitals throughout the state are busy fashioning crepe paper poppies, which will be sold by women workers under the direction of the American Legion auxiliary on May 26 and 27.

Money received from the poppy sale goes to rehabilitation and child welfare projects of the auxiliary. All work is voluntary, so few expenses are incurred to put over the sale. Funds go to assistance of fatherless families and families of needy veterans. Money is used to provide interests for disabled veterans not taken care of by government agencies.

Salem auxiliary has ordered 10,000 poppies to be sold the two days. Materials are assembled by veterans in the Portland hospital.

Oregon State college mothers will meet for a 1 o'clock covered dish luncheon Monday afternoon at the YWCA and all Oregon State mothers are invited to attend. Mrs. Arthur Holden, Mrs. E. A. Miller and Mrs. Albert C. Anderson are hostesses. At the business meeting new officers will be elected.

Mrs. Frank Marshall and Mrs. Earl T. Andresen, will entertain the past presidents of the American Legion auxiliary Monday at the former's home on North 18th street.

Ice Follies Are Spectacular

Surpassing all previous editions in magnitude, brilliancy of costumes, and showmanship, the Ice Follies of 1944 comes to the new Portland Arena May 30 for a limited engagement. The all-new edition of the Shipstads and Johnson ice extravaganza includes many notable names. Among them are Betty Atkinson, the California "skating comet"; Norah McCarthy, radiant Irish-Canadian star; and Shipstad and Johnson, nationally famous comedians; Roy Shipstad, the "world's smoothest skater"; Heinie Brock, diminutive comedian; the Canadian star, Osborne Colson; Papez and Zwack, international stylists, Bobby Blake and Ruby Maxon, and a host of others.

The 1944 edition of the Ice Follies also presents artists new to the company, several of whom have international reputations. Among them are petite Hazel Franklin, the English skating sensation, and Michael Kirby of Canada. Miss Franklin does a solo specialty and Kirby teams with Miss McCarthy in two of the most spectacular sequences in the show.

Reports from the major cities of the nation in which the Ice Follies of 1944 has appeared, acclaim the ice extravaganza as the crowning achievement of the Shipstads and Johnson, originators of this new form of entertainment.

Social Day club of the Eastern Star will meet for Red Cross sewing at the Masonic temple Tuesday. New material for Red Cross ditty bags has arrived and there will be work for all members. A no-host luncheon will be served at noon and hostesses are Miss Ulva Derby and Mrs. Frank Reeves.
