To Attend Meeting—Mayor I. M. Doughton and other city officials plan to attend a meeting of the League of Oregon Cities in Portland on Thursday. A section on building codes is to be included in the program for the first time. Inasmuch as many provisions now contained in building codes call for materials which cannot be procured, approved substitutions for shortages will be one of the principal items considered, league officials have announced.

County Correspondents Prompt Reporting Returns on Election

By MARGUERITE GLEESON Valley News Editor

Now that election is over and the final votes tallied, those who had the responsibility of getting the count from the farthest corners of Marion county pause to be thankful for the faithful election correspondents who telephoned the count in promptly, as soon as it was completed in those remote voting precincts.

Complete returns from 44 of the 55 precincts outside of the city of Salem had been furnished by these reporters at 1:30 Saturday morning when the final tally used in Saturday's paper was made. From the other 11 precincts, outside of Salem, nine incomplete reports had been furnished and were included with the complete precincts in the tally. Only two out of 55 precincts were unrepresented in the report carried in Saturday's Statesman.

It sounds simple to say 44 out of 55 precincts (outside of Salem) were complete but that statement takes no account of the "ears" which workers at times seemed to "stretch out" to hear the faint faraway voices of the reporters coming from Donald, Butteville, Champoeg and Aurora, in the north end of the county; and from Mill City, Detroit (Horeb precinct), and Breitenbush, in the east. Then also the distant voice of one of the Smiths, (four Smiths are on the Statesman's election reporters payroll) coming in from St. Paul, so near and yet so far the telephone way.

As each of these distant points reported and the 55 precincts were checked off, the hands of the clock moved on toward midnight and then 1 o'clock Saturday morning. Another election was over and those faithful workers had not failed the paper, and its readers who want their election returns with the morning coffee.

While election returns Saturday morning were very much "incomplete", it was from the 27 precincts in the city of Salem that most of the votes were uncounted. Forty-three county reporters had furnished complete returns for 44 precincts, and incomplete reports for nine.

The cooperation of three newspapers of the county, Rodney Alden, Woodburn Independent; Mrs. I. V. McAdoo, Gervais Star and L. E. Spraker, Stayton Mail, accounted for complete returns from eight precincts. Lillie Madson, Silverton correspondent and member of the Statesman staff, reported for her territory, accounting for four precincts. These were in the line of "professionals."

Nineteen regular Statesman correspondents reported for their precincts and the other 22 were reported by other faithful reporters. The regular Statesman correspondents included Mrs. T. C. Mountain, Aumsville, with first complete returns, followed almost immediately by Rodney Alden with Scollard's complete return.

The other regular correspondents were Mrs. James Ogle, Aurora; Mrs. John Dunlavy, Brooks; Mrs. William Hartley, Englewood; Mrs. W. H. Scharif, Fairgrounds; Mrs. Daisy Richards, Horeb; Mrs. C. L. Simmons, North Howell; Mrs. A. E. Wiesner, Central Howell; Mrs. Nettie Reeves, Jefferson; Mrs. J. Judd, Liberty; Mrs. M. M. Magee, Macleay and East Salem; Mrs. Warren Gray, Marion; Mrs. Merle Philippi, Mehama; Raymond O'Keefe, Monitor; Loretta Dehler, Mt. Angel; Mrs. F. W. Cammack, Rosedale; Mrs. Ethel Blinston, Sidney; Mrs. V. A. Scott, Union Hill; Mrs. Earl Prather, Turner; and Mrs. Allyn Nusom, Waconda.

Then those others, reporters for a day, but what a day, and what important reporters. Theirs the little bit furnished which helped make up the figure read at the breakfast table "almost complete returns." These important reporters furnishing figures for the Statesman election report were Mrs. D. R. Hughes, Auburn; Mrs. Myrtle Parker, Breitenbush; Fred Dental, Butteville; Henry Zorn, Champoeg; Guy H. Smith, Chemawa; Mrs. Myrtle Johns, Croisan; Verna Bushman, Donald; Mrs. Edward B. Smith, Fairfield; Mrs. H. G. Rehffuss, Hayesville; Frances Weaver and Mrs. L. M. Scholl, Hubbard; Mrs. Gladys Mason, Mill City; Mrs. E. G. Clark, Pringle; Mrs. E. C. McCandlish, Quinaby; E. F. Carlton, Salem Heights; Mrs. Carl Smith, St. Paul; John Plas, Scotts Mills; John Peterson, Shaw; and Fred Wolf, Sublimity.

Work-Fight Bill Criticized

WASHINGTON, May 23—(AP)—Opposition to the work-or-fight bill, under which draft boards could induct for war work 4Fs and men between 18 and 45 who refused to take essential jobs, came today from the American Federation of Labor and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

Lewis G. Hines, AFL legislative representative, called the attempt to "coerce" workers where no coercion has been shown necessary.

Martin H. Miller, legislative spokesman for the Trainmen's brotherhood, contended also that "there is no need for civilian conscription" in any form at this stage of the war.

"The great majority of people, when they understand, oppose and resent conscription of civilians who would be driven, like cattle, to the private profit-making industries of the nation," Miller told the senate military committee.
