

Miss Illert, Sgt. Unruh Marry

Christ Lutheran church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Irma Charlotte Illert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Illert, and Sergeant Robert Earl Unruh, United States marine corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Unruh on Tuesday night. Rev. F. H. Theurer officiated at the double ring ceremony at 8:30 o'clock.

The church was decorated with baskets of pink and white snapdragons, stock and carnations and blue delphinium. Lighting the altar candles was Miss Marian Pfeiffer of Portland. Miss Donna Unruh, sister of the groom, sang "I Love You" and "Because" before the bride and groom entered. Miss Jewell Gueffroy was the accompanist.

For her wedding the bride chose a white gown fashioned with a satin skirt which terminated in a train. The bodice and long sleeves were of lace. She wore her mother's full length tulle veil which was edged in lace. A tiara of seed pearls held the veil in place. She carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley centered with an orchid. Around her neck she wore a string of pearls and the bridegroom's gift to his bride was a spun silver bracelet which he brought from Hawaii.

Mrs. Robert Baker was the matron of honor and wore a rose taffeta gown fashioned with a bolero jacket, sweetheart neckline and a full skirt. Bridesmaids were Miss Frances Barry, who wore blue, and Miss Mary Alice Jones, whose dress was rose. They all carried colonial nosegays of sweet peas and roses.

Delores Hillner of Aurora was flower girl and wore a petal blue taffeta floor length dress and carried a basket of rose petals. Mr. Al Mason was Sergeant Unruh's best man and seating the guests were Mr. Eugene Keaster of Portland and Mr. Lloyd Noffsiger.

For her daughter's marriage Mrs. Illert wore a black suit with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Unruh's gown was of navy blue and her flowers were gardenias. The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the church parlors after the nuptials. Mrs. George Windedahl cut the bride's cake and pouring were Mrs. Marvin Larkins and Mrs. James Smith. Serving were Miss Lucille Baer, Miss Joan Krauth, Miss Estella Smith, Mrs. Austin Davis, Mrs. Alvin Battalion and Mrs. Lloyd Noffsiger. Miss Frances Barry was in charge of the guest book.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the new Mrs. Unruh wore a three piece light blue tulle with matching hat and black patent leather accessories. Sergeant and Mrs. Unruh attended Salem schools and she is now with the public utilities commission. He attended Oregon State college and is now home on leave from overseas duty in Hawaii.

The Knet-A-Kare club and their husbands were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Andresen. Pinochle was in play with prizes going to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Thomas, Mr. Judson Bressler and Mrs. George Gardner. Mr. and Mrs. James Kasner were special guests.
