Ceremony Read at Church

Miss Evaline Woods, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Woods, and Mr. Robert Youngberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Youngberg of Arlington, Calif., were married at a pretty ceremony Tuesday night at the Seventh Day Adventist church at 8:30 o'clock. Elder G. W. Chambers officiated.

Mr. J. Henry Adams, uncle of the bride, sang "At Dawning" and "When Song is Sweet" and Mrs. John Wagner sang "O Promise Me." Miss Alberta Mae Dale was the organist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown made with long sleeves and train. Her full length tulle veil was arranged in a coronet. She carried a bouquet of pink and white roses.

Miss Earline Woods was her sister's maid of honor and wore a pink taffeta dress. Her bouquet was of pink and blue sweet peas and blue delphinium. Bridesmaids were Miss Madge Youngberg, sister of the groom, and Miss Alice Breesee, who wore blue taffeta frocks. Their bouquets were pink and white sweet peas and blue delphinium.

Mr. Eugene Hamlin stood with Mr. Youngberg as best man and ushers were Mr. William and Mr. Delmour Woods, brothers of the bride, Mr. Vernon and Mr. William Sample.

Mrs. Woods chose a navy blue ensemble with white accessories for her daughter's marriage. Mrs. Youngberg came north for her son's wedding and she wore a navy blue outfit. Their flowers were white roses.

A wedding reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Neuman. Assisting were Miss LaVon Olds, Miss Louise Boyce, Miss Karen Van Den Bosh and Miss Willetta Sample. Miss Dorothy Hoppe was in charge of the guest book and in the gift room was Mrs. James Hunting. During the reception Mrs. Gilbert Wren sang and Mr. Fred Hardin played numbers on the vibraphone.

When the newlyweds left on their trip to the coast the bride wore a brown wool dressmaker suit and white accessories. The couple will make their home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Youngberg attended Walla Walla college from which he graduated with his minister's degree on Sunday.

Miles. Mr. Miles is connected with the civilian public service in Williamsburg and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Miles.

Mrs. Jay H. Stockman and daughter, Evelyn, spent the weekend in Astoria with Mr. Stockman. He left for the coast city last week where he has opened his law practice. His family will join him as soon as they find a house.

Service Women

What they can do
What they're doing about it

There is one more woman to help "Keep 'em Flying" now that Miss Mary B. Lowe of Salem and Corvallis has become an Air Wac. Pvt. Lowe is the daughter of Mrs. J. A. Woods of Corvallis, and is a newcomer to the Northwest, having come from Aklahoma.

In the Air Forces Miss Lowe will take a job in the administrative field at an airbase of her choice when she has completed her basic training at Des Moines, Iowa. She plans to leave for Fort Des Moines in two weeks.

Air Wac Private Ruby McKenzie, who was recently assigned to the Air Transport Command and stationed at Fairfield Suisan Air Base in Fairfield, California, has returned to Salem on a three day pass to attend the graduation of her son, Richard, from the West Salem grade school. When her superiors learned that her son was to be graduated tonight, they insisted that she take the pass to attend the exercises, even though she is a newcomer at that airfield, having just completed her basic training at Fort Des Moines, Iowa. The Air Wac Private is the wife of Mr. William Robert McKenzie of 1067 Ruge street, West Salem, and is the mother of Warrant Officer W. R. McKenzie, also of the army Air Forces and stationed at Waco, Texas.

Mrs. Maurice Bolton of The Dalles, is spending a few days in the capital as the guest of her sister, Mrs. John J. Elliott.

Rholin Cooley On Commission

Lifeguard Hired, Bids Delayed on Abiqua Job for Silverton

SILVERTON — Mayor Reber Allen appointed Rholin Cooley to the city planning commission Monday night to replace Lowell E. Brown, whose resignation the city council also accepted Monday night. Mr. Brown resigned several weeks ago but his resignation had not been acted on until the June meeting.

The council also voted to hire Miss Betty Heidenstrom as lifeguard at the city pool for the summer months. She will be hired at $100 a month for the two and one-half or three months which the pool will operate.

City Manager H. C. McCrea reported that the progress on the Abiqua pipe line had been delayed by difficulty in obtaining a couple of rights-of-way and that bidders, whose bids were to have been opened Monday night, had been telegraphed that this would

Today's Menu

Those who have the distribution of foods as their responsibility want us to eat more onions, so here's the day's menu planned to include some:

Green onion and orange salad
Meat loaf
New potatoes in cream
Buttered asparagus
Frozen lemon torte

FROZEN LEMON TORTE
3/4 cup vanilla wafer crumbs
3 egg yolks, well beaten
1/4 cup lemon juice
Grated rind of one lemon
1/4 tsp. salt
1/2 cup sugar
3 egg whites, beaten stiff
1/2 cup evaporated milk, chilled

Line refrigerator tray with half the vanilla wafer crumbs. Combine egg yolks, lemon juice, lemon rind, salt and sugar and cook in double boiler until thick. Cool. Whip the chilled evaporated milk and add, with the beaten egg whites, to the lemon mixture. Pour over the vanilla wafer crumbs and cover with remaining crumbs. Place in freezing compartment, turn temperature controls low, and allow to freeze quickly. Serve in finger-width slices or in squares. Makes six to eight portions.
