Miss Clark

mony took place at historic Trinity Tower Episcopal church at Newport, Rhode Island on Friday, June 2. The bride and her mother left Salem the end of May for the east coast.

The evening nuptials were read at 6 o'clock by Rev. Lauriston L. Scalfé, rector of Trinity Tower. Mr. J. Raymond Parker. church organist, played traditional wedding music before the ceremony and before the bridal party entered played "O Promise Me", "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

Lt. Arthur J. Ela, USN, gave the bride in marriage. For her wedding she chose a becoming gown of white Chantilly lace over white satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline with seed pearl trim. The sleeves were three - quarter length and tiny white satin buttons extended from neckline to waistline in back. Her tiny hat was of white lace and satin ribbon. She carried a white prayer book topped with white orchids. Her only ornament was a three strand pearl necklace.

Mrs. Clark was her daughter's matron of honor and wore a blue crepe gown with a blue and white beaded jacket. Her blue hat was of lace straw and she carried a bouquet of white snapdragons and carnations. Attends the Groom

Lt. (jg) Richard Ide, USNR, stood with Lt. Lamka as best man. A group of Lt. Lamka's fellow officers in white dress uniforms, served as ushers.

The wedding reception was held at the Naval Officers club at Newport. The newlyweds received before a floral setting of white snapdragons and spirea. The table decorations were carried out in white and silver and the bridal couple cut the first piece of the tiered cake.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the bride wore a smart seacrest green jersey suit with brown accessories and Kolinsky furs. Her corsage was of prown orchids, Lt. and Mrs. Lam ka took a boat to Nantucket island off the coast of Rhode Island on their honeymoon. They will reside at 21 Cranston avenue, Newport, Rhode Island. The bride is a graduate of Salem schools and served as secretary of the Salem Young Republican club. We specialize in fine hair, in fact, baby-fine hair. Many women and girls have tried our new method for putting a permanent in fine and ultra-fine hair and we have heard nothing but praise in this department. Women securing these permanents have sent in other women having fine hair and we are now not only serving Salem women, but women from as far away as Portland, who have learned about our fine hair method. If you have fine hair and have been unsuccessful in "keeping" your permanent, try Price's Beauty Salon.

Here Miss Larson conveys to her operators the latest techniques available to the trade. When something new comes out in the beauty world, a meeting of staff is called and all are trained in that phase of the business. Continual study, constant aleriness and untiring effort have made Price's the outstanding beauty salon in Salem.
