33-Round Boxing Card Set For Armory Arena Tonight KILLER'

Gram the BLEACHERS

Keeping step: Don't anyone suddenly discover another Fountain Promoter I. Pilcher will surely discover one as well. No plagiarist, understand, as is another bird we could name-merely a gent who's trying to glamorize sports in the town and turns to the new-fangled contraptions and ideas to do it . . . First it was the army boxing school. No fighters in the village since Keller Wagner turned GI Joe, so the promoter installed the thriving boxing school . . . Then came the birth of the round ring. He hasn't yet installed one in the local punch pit, but he's had his slide rule working overtime attempting to fathom the new fad, and one fine day-presto! Round ring! . . . But now comes the latest flare for the unorthodox, a seven-round boxing match, exactly the distance heralded for the Bobby Wright - Roy McQueen middleweight "grudge" special Thursday night. Mebbe Pilcher figures the "lucky seven" angle will make the grudge more blooddripping, and then again mebbe he's just doing it to be fancy. But you'll have to give him credit—he doesn't overlook a bet . . . (Wait'll the pooches start galloping in Portland-he still won't overlook one, but it'll be a much different kind then . . . Add baseball guys we could kiss: The commanding officer at Fort McPherson, Ga., is an ardent baseball fan. His quarters are just off the right field fence of the post's diamond. It's 340 feet from home plate to a big window in his quarters and he has a standing offer: "Any member of the team who can knock a ball through that window gets a three-day pass." . . . And three-day passes being what we hear they are to the GI's, we'll bet the whole camp turned out for baseball at McPherson . . . Speaking of Wagner above, last we heard of him he was still bowling 'em over in ring tournaments out in the Pacific . . .

Junior Ball Kids: Here's th' Schedule

Stricaly because you're wearing us out asking for copies of the Junior ball league schedule, following is a reprint of same taken from last Wednesday's Statesman. Last named team is the home team in the first half with first named teams the home clubs in the second round. You'll notice also that no team plays all its games at the same time of day and all teams will be the "home" clubs seven times during the season. Credit Bob Keuscher with a job well done, for working out one of these things so that no team will feel slighted is quite a task:

(Starting with next Sunday, and note the new starting times ruled in this week): June 11-July 30: 12 o'clock, Curly's at Eagles; 2 o'clock, Funland at Lions; 4 o'clock, Redwood at Mayflower Milk; 6 o'clock, Valley Motors at Shrock's, June 18-August 6: Redwood at Curly's; 2, Shrocks at Mayflower; 4, Lions at Valley Motor; 6, Eagles st Funland. June 25-August 13: 12, Shrock's at Lions; 2, Valley Motor at Eagles; 4, Mayflower at Curly's; 6, Funland at Redwood. July 2-August 20: 12. Retiwood at Valley Motor: 2. Our Leo a Nasty Man to Beavers?

What's cookin' with Leo Edwards, or, our man 'Frisco continues to make the headlines: And because of it, Portland's amazing Beavers probably don't think much of the man in blue from our village any Happened in Hollywood, the one place where most anything is apt to and generally does happen, and since it came to pass in that land of make believe the baseball word slingers of the town have vowed to give Manager Marv Owen and his astralites the "silent treatment" when next they come to town. Ancient Sid Cohen was coaching at third in the Sunday double bill, 11,000 assorted movie queens, hams and citizens were in the stands and Portland was having a bad time. A covey of photographers, anxious to depict the Portlanders biting the dust, invaded the sideline between Cohen and the batter. Since Cohen became practically screened from the ball game (so the accounts say), he bellered at our 'Frisco for help. All he got from our man was a frigid shrug. At this Manager Marv Owen bounded from the dugout and charged at Ray Snyder, 'Frisco's pal behind the dish. But the manager soon joined Cohen in the strictly squelched bin as the 11,000 hooted and the photogs dug in deeper.

From that moment on it was the "Portland Beefers" and Manager Mary and his men were atop the Hollywood Remington rattlers' taboo heet. That's probably just where 'Frisco and his pal now reside in the Bevo little black book.

money's worth." The card features almost entirely the up-and-coming Larry Caputo fistic flock against the leather fisted gents coosting under the Jack Abrahams wing, both stables rivals for ring prominence in the northwest.

This rivalry comes to its peak in one of the two main outings tonight, the 8-rounder between livan, 187, of the Caputo clique, and "KO" Hooker, 1861, of Abrahams' side. Both colored youngsters, in their early twenties, are noted for aggressiveness and punching ability. Hooker dropped close nod to Big Dave Johnson a close nod to Big Dave Johnson on Pilcher's first village card, but Race Narrows will be recalled as a shifty gent who carried the battling to 205pound Johnson throughout their pound Johnson throughout their six heats. He's one up over Sullivan in their only other meeting, a close decision on a Joe Waterman WU Cards 3 3 .500 WU Blues 1 5 .167 show. Both Caputo and Abrahams, to say nothing of Pilcher, claim this match a natural. The other main heat pits Orv Peters, 150, Chattanooga, Tenn. against Jack Kelly, 149, Gary, Ind. From opposite stables as are Hooker and Sullivan, these welterweights come highly recommended as "comers who need more experience." Peters is in the army and has been on a few Waterman prelims.

The 7-round semiwindup special may well be one that steals the show. Middleweights Bobby Wright, 165, and Roy McQueen, 1641/2, walloped off a blood-dripping session in Portland three weeks ago, and since then have been anxious to meet again, so the reports say. Wright was also on the first 40 et 8 show and whopped to a draw with his opponent on the Joe Kahut-Lloyd Marshall Portland card recently.

Rockey Mobley, 141, Swan Isand shipyard, and ene Damico. 140, Portland, meet in the 6round prelim. This will be Damico's first pro outing after 132 amateur fights. Another 4-rounder between mighty mites will start the show at 8:30 p. m.

PORTLAND, June 7 .- (AP)-Portand Beavers regained the Pacific Coast league baseball lead here tonight by turning back the Los Angeles Angels, 3-2, in the opening game of their belated series. Ad Liska, on the mound for the Beavers, held the Angels to five hits. Dick Conger was touched for seven by the Portlanders.

Coupled with San Francisco's loss to Sacramento tonight, the Beavers took over the lead in the red-hot chase by half a game. In turning back Oakland, 4-3, in 12 innings, the Seattle Rainlers crept to within half a game of the Beavers tonight, tied with San Francisco.
