New Officers Installed By Daughters

STAYTON — A large number of members witnessed installation of officers of Stayton Catholic Daughters of America on Tuesday night at Foresters hall here. Miss Anne Erwert, state treasurer, and Mrs. L. A. LeDoux of Mt. Angel were installing officers.

Other guests from Mt. Angel were Mrs. J. L. Wachter, Mrs. William Harrell and Mrs. A. Saalfeld, grand regent-elect of Court Marion. Newly-installed grand regent of the local court, Mrs. Marie Hottinger, appointed committee chairmen as follows:

Yearbook Rosamund Hendricks; digest, Clara Dozier; servicemen's bulletin, Rose Bell; sick, Elizabeth Murphy and Joseph Brand; Red Cross, Effie Gescher. Names were drawn for chairmen of entertainment for the yearbook.

Missals were presented to Miss Angeline Lambrecht, retiring grand regent, and to Mrs. Rose Bell, who is state regent and was the first grand regent of Court Queen of Peace of Stayton.

Instead of the customary social hour, members observed the evening of D-day at the close of the Daughters meeting in the church where prayers were offered. Among those attending prayer were Mrs. Pat Gorman, who has five sons in the service; Mrs. Anna Schwindt, with four sons in the service, and Mrs. L. A. LeDoux of Mt. Angel, who has three sons in the service.

Later in the hall, refreshments were served by Gertrude Diedrich, Edith Albus, Effie Gescher, Katie Etzel, Regina Van Handle, Margaret Dombrowsky, Mary Mertz and Ida Frichl.

Mrs. Charpillot And Mr. Howe Wed at Turner

TURNER — At a quiet but impressive ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends, Mrs. Nellie I. Charpillot, daughter of Mrs. Grace Powelson of Mill City and Charles A. Howe of Mill City were united in marriage Thursday at 8 o'clock at the Turner Christian church.

Rev. C. F. Trimble officiated, assisted by Gene Robinson.

White peonies, blue bells and pink candles decorated the church. A reception followed at the C. F. Trimble home, Mrs. Glenn E. Shelton, Mrs. H. A. Plym of Mill City and Mrs. Gene Robinson, Turner, assisting and serving.

After a wedding trip to the coast the couple will be at home in Mill City.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Asher and sons, Kenny and Bobby of Grand Island were Turner visitors, attending the wedding of Mrs. Charpillot, Mrs. Asher's sister.

Mrs. Margaret Orr is the house guest at Mrs. Bertha Bowman's country home, southeast of town this week.

O. J. Hull of Eugene and Turner is spending several days a week at his home in Turner returning to Eugene on the weekend.

Guillifords Buy Residence Place In Aumsville

AUMSVILLE — Mr. and Mrs. Clair Guilliford have purchased from Theodore Highberger the house and lot where they have been living for some time.

Three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Warthen were here for the graduation recently of their sister, Violet Warthen, who finished high school this year.

Sgt. Elvis Warthen came from Boise, Idaho. Merland Warthen, a flight officer at Fairfield, Calif., and Verle Warthen of Oysterville were here.

This was the first time the brothers had been together in five years time. Violet Warthen accompanied her brother, Elvis, back to Boise where she will visit at his home there for a time.

Other guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warthen were her nephews, Dwain Bailey of Camp Adair and Melvin Bailey with the navy, from Seattle, and her sister, Mrs. Sadie Cary of Dayton.

Children's Welcome—French children, too, were ready for the invasion and were on hand to give welcome to the allied troops. These two French children in an unnamed Normandy town have just received chewing gum from this kindly American paratrooper. (International radiosoundphoto.)

Surprise Parties Held Recently At Unionvale

UNIONVALE—Ralph Stoutenburg, who has been a guest of relatives here for almost two weeks, was surprised Friday evening at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Ida Miller.

Twenty-one young people attended the party. Games were played and refreshments served. Ralph returned to Portland Sunday.

Harold Chittim was surprised with a birthday party held Monday evening at his home. Gifts were presented. Home-made ice cream was a feature of the refreshments. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Dale L. Fowler and Marcena, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Ersel Gubser and family, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Magee, Ronald Herigstad, Julius Gatiliff, Mr. and Mrs. Chittim and Miss Audrey Chittim.

Miss Jeanne Magee is employed at the state unemployment office at Salem. She is sharing an apartment at the First Evangelical parsonage at Salem with Rosemarie Lorenzen, Ardath and Jean Remme.

Woolley Speaks Monday

SILVERTON — M. D. Woolley of the Boys' Training school at Woodburn will be the guest speaker at the Monday noon luncheon of the Rotary club.

VICTORY HAS A PRICE...

To a fighting man, that price may be death. Those of us at home, who cannot match such sacrifice, money, put into War Bonds, seems a small price. We must double our efforts, and buy twice as many bonds, during the FIFTH WAR LOAN.
