PCC Powers Open 'Secret' Conclave

Postwar Planning Stressed as 60 Sit in On Meet; Concludes Today

By IRWIN HARRIS

COLUMBIA GORGE HOTEL, Hood River, June 12-(Special) The opening day meeting of the Pacific Coast Conference summer confab here Monday was a dull one for the newspapermen on hand. In fact, they might just as well not have been here for all the news they got. Things are expected to brighten up at the concluding sessions tomorrow when recommendations are made at a general meeting. Also on the agenda for Tuesday is preparation of a fall football schedule for the still operating southern division members. There was no indication that any of the dormant northern division schools would attempt to return to action this coming fall.

It was generally agreed by all present that there will be a post-war boom in college athletics and that the Coast conference should begin making plans for it.

John W. Olmsted, of UCLA and president of the conference, gave the opening address of the morning's general session in which he stressed planning for the future. Commissioner Edwin N. Atherton gave his semi-annual report and also cautioned the conference members to look to the post-war period.

In the afternoon the conference broke up into group meetings of coaches, athletic managers and the faculty representatives. Each of these groups will present its recommendations to the general session tomorrow morning for a group vote.

One of the biggest crowds in the history of conference parleys, close to 60 men, is here for the two-day affair. Coaches on hand include L. B. "Stub" Allison, California; R. W. "Nig" Borleske, Whitman; Lt. Comm. George "Potsy" Clark, St. Mary's prelight; Jeff Cravath, South California; Babe Horrell, UCLA; Jimmy Phelan, St. Mary's college; Maj. Paul Schissler, March Field; Lon Stiner, Oregon State; John Warren, Oregon; Joe Verducci, Alameda coast guard; and Ralph "Pest" Welch, University of Washington. Les Sparks is representing Willamette, Maj. C. F. McGrath is here for the Second air force of Colorado Springs, and Lt. V. Farrell is here for Shoemaker navy receiving barracks, Shoemaker, Calif.

Funland spree with three hits, including an inside-park homer and three-bagger.

Charles Patterson's two hits paced the 8-blow attack against wild Province and his relief in the Mayflower - Redwood Nurseries tilt. Ken Lucas was holding the Redwoods to three bingles meanwhile. Province, victim of spotty support, was touched for four runs in each of the first three frames.

Valley Motors broke a 3-3 deadlock in the fifth with a pair of runs, allowed Shrock's a single counter in the fifth and then salted away the tilt in the sixth with two more. But Craig emerged winning hurler, "Cowboy" Carroll the loser although allowing only four hits. Case started for the V-8s and between he and Craig doled the Shrock nine but one bingle. Craig also paced the V-8 batters with two hits, one a double.

Next Sunday's round, won-lost records in parenthesis after each team: Redwood (1-1) vs. Curly's (1-0) at 12; Shrock's (0-2) vs. Mayflower (2-0) at 2; Lions (0-2) vs. Valley Motor (1-1) at 4; Eagles (0-1) vs. Fnnland (2-0) at 6.

Ozone Travel By Pro Teams

NEW YORK, June 12.-(AP)-Fred Mandel not only thinks post-war pro football teams will travel by air; he thinks they'll travel in their own plane. The sponsor of this flighty idea is owner and president of the Detroit Lions of the National league, and until recently he also was publicity director of the club. He thought the publicity job was too much on top of his other duties, so he finally resigned.

Anyway, although it took him seven months to reach that momentous decision, he solved the travel difficulties of the league after the war in two minutes flat, fair time for the half-mile.

"The league will buy one of the army's big C-47 air transports," he predicted. "It will hire a pilot, a co-pilot, steward and two maintenance men on a full time basis and haul the clubs on all the trips. One of those big ships can fly the longest jump in the league in four hours and the way our schedule is arranged it will be no trick at all to transport five teams on round trips every weekend."

Byrd Captures Links Victory

PHILADELPHIA, June 12 - (AP) Sammy Byrd, erstwhile New York Yankee outfielder, is $6700 richer in war bonds today after winning the 72-hole Inquirer invitational tourney here Sunday with a seven-stroke lead over second place Craig Wood. Byrd shot a 274 for the 72 holes.

The next step on the play-for-pay parade is at the Wyragyl club near New York where a $13,333 war bond tourney for the Red Cross is scheduled for Thursday through Sunday of this week.

Airbase Nine Loses In Albany Contest

ALBANY—The Miller Lumbermen of the Eugene Cascade league nosed out the Portland Airbase club 7-6 here Sunday in the first semi-pro baseball game of the season. The battle went 10 innings. The Airmen tallied twice in the tenth but saw the Lumbermen come back with three counters, all scored when a single with the bases loaded bounced through the Portland leftfielder's legs. Johnson went the distance for Portland while Chet Simpson and Joe Simons divided the Miller pitching chores.
