Taylor Gains Slight Lead In Idaho Vote

BOISE, Idaho, June 14-(AP) Glen H. Taylor, former cowboy lead over incumbent D. Worth Clark tonight in a dingdong race for the democratic senatorial nomination in Idaho's pri-

With unofficial returns reportprecincts, Taylor had 9977 votes. ley, third candidate, 9046.

Taylor voices support of the legislation.

republican senatorial nomination by a margin of nearly two to one over Ben Johnson of Preston, another political newcomer.

Fairview School Election Monday

FAIRVIEW - John Ojus, chairman of the Fairview school board. has called the annual rural school board election to be held here Monday, June 19.

Professor Fears Third World War

PORTLAND, June 14. - (AP) - A third World war-unless the United States agrees to changes in the economic, social and political order-was predicted today by Dr. Ralph S. Harlow, Smith college professor, in a speech before the Oregon chapter of the national conference of Christians and

Young Organist Sells Bonds in Portland

PORTLAND, June 14-(A)-Phil Carlin, jr., 9-year-old Portland musician and radio entertainer, set up his organ in a downtown store window and with the help of Sgt. Hugh Randolph of the army induction center, sold $9500 in bonds. His goal is $1,000,000, he

Today's Menu

Gooseberry sundae will be the elegant dessert that springs from a lowly beginning. Fruit filled avocado Meat balls in tomato gravy

Cornbread sticks Gooseberry sundae

The sundae is simple enough dab of whipped cream.

The Jeep Got There-Too Late To Save Wounded Man's Life

By KENNETH L. DIXON

WITH THE AEF IN ITALY, June 1 - (Delayed) - (A) - When the two figures stepped down from the shadows into the moonlight radio entertainer, forged into a on the trail Myers ducked behind the jeep and the captain lifted his carbine.

> There had been snipers and machine gunners everywhere along the trail, which was crisscrossed by friendly and enemy > > years old but might have been

19. The jeep continued, inch by

We finally found the aid station in a clump of trees. They couldn't take him inside yet. Full up. So we lifted him off the jeep and laid the litter on the grass just outside. I sat down beside him. Guns flashed and thundered

We left to come on down the mountain. They came out to take him in the tent. I don't think it mattered. I think he died there on the grass in the dark. It was impossible to see to be sure but the sound of his hoarse, bloody breathing had stopped.

New Bridge

At The Dalles

PORTLAND, June 14.-(AP)-Oregon and Washington highway officials recommended today that site for a postwar Columbia river

In a report presented to the state highway commission, Burwell Bantz, director of Washington highways, and R. H. Baldock,

Oregon state highway engineer, declared that bridges on other proposed sites would not be justified by potential inter-state traf-could be established if made a

The two officials added, how-bridge.

patrols all the way down the mountain. We had been fired at ed from 705 of the state's 845 again and again and one machine pistol expert had nearly around, worked from shadow to scored, his tracers chasing us for shadow back to the junction, took endless yards. the other trail.

"Medic," came the urgent whisadministration while Clark often per, "we're medics." The captain has voted against it on important who'll have to go nameless for he was wounded later that night, Gov. C. A. Bottolfsen won the lowered his carbine. Myers, whose full name is Cpl. Randolph T. and who used to be a supply yard worker at Bentleyville, Pa., before the war, stepped out.

The two men with crosses on their armbands came over.

"We've got a badly wounded man down here in the ditch. Can you get him back to the battalion aid station for us?" one of them whispered, "it's only about a mile or so down the trail." "Sure," said the captain.

all through the woods, inter-"Wouldn't ask it, but he's in bad spersed with crackling small arms shape and we've got others to take care of up here." "Sure," said the captain, "that's all right. Can one of you go along to show us the way?" "Yeah, I'll go," the medic answered. "None of us knows exactly where it is now. Just moved t, but we'll find it." They lifted the blood-soaker litter with its blanket-wrapped burden up on the jeep. Blood seeped through, dripped down on the right hand front seat. The madic got in the front. The rest Recommended of us walked or trotted alongside, helping him hold it on.

They were shooting all around us. The trail got steeper and rockier. Sometimes it seemed impossible to hold the litter on the jeep or the wounded man on the litter. "Hit in the guts. He'll all town up in the middle," whispered the The man on the litter was quiet except when the jeep hit some big rock or slope. Then he made groaning, gurgling sounds. "Steady, soldiers. We'll have you there in a minute," one of us would say, holding his shoulders down over the steepest part. Once he seemed to gurgle out an "Ahhah!" Suddenly blood gushed from his mouth and nose. "Hold it, Myers! Hold it! Take it easy!" said the captain hoarsely. part of Umatilla dam. Proposals Myers' agonized answer hissed sa- to purchase present toll bridges vagely back "I'm trying! I'm try- were rejected.

ing to take it easy." We moved on through the sha- Oregon's proposed $19,000,000 a but has a very expensive flavor. dowy trees almost in a crawl. The year postwar program faces dras-Merely use fresh made goose- trail branched off. We met some tic curtailment if the present berry jam, pour it over the ice soldiers but they didn't know roads bill, providing only half as cream, and if you do not respect where the aid station was. No one many funds as originally anticiyour waistline too much, add a ever knows things like that at the pated, passes congress. front. We took the wrong trail Stating that "the comm revenues," the group urged Ore-gon's congressional delegation to increase the federal grant from an annual $500,000,000 to $1,000,000, 000, and permit the states to provide 25 per cent of matching funds instead of 50 per cent.

The federal funds would be distributed to the 48 states every year for three years.

cannot contract such an extended

The commission accepted a 160acre tract 20 miles from Hood River for use as a state park. Low bidders on Oregon highwhich led into German territory way jobs were: Again we got shot at, turned East Linn county, 8.8 mile grading and paving, Porter W.

Yett, Portland, $376,687.24. Construction of four bridges along this stretch of highway. The man on the litter coughed again, great quantities of blood Frank Watt Construction Co. soaking the litter, the jeep seat,

Portland, $59,190. my field jacket. It didn't seem Oneonta section of the Columbia River highway, 37,000-yard possible he could still live but slide removal project, Babler and the moonlight showed life in his Conley, Portland, $25,900. pale face. He seemed over 30

Coast highway between Garibaldi and Tillamook, oiling 11.5 miles, Babler and Conley, $10,-Repair of the Wilson river Street oiling in the town of Sheridan, Western Rock Co., Salem, $20,574.

Pierce and Hewitt Townsend Club's Featured Speakers

FAIRVIEW - Forty six members and guests attended the Dayton Townsend club semi-monthly meeting Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Andrews.

L. R. M. Pierce, attorney of Salem, spoke on advancement and desired effect obtained in cooperation. Roy R. Hewitt, also an at- defeated Henry Gustafson, Coos, torney of Salem, talked on post- and Minnie McFarland, Morrow, war conditions and preparing to for a place on the executive counmeet the time. Both paid tribute eil. Gustafson held the position to United States service men in last year. the invasion.

Attending from Salem besides the two speakers were Mrs. Pierce Zimmerman, Yamhill, executive and her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. M. The Dalles, Ore., be selected as F. Smalley of the Roberts district steward; Arthur Brown, Polk, south of Salem.

Dinner was served at 8:30 p.m The next meeting will be at the Mrs. J. W. Lorett home.

program with current highway State Grange Reelects Morton Tompkins as Grangemaster

GRANT PASS, June 14-(AP)-The Oregon State Grange unan mously reelected Morton Tompkins, Dayton farmer, as grangemaster today, and called upon the nation to send "a real dirt farmer" to the peace conference.

Dr. E. L. Peterson, state director of agriculture, condemned subsidies and declared that price ceilings are injuring producers

"We are spending more time and effort trying to live up to the regulations than we would use if

Criticizing federal regulations governing agriculture, he asserted that wages were frozen at a high level in war industries, in Lewis, Umatilla, Ceres; Lucy contrast to a low level in agri- Woodward, Umatilla, lady assistculture.

Peterson urged farmers avoid future regimentation writing their own blueprint for postwar plans.

Declaring that deer are starving in eastern Oregon, the grange convention appealed to the state game commission to set aside an bridge, J. F. Johnson, Newberg, annual share of license fees to finance deer feeding.

The grange went on record as opposing the sale of colored oleomargarine. Another recommendation urged that postwar funds go toward public work projects of lasting benefit.

Delegates voted to contin support of 4-H club activities.

The convention re-elected Elmer McClure, Clackamas county, overseer; re-elected Bertha J. Beck, Multnomah county, to her 26th term as secretary; and elected Mrs. G. W. Theisson, Clackamas county, to succeed Blanche Pickering as lecturer. All votes were uncontested.

Allen Wheeler, Lane county,

Other officers elected were Ray W. Gill, Multnomah, and Peter council; Roscoe Roberts, Jackson, chaplain; Glen Adams, Polk, tomy, treasurer; Arthur Hahn, Harney regulations than we would use if there were no regulations," he told the convention. gatekeeper; Pauline Ross, Mal-heur, Pomona; Bertha Hanscom, Umatilla, Flora.

A runoff election selected the following: George Murphy, Deschutes, assistant steward; Hazel ant steward.

A resolution passed late today recommended a return to government by legislation. "It is becoming more apparent each day that the present administration is conducting government by directives ad orders," the resolution

The legislative committee was asked to draft legislation for the next legislature to decrease the number of pheasants in Malheur

Amitie Club Has Tuesday Meeting At Oldenburgs'

MIDDLE GROVE-Co - hostess for the June meeting of the Amitie club were Mesdames Walter Oldenburg, Harris Ault and John McCracken at the Oldenburg home

Nineteen members answered to roll call and Mrs. Minnie Wood, Salem, Mrs. Harold Toelle and Alyce Koch were guests. The annual picnic of the members and their families will be held at the Paul Bassetts, August 13. The July meeting will be omitted.

Mrs. Walter Oldenburg is recuperating from a recent tonsilec-

Eyes Are the No. 1 Tool of Production!!

Defective eyesight, besides making workers dangerous to themselves and to others, is reducing efficiency in war cause of absenteeism-the No. 1 menace to war production. Faulty vision on the "production front" can do more towards losing the war than guns in the hands of the enemy on the "fighting front." Be Sure Your Eyes Are Not Helping The Enemy

148 N. Liberty

Tax Inspector Dies In Lakeview Hotel

Frank Downey, 58, inspector for the state tax comm was found dead in a hotel room at Lakeview Monday. He entered

The body will be taken to Pen- Aurora, this week.

dieton where he lived prior to Ernest Tatem, resides in Salem Visitor from Portland AURORA-Mrs. Bert Foster of Portland was a guest of Mrs. James Ogle and other friends in

"Health Helps Win Victory"

Treat Your Family to Nourishing Bread and Other Tasty Things You Can Bake with

FLOUR Yes, health is very essential to the war effort

- it means fertile minds and sturdy bodies. Crown Best Patent Flour is enriched for your health's sake — with important Vitamins and Minerals.

Other Dependable Crown Products

& CROWN "KITCHEN QUEEN" FLOUR & CROWN PANCAKE AND WAFFLE MIX

& CROWN PASTRY FLOUR

* SWAN PASTRY FLOUR

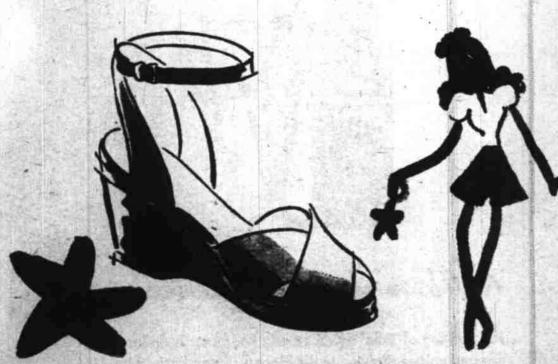

* SNOWDROP SELF-RISING FLOUR # CROWN GRAHAM FLOUR & CROWN CAKE FLOUR * CROWN CRACKED WHEAT FLOUR

ASK YOUR GROCER FOR CROWN

* CROWN WHOLE WHEAT FLOUR

tanufactured by CROWN MILLS Partiand Ope

Supplement Your Rationed Footwear With . . .

Worthy of Your Precious Ration Coupon!

NURSES' OXFORDS

Built for comfort and real support for your arches. Soft kid uppers, extra prime leather soles that are flexible. 11/4 and 11/2-inch leather heels with rubber. lift. Women's sizes from 4 to 9 in widths B to EE.

Be Sure To Bring Your Ration Book No. 3

Women's Non-Rationea Desk-To-Date Dress Shoes, Carefree Playshoes and Beach Sandals With Sears Flexible Wooden Soles or Sturdy Endura-Flex Composition Casuals . . . For romping on the beach, wearing to a picnic or playing in your own backyard. Comfortable, casual and cool . . . as necessary to your playtime as your shorts and slacks. Gay, vibrant green or beige wedgies with wooden or Endura-Flex soles.

> Easy . . . To stretch your work-play shoe wardrobe, Colorful cotton shantung uppers in assorted colors. Wedgies, instep straps and ankle straps, per bows, open toes and open heels.

DRESSY ... For anywhere-everywhere service. Sling pumps

Open Saturday Might 484 State Street till 9 P. M. Salem, Oregon

YOU MAY SHOP AT SEARS UNTIL 9:00 P. M. SATURDAY NIGHTS