Value of DDT Still Unknown

Several years of research may be necessary before experts know all the answers to the residual and toxicity questions revolving around the use of DDT, the new insecticide catapulted into use by the war emergency, J. D. Patterson, chemist at the state agricultural department here, reported today.

Patterson returned here Monday night from a meeting of the national association of insecticide and disinfectant manufacturers in Chicago.

One thing has been learned definitely, Patterson reported. It will kill flies, fleas, lice, bed bugs, cockroaches and similar pests though it requires 24 hours to kill a fly.

Officials said this is a new product and caution must prevail before there is too wide acceptance.

HOW DO SOCIETE JELLY BEANS GET THAT SHINE?

Jelly beans are given their characteristic shape when hot syrup, fed into powdered cornstarch molds, forms the sweet centers. After 2 days of hardening in a "hot room," Societe jelly beans are ready for "sugar-sanding" . . . next comes the sweet, flavorful coating. A week of hardening, then "shining up." The candies are spun round and round in huge, copper pans, in which just a touch of honey bee wax is added. They emerge—jewel-bright, yummy Societe jelly beans!

Societe jelly beans, too, march to war. If your dealer doesn't have a supply of this sugar-sweet candy—remember, they're worth waiting for!

Farrell Lauds Labor Setup In Oregon

EUGENE, June 20.—(P)—Secretary of State Robert S. Farrell predicted today that Oregon's record of peaceful labor relations will draw new industry into the state.

"Labor has already done its part in postwar planning by working to avoid the great industrial turmoil that has taken place in other parts of the country," Farrell told the Oregon State Federation of Labor at its 42nd annual convention.

More than 400 delegates heard President J. D. McDonald urge AFL members to cooperate with employers in "maintaining and improving our capitalist system."

D. E. Nickerson, executive secretary, congratulated workers on record production which he said stemmed from employer-employee cooperation.

He told the delegates that the State Federation did not contribute any funds to opponents of Sen. Rufus C. Holman, who was bitterly opposed by the union in the May primary.

Nickerson's annual report showed an increase of 20 organizations in the state AFL, including one central council and three local building trades councils.
