From the BLEACHERS

By AL LIGHTNER

Shhhh: Worry not yourself sick over the Portland Beaver slump, same can go only so far. And then (but don't tell the enemy) Manager Marv Owen will spring his own secret weapon, in this case the death-to-the-enemy-dealer personified by none other than L. H. Gregory, "sporting" editor of the Oregonian . . . Mebbe it was one of Greg's "special operatives" who told us this, and then again mebbe it wasn't.

JOHNNY PESKY

But we're given by oath to believe that L. H. "goes to the Vaughn street park a couple times a week with office lieutenant Al Stump, sticks little Al behind the dish and pitches to him for an hour at a clip!" . . . What's more, Greg has so much stuff on the ball that Alvin has to soak his hand in the epsom after every outing. His fast ball is gone, naturally, but L. H. has come up with "a good sinker" and a "dead" ball which are said to be unfathomable . . . So any day now, if the slump and Stump don't wear out, the Liskas, Helsers, Pieretis, etc., are destined for the sidelines . . . Could be that L. H. was down in the bull-pen getting ready for his debut the night of that 17-2 atrocity — we haven't yet been able to figure out how he, as official scorer, let the Oaks take the field in the now famed "two-out inning." As official scorer it was his job to at least count the outs and had only to nudge the public addressor to get busy when the overanxious Acorns took to pasture . . . But then when a ballgamer is awaiting the big moment of his comeback anything's liable to happen. And when the home boys are that far behind a snooze is pardonable, too . . . If L. H. would save just a little of that pitching energy to get reports of the Vaughn street results on the wire in time at night (always the last one sent by far), we might tell him where he could learn how to throw the awesome "slider" pitch . . .

Commissioned OSP Only One of Its Kind

About the Oregon Mounted Posse which is to host three others in the Third Annual Show sponsored by the Salem Saddle club at the Fairgrounds Saturday night and Sunday: According to Blanche Allen, doing the publicity and programming for the show, thirty-three riders are now listed on the OMP roster, all headed by Posse Captain Lee Eyerly. The posse was originated in 1940 in connection with the Centennial and now rates the handle "oldest in the Northwest." It is also the only known state commissioned posse, all members having been commissioned by the governor. When Chas. A. Sprague was top man in the state the posse was known as the Governor's Guard. All members own and keep up their own horses, too.

Add to the DiMaggios, Mizes, McCoskeys, etc., who are now showing in the Pacific theater what a major league ballgamer looks like in action the name of Verne Olson, former lefthander with the Chicago Cubs. Not because he's a southpaw or because he pitched for the Cubs, but because he hails originally from Hillsboro. Olson joins the list of Oregon-men-to-major-leagues which already boasts such luminaries as Joe Gordon (now a GI Joe), Bobby Doerr, Johnny Pesky (recently commissioned ensign in naval air forces), Floyd "Bill" Bevens (farmed by Yankees to Neward recently), Ed Coleman, Ford Mullen and Wes Schulmerich. Speaking of Wesley J., or "piano legs," now a naval lieutenant, he made sort of a comeback recently by playing with the Navy All-Stars in Honolulu as thousands of GI's and natives watched "the greatest array of major league baseball talent ever to appear on the islands."

Bet if they gave Wes a free hand with his "better'n Al Schacht" antics, the spectators forgot all about the ball game.

They Put the Whammy on Manager Marv

Speaking of the bodacious but recently bombasted Beavers, suppose you too have noticed the choice plum for Hatlo's "They'll Do It Every Time." Two weeks ago ('BC' — before crash) when the perfectly astounding Portlanders were a swashbuckling gang riding herd over the Coast pack, Manager Marv Owen was nothing short of another John McGraw in the raw at least. The Rose City writers dictionaried deeply to tell all what a marvelous job Marvin was doing. Then, and practically before the ink was dry on Manager Marv's press notices, the "Brilliant Beavers" turned to "Plummeting Portlanders." They've been slipping, and fast, ever since. Which must make Manager Marv sort of a Cinderella Marv in his own right. Either that or victim of a whammy which seems to rear its ugly self just every time the word-slingers start pumping out the copy on an overnight sports hero.

But Dutch Reuther or not (he's the gent who forecast the Bevo dive long before it started), our two-bits worth still says Owen and his flustered flock are a better ball club than that. Those proven hitters aren't going to stay in that blanket slump forever, and the injuries which have beridden no less than five would-be regulars can't hang on all summer (we hope). Get 'em back into A-1 shape, and the Portlanders still have the most experienced nine in the league as well as one of the best balanced.

(To those who have doubted our ability to comb our hair Tuesday morn — yes, we did it. Wifey held the arm up and the rest was easy.)

Numerous Events Scheduled for Weekend Social-Sports Outing

Four Posses to Appear in Third Annual Saddle Club Show

With no less than four mounted posses and the Territorial Riders of Oregon City to appear, the third annual Salem Saddle club sponsored horse show at the Fairgrounds stadium Saturday and Sunday looms as one of the most lively to be held in the northwest in recent years. The Oregon Mounted Posse, captained by Lee U. Eyerly, will host the Yamhill county Sheriff's Posse of McMinnville, the Lane county posse and the Clackamas county posse. The hosts will present their show exhibition along with the McMinnville riders Saturday night at 8 o'clock. The Lane and Clackamas horsemen will exhibit drills Sunday at 2 p. m. Members of all posses will also participate in other riding events, such as bareback relay and posse relay on a competitive scale in the two-day social-sports affair.

Listed on the program card and probably to be the most hotly contested event in the outing is the "Parade Horse" event for the Abner K. Kline trophy. Only posse men are entered. Appointments of rider are to count 35%, appointments of horse 35% and style of horse 30%. Eyerly and "Honey Boy" are defending champions in the event and will be favored to repeat. Another posse event is the "Western Stock Horse," to be judged on the animal's ability to walk, trot, gallop, stop, turn and slide. The "Pleasure Horse Class" event is still another topnotcher. For Salem Saddle club members only, the Mr. and Mrs. Lee U. Eyerly perpetual trophy is to go to the winner. Nate Hubbs is defending champion. Horses are judged for adaptability to drill or trail and are generally an "all around" combination of both inside and outside animal. Also highlighting the meeting will be the exhibitions both Saturday night and Sunday by Arlene Kuehne, 12-year-old of Carleton, Ore., the youngest Roman rider in the United States.

Of interest also is the Sunday morning show classes. Stallions, yearling colts, futurities and brood mares are to be judged, the first three on conformation only, the mares on suitability more than looks. Thirty-three members of the Oregon Mounted Posse are scheduled to perform. They are: Lee Eyerly, captain, George Arbuckle, Floyd E. Bates, A. C. Burk, Grant W. Day, Forrest V. Edwards, Dr. Fred Ellis, Asel C. Eoff, Grant Farris, Ray Garlick, Maurice Heater, Nate C. Hubb, George Potts, jr., Fred Scharf, Graham Sharkey, Roy H. Simmons, Van Welder, Walter Zosel, Fred Anunsen, Art W. Smither, Roy A. Shannon, Vic B. Kelley, Robert B. Sears, Rex Hartley, Jack R. Vest, Ray Adams, Paul Riley, Melvin M. Trindle, Capt. Douglas McKay, Eugene D. MacCarthy, Holly Jackson, W. A. Heater and Elmer Laweren.

MOUNTED POSSE

The Oregon Mounted Posse, oldest of its kind in the northwest and captained by Lee U. Eyerly, (far left), will exhibit and compete in the third annual Salem Saddle Club Horse Show Saturday and Sunday in the horse show stadium at the fairgrounds. The OMP will give a drill exhibition with the Yamhill County Sheriff's Posse Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

Salem Juniors Lose 15-5 in 2nd Outing

Salem's Junior Legion baseballers dropped a 15-5 encounter to an ex-professional player stocked Trailblazer Cannoneer nine from Camp Adair in their second outing of the season yesterday in Geo. E. Waters park.

The locals showed a definite improvement in the hitting department, garnering seven safeties off a trio of Artillery moundsmen. Ev Staats led the Juniors with a triple and single in three official trips to the plate. Bill Day not a regular moundsman, started as pitcher for the Legionnaires, but was relieved by Coach Al Lightner in the fourth. Regular pitchers were not used so as to give them a rest before the contest with the Albany Legion outfit in Albany Thursday, and the first county playoff engagement with Woodburn in Geo. E. Waters Park at 10 a.m. Sunday.

Wagner Wins Battle Royal

Gorgeous Georgie Wagner, the mat heel they all want to see thumped, last night turned the tables and won the as usual thrilling battle royal at the armory. Meaner'n ever and twice as nasty, Georgie beat Herb "Pinky" Parks in the final and won himself the $200 in war stamps put up by matchmaker Don Owen. Coast Champion Paavo Katonen viewed proceedings from a gallery seat, as according to plans Wagner is now to meet the curly headed Finn.

The royal started out slowly but gained momentum after Tex Hager left in 3:30. Tough Billy McEuin was next in 5:50 and joined Hager in the also-ran department. Then black-hooded Mr. "X", making his debut, was eliminated in 6:10, leaving Jack Lipscomb, Wagner and Parks. The latter two took care of Lipscomb. The Indiana meanie came back to grapple with "X" in the semi final and finally punched out the only fall for the win.

The Wagner-Parks mix was a wild melee for the 30 minutes it lasted, Georgie gaining the only fall after squeezing an "uncle" out of Parks in 21 minutes. Parks was well on the way to evening things when the time bell rang. Around 900 fans were in the seats to witness the lively show.

Favorites OK In Gals' Golf

CHICAGO, June 20.—(AP)—Several upsets marked today's first round of championship match play in the women's western open golf tournament, but the two favorites—Dorothy Germain of Philadelphia and "Babe" Didrikksen Zaharias of Beverly Hills, Calif., cruised in with easy victories heading for their expected showdown for the title. "Babe" Zaharias, the medalist, eliminated Margaret Russell of Detroit, 4 and 3, after holding a 5-up advantage with a one-over-par 39 on the front nine. Miss Germain won seven holes on the first nine, posting a 40 to a 47 for her opponent, Mrs. Thomas Nolan of New Castle, Pa., and then took the 10th and 11th with pars for a 9 and 7 decision—most lopsided victory of the day.

AAU May Fine Star Sprinter

NEW YORK, June 20—(AP)—Claude "Buddy" Young's triumph in the 100-meter dash at the national AAU championship may be declared illegal because of the five false starts and the two gunrecalls that preceded the Illinois freshman's victory. Dan Ferris, secretary-treasurer of the AAU, told reporters today that "I expect Young's victory will be questioned at the annual meeting this winter."

"The rule book specifically says the starter is in absolute control of the start. I have no doubt that Young's victory—or the entire race for that matter will be questioned—and if it is decided that Sunday's contest was no race we will have to ask return of the medals and have Young's name stricken from the books," Ferris added. Similar action was taken following the 1912 Olympic games at Stockholm when it developed that Jim Thorpe, Indian star of the United States team, was a professional.

PORTLAND, June 20—(AP)—The Portland Beavers broke an eight-game losing streak tonight with an 8 to 3 victory over the Los Angeles Angels, with the help of seven Los Angeles errors and a home run by Johnny Gill. The Pacific Coast league split series, which ends with an afternoon game tomorrow, now stands at one win each.

Dick Conger was the victim of the Angelino miscues but was touched for 10 hits by the Portlanders. Don Pulford gave eight blows for the Beavers. The long-awaited win elevated the Portland club into a tie for third place in the league race with the Hollwood Stars, who lost tonight to San Diego. # Rome Site GI Track Classic

ROME, July 20—(AP)—Amidst the marble magnificence of the unfinished Mussolini stadium which the fascists built for 1944's now forgotten Olympic games and where the Germans were billeted a scant fortnight ago allied fighting men competed today in the Fifth army track and field meet.

Despite the lack of any formal training, plus the absence of regulation track shoes the men who chased the Germans up through Italy showed considerable speed by turning in the 100-yard dash in less than 10 seconds and by topping the 220-yard low hurdles in 26.14 seconds. Today's victors will get detached service to prepare to represent the Fifth army in the Mediterranean war theatre track and field meet to be held here shortly.

AAU Relays Held

PASSAIC, NJ, June 20—(AP)—Two teams defending titles won last year were beaten, and a third defending champion retained its title, in the National AAU championship relay races tonight. The New York Athletic club quartet of Ed Michalski, Wes Wallace, Jim Rafferty and Bill Hulse retained the 2900-meter crown by beating the Pioneer club of New York and the Shanahan Catholic club of Philadelphia in 7:16.2.

Ott Looses Wrath

BROOKLYN, June 20.—(AP)—Mel Ott, manager of the New York Giants, said today that Pitcher Ewald Pyle had been fined and suspended indefinitely for breaking training rules. Ott declared the pitcher became involved in an argument with a stranger and suffered a chipped bone in his hand in the fist-swinging debate.
