

Dessert Is Planned for Friday

Mrs. Miller Hayden will be honor guest at a dessert supper on Friday night, when Mrs. E. E. Bergman and Mrs. Carl Anthony entertain in the garden of the Bergman home.

Mrs. Hayden is district deputy of the White Shrine of Jerusalem. Guests will be past worthy high priestesses and watchmen of the shepherds of Wilamette shrine, White Shrine of Jerusalem and also the present officers.

The dessert supper is set for 7 o'clock.

Former Student Is Married

Miss Anne Morris and Mr. Gordon Raphael Leonard were married at an afternoon ceremony July 13 in the garden of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harry O. Smith of Cave Junction.

The Rev. E. J. Aschenbrenner, pastor of the Grants Pass Methodist church, officiated.

The bride wore a white organza dress with a short train and full skirt, with a finger-tip veil falling from a tiny flowered cap. She carried a pink and white shower bouquet of roses and bouvardia.

Miss Margaret Morris of Bend was her sister's only attendant. Her dress was rose colored embossed organdie, and she carried a nosegay of pink and white sweetpeas.

Mrs. M. A. Porter of Roseburg, sister of the bride, played the wedding marches and sang "O Perfect Love," accompanied by Miss Alice Smith, preceding the ceremony.

Mr. John Williams of Cave Junction was the best man.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. C. G. Morris of Cave Junction. She was graduated from Willamette university, where she was affiliated with Alpha Phi Alpha sorority. For the past two years she has taught in the Harrisburg high school.

Mr. Leonard is the son of Mrs. R. S. Leonard of Cave Junction. A small reception followed the ceremony.

Birthday Party At Eyerly's

Marilyn Eyerly, 11 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Eyerly, was hostess at a birthday party at the family home, 2741 North River road. A winner roast was held during the afternoon.

Guests included Mary Sundef, Mary Nopp, Patsy Filler, Louise Ricks, Betty Beebe, Edith Doff, Darlene Ivie, Vivian Chance, Sandra Eyerly and Grant Edwards.

Carol Jean Farrington, who was six years old the same day, came in later with her parents for supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Fehler have received word of the transfer of their son-in-law, Staff Sgt. Amdeed Smith of the ski troopers from Camp Hale, Colo., to Camp Swift, Texas. Mrs. Smith, the former Audrey Fehler, and their daughter, Sidney Ann will live in Austin.

Don't Look Now..

but... the only way a society editor can really get the news is to go out to the cherry orchard and stand under a tree and listen to the town workers gossip, or hide behind a berry vine while members of Salem's upper 400 pluck off the plump berries with just as much skill as any other harvest time worker.

They can say what they want... about us out here, but we aren't afraid to get into the fields and dig in, fingernails and all, to save a crop and make a few extra dollars.

Something New... just to show you that it's never too late to learn, take the case of Mrs. Georgia Hoss of Tillamook, who was the only one of the district underwriters for New York Mutual Life to qualify for the national field club. The only woman in the agency, and over 70 years of age, she started selling insurance after her husband's death only a few years ago.

There's pothos and romances... in the classified ads. "Will trade good wicker doll buggy for coaster wagon." Did the doctor bring a husky little coaster wagon driver instead of the dainty little girl the couple wanted, or does Johnnie profit when big sister outgrows her interest in dolls? One of our office women waited on a gentleman of the counter recently. He looked her in the eye, "Wanted, wife by middle aged man" he said solemnly. Only a faint flicker in her eye may have revealed her surprise, but immediately she filled out the proper form and charged him a quarter for his classified ad.

A chameleon can't hold a candle... to the way the store building at Court and Commercial changes color. Now you see a USO, elaborately arranged, now you don't. It's a selective service office. Fearful and wonderful, this war.

Was Point... we never see Black Republican cherries without recalling the time that some of us young make-believers, dressed like Indians and used black cherry juice to paint our faces for a more realistic game of Indian and cowboy. It went on easily—but oh my when we tried to get it off!

Commande stall... we didn't call it that in those days, but it was just the same. We were crack shots, could draw a gun as fast as the next one, and usually carried at least one pistol. But we all grew up to be respectable citizens and can't find the name of a single one of the gang on the jail roster. ... Maxine Buren

Mail specialist, third class is LaReva Isham, pictured above, who joined the WAVES and started training at Hunter college, New York, on November 18. Following basic training she was sent to Sampson, NY, to mail school, where she became a petty officer, third class. On March 1, she took over duties as mail clerk in San Francisco and is still at that assignment. She arrived home on July 13 to visit her mother, Mrs. Tillie Isham, 725 Thompson avenue. Before entering the WAVES, Miss Isham was employed at the secretary of state's office. Her brother, LeRoy, is in the marine air corps.

Ensign and Mrs. Everett M. Smith, married in Wildwood, NJ, June 10. Mrs. Smith is the former Martha Franks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Frantz, and the groom is the son of Mrs. F. Edith Smith. Both are graduates of Salem schools.

Ice Show Hailed As Greatest Ever

Hailed as one of the best of all ice shows, the fifth annual edition of the Ice-Capades will make its bow at the Portland ice arena starting July 27.

Each year, Ice-Capades has unfolded a new brilliance, that has jumped its national attendance from 500,000 who saw the first—1941—edition, to a record of over 2,500,000 who witnessed the 1944 production.

According to advance reports, unusual emphasis has been placed on costuming and production, this year representing $3,000,000 in costuming, rehearsals and other preparations.

There are seven major production numbers, topped by "Fiesta" one of the most lavish and expensive numbers. It features most of the cast of 152 and is a tribute to our South American neighbors. Other major spectacles include "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers," "At the Ice-Door Canteen," "Dresden Holiday," "Them Were the Days," "These Are the Days," and the finale, "The Royal Canadian Northwest Nouties."

Besides the major numbers, there are other production specialties, including "Poetry in Motion," "Dance of the Scarfs," and "Cover Girls."
