'Southerners' Win, 7-1 Over Suds-Beavers

Seals-Stars Take Victory at Seattle

SEATTLE, Wash., July 17 -(A)-In the first contest of its kind ever played in the Pacific Northwest, the San Francisco Seals and Hollywood Stars joined together to hand a nine composed of players representing Seattle and Portland Pacific Coast league clubs a 7-1 setback here tonight.

The 'Southerners,' who had previously pushed across a pair of runs in the third frame, jumped on Portland Beaver Twirler Joe Sullivan for four more counters in the fourth frame and a single tally in Seattle-Portland's lone counter came in the bottom half of the eighth canto when Seal Chucker Willie Flowers was taking his turn on the mound. Neither team committed an error in the fracas, played as a War benefit contest.

Most of the plaudits of the estimated 10,000, went to Ty Cobb, the veteran former major league star who gave a pre-game batting exhibition and a demonstration of his speed in beraking for first. Proceeds from the game for the serequipment fund.

The regular Coast league chase will be resumed tomorrow, when Hollywood goes to Portland for a seven-game series and San Francisco mix it up in the Washington city in another seven-game meet. San-Hol 002 419 000--7 9 0

DURHAM, NC, July 17-(AP)-W. G. Bramham, president of the na-tional association of professional baseball league, predicted today a postwar boom in minor league

He declared many inquiries, from all sections of the country, had been received concerning club franchises, indicating that "fans are itching for a revival of the game in communities where it was forced to suspend for the

Ol' Sol Didn't Set Only New City Mark

Perhaps the year's recordbreaking 93-degree temperature was the reason for it, but whatever the cause, Ol' Man Weather wasn't the only one around Salem to establish a new 1944 city mark yesterday, as 3527 village customers visited the two public swimming pools to push the old figure of 2592, set jut last Friday, off to the wayside. Olinger reported 1972 splashers taking to the water at the north-end splash pavilion, while Leslie turned in a total ount of 1555 for the day.
