

Lunching at the Marion...

A WAVE and a Marine lunching with Mrs. Leif Bergsvik... her daughter, Marjorie, who is stationed in Seattle with the WAVES and Sergeant Madeline Morgan, who is home on leave from the Mojave desert in California. The girls, who were college friends while attending Willamette university, arranged to have their leaves at the same time. Mrs. Bergsvik was wearing a luggage tan and white sheer print with luggage straw hat.

A threesome having lunch were Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, jr., and her house guest, Mrs. Claudine Foster of Seattle, and Mrs. Taylor Hawkins... The visitor, who formerly made her home in Salem, wore a navy and white silk dress with red jacket and white straw hat... Mrs. Fry was smartly dressed in navy blue silk with white collars and cuffs and a large navy blue picture hat... Mrs. Hawkins wore a beige and black print with pert beige felt hat. Mrs. Foster's daughter, Patricia Edgerton, who attended Salem high school, is now continuing her studies at the University of Washington.

Mrs. Brazier Small joined a group of working women for luncheon at one of the tables by the window... In the group were Mrs. Kenneth Bell, who expects her daughter, Mrs. Robert Barnett (Barbara Bell) home the first of August, Mrs. John Beakey, Mrs. H. G. Maison and Mrs. Karl Becke... Mrs. Beakey tells us her husband participated in the invasion and is in France.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Neyerlin of Niagara Falls, New York. The couple will make their home in Portland. (photo by E. P. Black)

Lt. and Mrs. Lewis Byron Melson (Katherine Melton) who were married at the First Methodist church in Thomson, Georgia in June. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Melson of Salem and Mrs. Melson went south for the rites. The bride, an ensign in the WAVES, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Melton of Thomson. Lt. and Mrs. Melson are residing in Charleston, South Carolina where they are stationed.

Garden Wedding Planned

Miss Marjorie Hill and Corporal Hugh William McElhinny have announced members of their bridal party. The wedding of the young couple will take place Tuesday night in the garden at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. McElhinny.

The 7 o'clock ceremony will be read by Rev. David Nielsen of the First Congregational church. Mrs. Hugh Whipple of Roseburg, aunt of the bridegroom, will sing and Mrs. Gordon Stewart, his cousin from Roseburg, will play the organ. The organ which will be used at the wedding, was played by Mrs. McElhinny when a girl and has been in her possession ever since.

The bride-to-be, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hill, sr., will be given in marriage by her father. She has asked Janice Nelson to be her maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Miss Lots Hill, the bride-elect's sister, and Miss Mary Barnett of Portland, Miss Hill's Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority sister.

Mr. Warren Doolittle, seaman first class, United States coast guard, will stand with Corporal McElhinny as best man.

A reception in the garden will follow the ceremony.

They'll Play for Homefolk...

Something new in musical affairs for Salem is scheduled when in mid-August a little symphony concert is to be presented by Salem musicians, several of whom are on the threshold of professional careers in the musical world. The concert will be at Waller hall.

Summer visitors at their Salem homes, after being enrolled in schools of music throughout the country, these young musicians are interested in giving something of their talent for the enjoyment of music lovers of their home community.

Joining with a group of local musicians, the little symphony idea was born, and the summer concert planned.

Most of the group were at one time members of the Salem Philharmonic orchestra, and this organization, inactive during the war, is sponsoring the summer concert, the initial musical entertainment of the kind in Salem. Thirty-two local and visiting musicians will participate in the concert, with Louis Pankaske, head of the instrumental department of the Willamette university music school occupying the podium.

Featured artist will be lovely Marjorie Broer, talented flutist, who will present a flute concerto with the orchestra. The entire program will consist of special little symphony arrangements, with string, woodwind and brass sections. Miss Broer has been studying in the east for several years and with her sister, Kathleen, is this summer vacationing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Broer.

Miss Betty Provost above had exciting news to tell her friends this week when she announced that she is leaving Tuesday for Chicago to be married to Ensign George Carl Hanauska. The wedding will take place shortly after the arrival of Miss Provost in Chicago. The bride-elect is going east on the Streamliner. She will be registered at the Palmer House.

Miss Provost has made her home in Salem with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. M. Stephenson. Her mother is Mrs. Mary C. Provost, Portland. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hanauska of Woodburn.

Miss Provost will be a senior at Willamette university in the fall. She is president of her sorority, Alpha Chi Omega. Ensign Hanauska is a graduate of Willamette and entered the navy V-12 program. He attended midshipman school at Plattsburg, New York where he received his commission in June. He was home on leave several weeks ago. Ensign Hanauska first was sent for duty to Norfolk, Va., and now is in Chicago. While at Willamette Ensign Hanauska was a prominent baseball player.

A Surprise Shower

Miss Maxine Wagner and Miss Shirley Blackman were hostesses for a surprise shower Friday night at the former's home on North 20th street in honor of Miss Provost. The party was given in the garden with a group of Miss Provost's Alpha Chi Omega sorority sisters bidden. A miscellaneous shower complimented the bride-elect. Refreshments were served after an informal evening.

Honoring Miss Provost were Miss Freda Bucureneh, Miss Gladys Crawford, Miss Phyllis Gueffroy, Miss Glenerva Harnsberger, Miss Mary Bennett, Miss Wilma Froman, Miss Virginia Barber, Miss Laura Jean Bates, Miss Patricia Carter, Miss Thyra Jean Currey, Miss Dorothy Hoar, Miss Irma Huber, Miss Dorothy Kenney, Miss Delvon Long, Miss Marianne Low, Miss Laurie Randall, Miss Jean Barham, Miss Peggy Wienert, Miss June Nickel, Miss Virginia Pope, Miss Olive Torbett, Miss Roberta Jean Yocom, Miss Pat Mansfield, Miss Phyllis Nelson, Miss Ruth Reinwald, Miss Mickey Thurston, Miss Shirley Blackman and Miss Maxine Wagner.

Mrs. Hayden Is Honored...

Mrs. Miller Hayden, district deputy of White Shrine of Jerusalem, was the honor guest at a lovely garden party Friday night when Mrs. E. E. Bergman and Mrs. Carl Anthony entertained at the former's home on Chemeketa street.

Past high priestesses and present officers of the Willamette White Shrine were bidden to the affair. Over seventy-five guests attended the dessert supper party.

The serving table was centered with a bouquet of pastel summer flowers. At one end was the tiered cake decorated in the Shrine colors, yellow and white; Mrs. Samuel B. Gillette presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Albert C. Smith was at the punch bowl. Miss Grace Babcock cut the cake and Mrs. Maude Space served the ices. Serving were Mrs. Howard Bergman, Miss Marian Bretz and Miss Ruth Moore.

Tables were arranged in the garden and along the creek. Rose hollyhock blossoms floating in crystal bowls centered the tables which were covered with pastel cloths.

Bidden to the party were Mr. and Mrs. Miller B. Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Henry, Mr. and Mrs. William Niemeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ratcliff, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Gillette, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Paris, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Millard, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Grub, Jr. and Mrs. Wilbur N.
