

Boy's Foot Caught in Flax Puller

AUMSVILLE — Tommy Skoglund was seriously injured Saturday while working with a flax puller on the Art Page place near Jefferson.

His foot caught in the machine, but a new heavy shoe with metal reinforcement saved the foot but the upper part of his leg was badly torn. He was taken to the Salem Deaconess hospital for treatment. Fifteen stitches were necessary to close the wound. He is now at the home of his aunt, Mrs. O. L. Brubaker. Mrs. C. M. Lederer, his grandmother, is also here with him. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Skoglund live at Wasau, Nebraska.

Tommy is a junior in the high school there and came to Oregon to spend the summer helping with seasonal work. Although he is recovering satisfactorily, he will be unable to resume work this summer, but will probably be sufficiently recovered to take up his school work this fall.

Chases Kitten, Fractures Arm

JEFFERSON — Raymond, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Terhune, met with a painful accident Saturday, breaking both bones of his left arm below the elbow. He was trying to catch a kitten. The rug slipped and he fell, causing the injury.

Last winter Raymond fell from a hassock at their home and his arm was broken in the same place. He was taken to the Salem Deaconess hospital to have it set. Mary Ricks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ricks, underwent a minor operation at the Salem Deaconess hospital last week and is convalescing.

Hayesville Woman Returns From Visit

HAYESVILLE — Mrs. Bob Peterson returned Thursday from an extended visit at Camp Forrest where her husband is stationed. On the way home she visited relatives in Ipswich, SD.

KP Picnic Is Planned

SILVERTON — Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters will hold a picnic at the garden fire-place on the L. C. Eastman lawn Thursday night, according to announcement made at the Tuesday meeting of Pythian Sisters.

Emma Kaufman, past chief, presided for Irene Roubal, most excellent chief, who is still at the Silvertown hospital, and Josie Hartman served for Ellen Night, mistress of records and correspondent, who is still not well. Mrs. Night resigned and Mrs. Hartman was unanimously elected to take her place.

Ardis Gifford Johnson was initiated and her mother, Myrtle Gifford, was reinstated. Announcement was made that at the next meeting Maxine Hope will be initiated and her mother, Mrs. Marie Hope, reinstated. Committee appointed to serve refreshments at that meeting is Olive Morley, Essie Specht, Elizabeth Nicol and Ardith Furrue. The altruistic club will meet August 4 at the home of Emma Kaufman. The charter was draped and a memorial service held for Minnie Moser, past chief of home temple. Mrs. Moser died early in July.

Curley Tail Pig Club Has Meeting

MIDDLE GROVE — The "Curley Tail" Pig club met at the home of Robert Beutler Monday. A business meeting, games and refreshments were features of the meeting.

Present were Mrs. Emory Goode, leader; Elvin and Wayne Goode, Donald Bassett, Delwyn Kleen, Marvin Cage and Robert Beutler. Visitors present were Mrs. Paul Bassett, Yvonne Goode, Barbara and Donald Scott, Lloyd and Eldon Beutler and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beutler.

Working Children's Picnic To Replace Flax Festival

MT. ANGEL — Lee Withers, chairman of the Flax Festival committee, suggested to the Business Men's club at the regular luncheon at the Mt. Angel Hotel Tuesday noon that the club, which in peacetime sponsored the widely advertised flax festival, and will return to duty at San Diego. Ralph Oswald reported that Val Eberle was in the Silvertown hospital recovering from an operation and would be there for some weeks.

J. T. Bauman announced that the club now had a unanimous membership of all business houses in town. The question of garbage disposal was brought up by Leonard Fisher, president, saying that Joe Frank, who had taken care of the matter was finding it a profitless business under the present setup of hauling it to a dump 13 miles distant. Ralph Oswald, Herman Schwab and Mrs. T. Lacy were appointed to meet with Frank and work out some feasible plan.

The telephoning of members of the club to remind them of meetings was delegated to the executive committee, Leonard Fisher, Frank Hettwer and Miss Florence Hassing.

Rev. Willis Plans To Move to Salem

AUMSVILLE — Rev. J. M. Willis, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church, is completing his third year here and is holding final board meetings to complete the business of the church for this conference year. It will convene in Portland early in August. Reverend Willis does not plan to remain here, and contemplates moving to Salem where he and Mrs. Willis and her sister will reside. The church here plans to have as their pastor Rev. Peabody of Portland.

Michael Gerald Dardis, RQM 3/c, USNR, home on a 30-day delayed orders from the South Pacific, was a guest of honor at the luncheon. Asked to speak, he expressed his thanks for all the club has done for the boys and said merely that Oregon was so much better than Hawaii and all points from there. He has been in the navy since November, 1942.

Canadians Entertained

NORTH DALLAS — Dinner guests at the Rev. H. H. Dick home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Rempel of Polk Station; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dueck and family, and Susie and Margaret Dueck of Morris, Manitoba, Canada. The last named are here for a visit till the fall months. They are sisters of Ben Dueck.

John N. Ediger and son, Robert, are spending several days here on their farm. They are vacationing from the Willamette Iron and Steel Co. shipbuilding firm of Portland.

John Friesen is building a new barn. Peter K. Fast and son, Daniel, are the carpenters.

Going along the highway into North Dallas is a pleasing sight which meets the flower lover's eye. The gladioli, dahlias, neat lawns, other late summer flowers are at their best. The gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Teichrow on the south side of the road.

Birthday Party Given Sunday

JEFFERSON — Miss Addie Libby was honor guest at a dinner party at her home on Main street on the occasion of her birthday, Sunday, July 23. Relatives brought well-filled baskets and a picnic dinner was served. Miss Libby received many gifts.

Present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Harley Libby and grandson, Stevie Libby, Mrs. Blanche Libby and grandchildren, Beverly and Sharon Libby, Mrs. Grace Libby Thurston, W. L. Jones, J. T. Jones, all of Jefferson; Miss Edith Libby, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Prime, Mr. and Mrs. Norval H. Jones, of Salem; and Mrs. William Laverick of Hollywood, Calif., sister of Mrs. Harley Libby.

Brandt Beans Ready Early

POLK STATION — The Taylor Dunn cherry pickers are finishing the Montmorency crop. Helena, Rempel, who picks there, is scheduled to go into the bean harvest later this week. The Peter Brandt beans are ready earlier this year than ever before. The field promises a good crop. The foliage is more scant than previously too.

The Jake Thiessen family had a picnic at the Dallas park Sunday, as also did the Jake Hiebert family.

Mrs. Ross Simpson took a party of youngsters to the swimming pool at Dallas one day last week. Participating were Ernest and Joyce Ediger, Anna Mae Neufeldt, Larry and Jerry Paul Simpson.

Fred Reiber, sr., has a small fauna which they are raising by bottle and tender care. It stays with the cattle and has the run of the place. Very tame and friendly, it likes to follow members of the family around as they do their work.

Women's Mission Group Has Meeting

MIDDLE GROVE — The Women's Mission group met Tuesday with Mrs. Lee Dou with 10 members present. Christian citizenship was the emphasis stressed.

The August meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Varl Snyder, which will stress the use of Christian literature.
