

Turkey Crop In Jefferson Is Increased

MARION — Several thousand more turkeys are being grown in this district than in any previous year. Among the growers added are Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Edwards with 1200. The Edwards have purchased a part of the Gus Hageman farm and have built a new brooder house.

Robert Harris with a flock of 2000 is on the Charles Sarver farm. Ralph Hollis and Felix Wright have a flock of 3500 turkeys and have rented the brooder house on the Hal Russell place. Stanley Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Russell, who formerly operated the Russell turkey ranch, is now in the service.

Smith has several thousand of different ages. Practically all their work is done by Mr. and Mrs. Smith. They purchased the J. S. Calavan acreage located in the edge of Marion early in the year. Charles Bell with a flock of 1500 is among the new but successful growers. He is operating on the Mrs. Margaret Davidson farm.

George Wilt and Calavan have several thousand in partnership. The Wilt has purchased what is known as the Olson property. They erected a new modern brooder house.

Jim Wilson, the pioneer turkey grower, has his usual number, 4500.
