Diana Sanford Returns Home

Patient Reacts to Penicillin When Ill in Hospital

DALLAS, Aug. 4.—Ruth Ann Nelson arrived Wednesday from a vacation week spent at the West Wind camp of Girl Reserves, near Otis. Eighty older girls took part in the activities of the camp during the week.

Mrs. Roy Ferguson has purchased a home at 708 Washington street, from Tony Neufeldt. The Neufeldts have moved to 812 Clay street.

Philip Theiss has disposed of his home on the Ellendale road, and moved his family into a home on Academy street where the Jake Neufeldts have been living. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Neufeldt moved to the state hospital farm, near Salem, where Neufeldt will be farm manager. Jake Neufeldt only recently returned to Dallas from Rosenberg, Tex., where they have been living for 15 years.

Diane Sanford, who has been in the hospital here and in the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland since June 9, suffering from a rare type of pneumonia, is home now. Penicillin was used in her treatment and brought a marked improvement, and is now able to be up part of each day but will have to return to Portland for further treatment.

Mrs. Fred Bradley, better known to Dallas residents as Mary Martin, teacher of music in the Dallas high school, was in town this week visiting Mrs. Harold Holmes. Bradley is in the service overseas now, and Mrs. Bradley plans to live with her parents in Corvallis until his return.

Ninth Donation of Blood Given

DALLAS, Aug. 4.—Polk county donors to the blood bank gave 139 pints of blood at the regular visit of the mobile unit last week. For Elsie Guard, route 2, Dallas, it was the ninth pint of blood given.

Virginia Petersen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Petersen, has given seven pints. Pauline Hughes, George Pierce, Leah Bean, Llewellyn Rowell and William Blackley have each given six pints. Thirteen others are listed as having given five pints, and 22 now have made the half-gallon mark.

Golden Wedding Is Celebrated

Their two children, Mrs. Alvina Pugh of Canby and Leo Kell of Aurora, two sisters of Mrs. Kell, Mrs. Glen Carothers, Hubbard; Mrs. Earl Grim, Aurora; a brother, Edwin Schmidt of Newberg; seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren, with the exception of one grandson, Raymond Keil, who is stationed at Camp Joseph, Ark., were present.

Hunts Sell Aurora Place To Party Brothers

AURORA—Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hunt have sold their farm to Party Bros. The Hunts are undecided where they will buy.

G. A. Gabelman To Be Speaker

Calvary Baptist church will have as its guest speaker, Rev. C. A. Gabelman, pastor of the First Baptist church of Phoenixville, Penn. Mr. Gabelman, has been vacationing in the middle west and southern California and the church feels fortunate to be able to secure him for this Sunday. During his stay of approximately five years in his church in Pennsylvania, many members have been added to the church and the church's giving has tripled. Mr. Gabelman is at present a student in the graduate department in the Eastern Baptist Theological in Philadelphia and has completed all his work except his thesis toward the doctorate in theology.

The young people of the church have planned a program for the youth fellowship meeting at 6:30 p.m. Sunday, in the form of an "echo meeting" with those who recently attended the youth camp at Arrah Wanna taking part. The church membership has been asked to attend so they may better see the results of the investment the Sunday school has made in the young people.

Dr. Hugh Dowd will show moving pictures of camp life and the climax of the meeting will be a baptismal service.

Lainy Calvary young people will be hosts to the young people of the First Baptist at the monthly suppers. Refreshments will follow the singing.

Her childhood was spent in Detroit, Mich., and she was married to Frederick Green in 1880. They moved to Nebraska and later to central Oregon, where they were early day homesteaders. Mr. Green died in 1901. Mr. and Mrs. Green had six children. Surviving children are, Fred R. Green of Madras, Mrs. Mary Cook of Dallas and Mrs. Anna Cook of Independence. Mrs. Robbins also leaves eight grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

In 1903 Mrs. Green married John R. Robbins and moved with him to the Willamette valley, where he died. Mrs. Robbins has been an active member of the Christian church for many years.

For several weeks the "question and answer" type of evening service has been attracting much interest at First Baptist church. Dr. Fox is continuing the popular series Sunday night by answering the following questions sent in by members of the congregation: "Is Christianity a Religion"; "Why Did Noah Get Drunk"; "What is the Meaning of Giving That Which is Holy Unto the Dogs, and Casting Your Pearls Before Swine"; "Can a Person Be a Consistent Christian and Attend the Movies?" Miss Kathleen Broer will play a violin solo during the evening service.

The sermon, "Paul Before Felix," continues the study of the Book of Acts, which has been a feature of the morning worship service for months. The challenge of the first century church is a great one, and is proving to be an inspiration to the membership of the church.

The Wednesday night prayer meetings are growing in numbers. The church is thanking God for His answers to the prayers of the people for guidance and blessing. Next Wednesday night Paul Reynolds will give a brief talk on the missionary outlook for the year.

Dallas Pastor Resigns Post

DALLAS, Aug. 4.—Rev. Ralph Waggoner, pastor of the Dallas Presbyterian church, has resigned his pastorate here to accept a call to the Nelscott church. The new position will have the additional responsibility of director of an inter-denominational conference grounds there; where considerable development is planned as soon as building materials are made available again.

The ten-acre tract has been given to the Presbyterian church only a short distance inland from the ocean, near Nelscott, by C. P. Nelson of that city. There is a dormitory on the church property there, which is open to young people of all denominations for a small fee. Rev. R. P. Waggoner is inviting young people's groups to make use of this dormitory for their retreats, and hopes that anyone interested in the new development will visit Nelscott to view the site. Plans are being made to build small cottages on the tract for family use, so the grounds may be enjoyed by all ages.

The Waggoners expect to move to their new home some time in September. Mr. and Mrs. Waggoner have been active in community work in the three years they have resided here. In addition to the church services in the
