

Garden Dinners . . .

"Greenripple", the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Collins on North 14th street, was the setting for three informal garden parties last week. Mr. and Mrs. Collins invited guests to dinner followed by informal evenings around the open fireplace. The dinner table was centered with a watering pot filled with pastel summer flowers.

Guests Friday night were Mr. and Mrs. Silas Gaiser, Judge and Mrs. Arthur Hay, Captain and Mrs. Douglas McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague and Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand.

Bidden Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. George Croisan and Dr. and Mrs. Burton A. Myers.

A week ago Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Collins entertained Mr. and Mrs. Homer V. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Smith, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Vandeneysde and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Rogers.

Miss Patricia June Lamb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lamb, whose betrothal to Mr. Warren Doolittle, seaman first class, United States coast guard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doolittle, was revealed Friday night at a party at the Lamb home. No plans have been made for the wedding. Mr. Doolittle is stationed at Longview, Wash. (Jesten-Miller).

Spotlight on Travelers . . .

By JERYME ENGLISH
Statesman Society Editor

The goings and comings of travelers and vacationists hold a spotlight in the social news these mid-summer days. Ensign and Mrs. Wayne Stuart Nelson (Barbara Johnson), who have been visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Nelson, the past fortnight, left Friday night for San Francisco where he will report for duty. The couple came west from Florida where Ensign Nelson took special work for a month after his graduation from Annapolis.

Arriving in the capital today is Mrs. Robert E. Barnett (Barbara Bell), who has been in Monterey and Carmel, Calif., since early spring with her army captain husband. Captain and Mrs. Barnett recently spent his leave in Idaho Falls, Idaho, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Barnett. Mrs. Barnett remained a longer stay and her husband returned to The Presidio at Monterey. The young Mrs. Barnett plans to remain in Salem now with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bell, who met her in Portland this morning.

To Visit Old Friends

Mrs. Hal A. Bolinger and her children, Marinel and Hal III, will arrive Wednesday night from Tacoma to spend ten days with Mrs. Thorne H. Hammond. Mrs. Bolinger will be remembered as Florence Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Marshall of Tacoma, formerly of Salem. Lt. (ig) Bolinger is now stationed at Hollywood Beach, Florida with the navy. Their home is in Bozeman, Montana. Coming today to spend a few days with Mrs. Hammond are Mrs. Talbot Bennett and her small son, James Seely, of Portland.

Miss Julia Johnson will arrive Saturday from Chicago to spend three weeks at the home of her mother, Mrs. Leona Johnson.

Expected from San Francisco this week is Miss Molly Jean Maison, who will visit with her mother, Mrs. H. G. Maison. She has been in Minden, Nevada, where she recently received her wings and pilot's license.

Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. Roy S. Keene and daughter, Madeline, are expected to arrive from San Francisco the middle of August to spend two weeks visiting their Salem friends. Their other daughter, Geraldine, who has been here the past month visiting at the Howard Maple home, will return home with them.

Home From the South

Mrs. Grover W. Hillman, Miss Calline Hillman and Mrs. Frank Roberts (Phyllis Saunders) are home from Long Beach, Calif., where they have been the past month. Mrs. Hillman went south in April.

Mrs. Ronald Haines and sons, Richard Scott and David Stewart, have arrived in Salem to make their home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Scott, while Lt. Haines, United States navy, is in the South Pacific. Mrs. Haines, the former Lillian Scott, was accompanied home by her mother, who went south to meet her. Lt. and Mrs. Haines have been living in San Diego. Their home is in Phoenix, Arizona.

Miss Mary White and Miss Janet Bower left Saturday morning for Vancouver, B.C., Lake Louise and Lake Banff where they will vacation for a fortnight. They spent Saturday night in Seattle with Sergeant and Mrs. Donnell Sanders.

Miss Margaret Sehon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sehon, is leaving Monday for San Francisco to make her home. She graduated from the University of Oregon in June. She previously attended Willamette university.

Mr. O. W. Emmons and his grandson, David Emmons, are leaving by train on Tuesday for Rockford, South Dakota, where Mr. Emmons is going on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Drorbaugh (Myrtle Helen Meier) pictured with members of their wedding party after their marriage on July 29 at the First Presbyterian church. Left to right are Midshipman Fred Bradshaw, best man, the groom and bride, Miss Trude Meier, her sister's maid of honor, and Mrs. Edward Schultz, matron of honor. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Meier and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Drorbaugh. The couple will make their home in Salem. (Kennell-Elis).

WOMEN'S Society * Clubs * Music & Oregon Statesman SECTION

Miss Kathryn Quistad, above, received a golden circlet from Lt. Byron T. Mennis, United States naval air corps, at a quiet ceremony solemnized at St. Agatha church in Portland Saturday afternoon. Father Norbert officiated at the 4 o'clock rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Louise Quistad and Mr. Carl Quistad. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mennis.

A purple dressmaker suit was chosen by the bride for her wedding. With it she wore a matching hat with fuchsia feathers and black accessories. To her shoulder she pinned a corsage of lavender baby orchids.

Attending the couple were Mrs. Harvey Quistad (Marybeth Rumsey) of Portland, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Charles Lounsbury (Colene Mennis), the groom's sister. Lt. Quistad, who is in Texas with the army air corps, was unable to come north for his sister's wedding.

A dinner for the bridal party followed the ceremony. Later the couple left for a week's honeymoon. Lt. and Mrs. Mennis will return to Salem for two weeks before leaving for Norfolk, Virginia where he will report for assignment.

The bride is a graduate of Salem schools and was an active member of the Spinsters until her marriage. She has been employed at state selective service headquarters.

Lt. Mennis recently returned to the states from a year of active duty in the South Pacific. He is a dive bomber pilot and has been in the service three years. He attended Salem schools and the University of Oregon. His fraternity is Phi Delta Theta. (Jesten-Miller Photo)

Their Wedding Day . . .

Two Willamette university couples selected Saturday, August 5 for their wedding day. Miss Beverly Nordean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Nordean of Baker, and Mr. Charles K. McCulloch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. McCulloch of Portland, exchanged vows at St. Thomas More chapel, Portland.

The bride wore a white marquisette gown and a fingertip length tulle veil which was arranged in a half hat. Attending the bride were her sisters, Miss Beth Nordean of Salem and Mrs. Charles A. Raffety of Seattle, formerly of Salem. Their dresses were of blue and pink flowered marquisette and they wore ruffled half hats. They carried pastel nosegays of summer flowers.

Captain Charles A. Raffety of Salem, now stationed in Seattle, was Mr. McCulloch's best man.

The bride and groom greeted their guests in the foyer after the ceremony. Later they left for a wedding trip to Victoria, B.C. For traveling she wore a brown tulle-trimmed aqua and matching accessories.

The couple will reside temporarily in Portland. Mr. McCulloch graduated from Willamette university law school in June and is now awaiting the results of his bar examination. He is a member of Delta Theta Phi, national law fraternity and Kappa Alpha. The bride is a graduate of Willamette and a member of Beta Chi sorority. She was a special student this last year and senior scholar in psychology for Dr. Robert Lantz. She is a graduate of St. Helen's hall junior college.

Wilson-Told Rites

The navy chapel at Treasure Island was the scene of the marriage of Miss Eleanor Todd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Todd of Portland, and Mr. Arthur Wilson, radio technician second class, United States navy, son of Mrs. Isabel Geiger of Portland, on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Carolyn Brown of the WAVES, whose home is in Salem and is now stationed on Treasure Island, sang at the ceremony. Miss Miriam Day of San Francisco and Delta Phi sorority sister of the bride was the honor attendant. Best man was Mr. Warren James, seaman second class, also stationed on Treasure Island.

The bride was president of Delta Phi sorority last year. She is a graduate of Willamette, a Cap and Gown member and was among those listed in Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities. Mr. Wilson attended Willamette before enlisting in the navy. He has just completed radio training and will be in Chicago the next six months as an instructor. His fraternity is Alpha Psi Delta.

For the Bride

Miss Maxine McKillop, whose marriage to Mr. Robert DeArmond will be an event of September 9 already has her calendar marked with bridal parties to be given in her honor and dates for trousseau shopping.

Tuesday night Mrs. Harry Wiedmer and her daughter, Mrs. Joseph M. Devers, Jr., will be hostesses for a bridal shower in compliment to Miss McKillop at their home on North Cottage street.

A dessert supper will be served at small tables. Bridge will be in play during the evening to be followed by a crystal shower for the bride-to-be. Bouquets of zinnias and phlox will provide the decorative note about the rooms.

Bidden to honor Miss McKillop are her mother, Mrs. A. B. McKillop, her fiancé's mother, Mrs. H. H. DeArmond of Bend, Mrs. Robert Cannon, Mrs. W. Ludd Read, Mrs. Meredith Hughes, Mrs. Lester Carter, Miss Esther Baird, Mrs. James H. Nicholson, Jr., Mrs. A. W. McKillop, Mrs. Grover Hillman, Mrs. Claybourne Dyer, Mrs. William Connell Dyer, Mrs. Charles Bier, Mrs. Robert Pickens, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. Joseph M. Devers, Sr., Mrs. P. E. McCafferty, Mrs. Arthur Marquiss and Mrs. Harvey Quistad of Portland.

Buffet Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Needham were hosts for a buffet dinner Saturday night at their home on North 21st street. The evening hours were spent informally.

Guests of the Needhams were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heltzel, Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Stadler, Jr., Miss Esther Baird and Mrs. Carl G. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Perry and Lt. Ralph E. Purvine.

In Ellensburg, Washington Saturday afternoon Miss Phyllis Gueffroy, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Gueffroy, became the bride of Mr. Sidney L. Lambias, son Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lambias of New Orleans. The rites were read in the fireplace room of the Methodist church at 4 o'clock with Rev. W. Martin officiating. The improvised altar was decorated with bouquets of white gladioluses. There was a prelude of organ music before the ceremony.

For her marriage the bride chose a beige gabardine suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was of orchids. The couple was unattended.

Mr. and Mrs. Gueffroy accompanied their daughter to Ellensburg for the wedding. Mrs. Gueffroy wore a navy blue two piece dress with navy hat and accessories. Her flowers were gardenias.

After the ceremony the newlyweds left for Shoshone, Idaho where Mr. Lambias will be temporarily located as a Red Cross field representative in first aid and water safety. He has also been teaching technique in army and navy camps and combat swimming for the navy. He was on a similar assignment in Salem when the couple met.

The bride graduated from Willamette university in June. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Her husband is a graduate of Louisiana State college. (Jesten-Miller photo)

A Tea for a Visitor . . .

Outstanding on the social calendar this week will be the tea for which Mrs. Elmer Vance Wooton, wife of Colonel Wooton, will be hostess on Thursday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. Lewis B. Hershey of Washington, DC. Major General Hershey is head of the selective service commission with headquarters in Washington, DC.

A large group of matrons have been invited to meet Mrs. Hershey. The affair will be held in the Marine room of the Marion hotel from 2 to 4 o'clock.

Mrs. L. V. Benson will introduce to the receiving line which will include Mrs. Earl Snell, Mrs. Wooton and Mrs. Hershey. Assisting about the tea room will be Mrs. Breyman Boise, Mrs. Frank V. Prime, Sr., Mrs. B. E. Owens and Mrs. William L. Phillips.

Those who have been asked to preside at the tea urns during the afternoon are Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn, Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. James T. Brand and Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Jr. Assisting in the serving will be Mrs. Charles D. Wood, Mrs. Ralph H. Campbell, Mrs. Robert W. Wilson, Jr., Mrs. A. W. Loucks, Miss Ruth Saffron and Miss Norma Wooton.

Colonel and Mrs. Wooton will meet General and Mrs. Hershey in Portland Tuesday, returning to Salem Thursday morning. Tuesday night Mrs. Hershey will christen a ship in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Benson have invited a group of friends to meet General and Mrs. Hershey before they entrain for California early Thursday night. The affair will be held after the tea and will be at the Benson home on East Nob Hill.

Welcome newcomers in the capital are Mrs. Claude A. McPherson and her attractive daughter, Miss Gene McPherson. They came here from Pendleton when Mr. McPherson accepted a position with the state industrial accident commission. They have taken a house at 865 D street. Miss McPherson is a junior at the University of Oregon. She is president of her sorority, Gamma Phi Beta. This spring Miss McPherson was elected a member of the Salem Spinners. (Statesman Woman's page photo).