Credit Discussed — The United States today is faced with conditions which may become comparable with those of 1929 and 1930 when paychecks stopped and population shifts occurred, Lynn McLachlan of the Credit Bureau told the Hollywood Lions club at its regular luncheon meeting this week. It is the duty of patriotic civilians, he said, to see that jobs are provided for returning servicemen. So to this, no one must be overpledged to pay for goods but must have sound credit for buying new postwar merchandise, he declared.

Cross Final Rites Held At Belcrest

Final rites were held Thursday at Belcrest Memorial park for Willie Ray Cross, 65, who died at his home, 849 Saginaw street, Tuesday, August 1. The funeral had been held earlier but interment was postponed in the hope that one of his sons, Pvt. Ray E. Cross, US army, would arrive here in time for concluding services.

Born June 10, 1879, at Downs, Kan., he resided for some time in Aklaabona, coming to Salem six years ago.

Here he operated the Hancock station on South Commercial street, making numerous friends who declare that in business, domestic and social life the Golden Rule was his maxim.

Survivors are the widow, Myrtle Cross, 840 Saginaw street; sons Pvt. Ray E. Cross, US army, in this country, PFC Dale T. Bennett, US army overseas; three grandchildren, Edward, George and Ellen Cross, all of Salem, and one sister, Mrs. Alice Young, Los Angeles.

Rev. Charise Asher officiated at the Thursday services; Elder J. L. Verhel, at the funeral, where Mrs. LeRoy Ishmael was soloist.

Women Show Increase of 74% at OSC

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Aug. 10 — A marked increase in women students attending Oregon State college over the past 10 years is shown in statistics released by the registrar's office here.

Total enrollment of women credit students for the year 1943-44 was 1635, compared with 949 10 years ago. This is an increase of 74 per cent in the 10-year period. Even a larger increase is shown in the number of women students entering for the first time. Number of new women students for the year just closed was 789 compared with 418 10 years ago, or an increase of 90 per cent for the 10-year period.

Present indications are for another increase in new women students this year, possibly amounting to 10 per cent, according to advance applications. Reservations have already been made for all of the rooms in Waldo and Snell halls, and in the smaller east and west walls.

Plenty of additional women's housing facilities will be available this year, however, through the use of many of the men's fraternity houses again as will be needed, college officials announced. Seven cooperative houses will care for approximately 200 students, while the 13 will also be operated to capacity.

A new women's dormitory to help meet the needs after the men take back the maternity houses is included in the postwar building program recently adopted by the state board of higher education.

Mabel Grass Buys Interest In Newspaper

An option for the purchase of his half interest in the Woodburn Independent has been taken by Mabel Grass of Hillsboro, Rodney W. Alden said Thursday, adding that he had no plans for the immediate future should the sale be completed.

Wayne Gill would retain his interest in the weekly newspaper of the berry center town.

Alden, son of the late George H. Alden, onetime dean of Willamette university, has been a partner in the Woodburn paper for the past 14 years. He worked on the Statesman while attending Willamette university liberal arts college and law school, leaving the position of telegraph editor when he resigned.

Mrs. Alden is the former Margaret Johnson. With them as a summer houseguest is the editor's mother, Mrs. Geo. H. Alden, whose home is in California.

Bean Pickers Handle Crop

SILVERTON—While some of the bean pickers have to move about bean growers report sufficient help to keep the crop under control this week, according to Percy Palfreyman, manager of the Royal Canning company at Silvertown.

Picking in some of the earlier yards was beginning to taper off, and in some of the later yards was just getting underway. Palfreyman judged that the crop was approximately one-third picked by Thursday of this week.

At the cannery two shifts were now keeping 160 people busy, he said.

KLAMATH FALLS, Aug. 10 (AP) — Two pilots, killed in the head-on crash of their fighter planes near Merrill yesterday were identified by the Klamath naval air station today.

They were Ensign George Holinka, Plymouth Pa., and Ensign Douglas W. Andrews, San Jose, Calif. They were on tactical maneuvers when the crash occurred.

Gervais School Board Plans for Paint Job

GERVAIS—The school board of grade school district No. 76 met Tuesday night and among other business transacted decided to advertise for bids for painting the outside of the school building. A. W. Keppinger is chairman of the board and B. E. Barner is clerk.

HOW TO GET MORE OUT OF IMPORTANT NEWS...

Do you have friends you secretly envy because they seem to get more out of important news of the day than you do—yet apparently spend no more time on their newspapers?

Is their overall view of what's happening clearer than yours? Do they see in the news important meanings or implications you've missed? Are they apt to know quicker than you how developments will affect personal or business interests?

If you yourself want to get more out of the news, here's how: Every day The Wall Street Journal carries a front-page feature What's News—condensing in one column all important "world-wide" events, and in another the outstanding developments in Business and Finance.

Just 5½ minutes' reading time gives you a definite background against which to consider and appraise individual industrial, financial and Washington developments—condensed, accurately reported and analyzed in The Wall Street Journal's other columns.

That's one reason why The Wall Street Journal really is a news kind of newspaper. That's why, too, The Wall Street Journal is a daily working tool of progressive management.

Published daily right here on the Coast to bring you vital business and Washington information immediately.

THE OREGONIAN TRAINS ITS SIGHTS ON OREGON'S GREAT FUTURE  and tells America about it!

Industrial Futures Unlimited
Columbia River Plant Sites the Goal of the Westward March of Industry.

The eyes of Industrial America are on the Columbia River—and with good reason. Here in this Northwest Empire, rich in natural resources, lies the 1200-mile stretch of the Columbia, source of 41% of the nation's hydro-electric power; the only point on the West Coast where trade to the land-locked states of the interior is carried at a water-level route; the only port on the Pacific Coast where ocean-going vessels bring world commerce as far as 190 miles inland!

Think what this means when translated into terms of the future of your industry, unlimited power at your doorstep; cheap transportation for your goods by land, air and water, both to the interior and down the Columbia—to the world!

ONE NEWSPAPER ALWAYS LEADS! IN OREGON...IT'S THE OREGONIAN

The Oregonian
The Great Newspaper of the West
PORTLAND, OREGON
REPRESENTED NATIONALLY BY PAUL BLOCK & ASSOCIATES

The above advertisement is the third in a series currently running in TIME, BUSINESS WEEK, and other national publications under the sponsorship of THE OREGONIAN.

THE OREGONIAN'S purpose in undertaking this campaign is two-fold:

- To acquaint business and industrial leaders in other parts of the country with the tremendous advantages and opportunities awaiting them in the Columbia Empire; and

- To remind our own Oregon people of the magnificent resources that surround them in this great state—which are theirs for the asking!

We feel it is more than fitting that The Oregonian—The Great Newspaper of the West—should tell America about the Great River of the West, and about the people who live, work, plan and prosper here in the Pacific Northwest.
