

Miss Mason Seen and Heard... Weds Alva Dickinson

By JERYME ENGLISH

The Carrier Room of the First Methodist church will be the setting for the marriage of Miss Dorothy Mason, daughter of Mrs. Warren Edwards of Corvallis, and Mr. Alva Dickinson, torpedo man second class, United States navy, son of Mr. George Dickinson, this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Dr. J. C. Harrison will officiate before the fireplace which will be banked with baskets of pink and white gladioluses and asters. Miss Dornalee Bunn of Roseburg will sing "Because" and "At Dawning" and Mrs. Donald Callahan will play the accompaniments and wedding march.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by Mr. B. W. Bunn, has chosen a pink silk afternoon dress for her wedding. The bodice is fashioned with a low neck line edged in ruffling and short sleeves. The pockets on the skirt are enhanced with ruffling. Her accessories are black and her black straw hat is trimmed in veiling. She will carry a bouquet of white spray orchids and bouvardia.

Miss Marion Jackson, the honor attendant, will wear a navy blue and white dress. Her corsage will be of pink roses and white bouvardia. Mr. Elton Rogers will stand with the groom as best man.

For her daughter's marriage Mrs. Edwards has selected a green silk dress with brown accessories. Her flowers will be gardenias.

The wedding reception will be held at the home of the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young. Mrs. William Wood, the groom's aunt, will preside at the coffee urn and Mrs. Roy Young will cut the bride's cake. Assisting will be Mrs. Dana Stoddard, Miss Ramona Huddleston and Mrs. John Dickinson of Independence.

After a wedding trip the couple will return to Salem for a while, later leaving for Newport, Rhode Island, where he will report for duty. Mr. Dickinson, who is in the submarine service, has been in the south Pacific for twenty months. He is home on a thirty day leave. The bride, who attended Salem high school, has been working in Portland. Mr. Dickinson went to school in Independence and later attended Oregon State college.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead and sons, Bruce and Van, are leaving today for a week's vacation at their summer home at Road's End.

Mrs. Ethel Rood of Marshfield visited in Salem Friday with her mother, Mrs. Mary Calef.

Past Noble Grands will meet with their husbands for a picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Adams, Glen Creek road, at 6:30 o'clock on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hultenberg, who have made their home in Salem for many years, are leaving this month for Pacific City to reside at their beach house.

Miss Betty Childs, who is attending the summer session at the University of Oregon, is spending the weekend in Salem at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Childs.

SILVERTON — Mrs. H. R. Irish was hostess at luncheon Thursday with covers placed for Mrs. E. J. McCall, Mrs. C. M. Wray, Mrs. Oscar Lee, Mrs. Edwin Holden, Mrs. M. E. DeGuire and Mrs. I. L. Stewart.

Sweet peas from the Irish gardens centered the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin J. Van Cleave will celebrate their silver wedding anniversary today. Members of the family will gather for dinner at the Marion hotel at 12:30 o'clock and from 3 to 6 o'clock their friends are being invited through the press to call at their country home near Hazel Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Cleave were married in Salem on August 10 at the Baptist parsonage and have resided on their farm ever since. Mrs. Van Cleave is the former Luella Eaton.

At the dinner covers will be placed for their sons, Marvin and Daryl Van Cleave, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Hobson of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Hobson, Mr. and Mrs. R. I. McLaughlin, Miss Laura Gaskill, Mr. Douglas Hobson of Portland and Mrs. Hattie Van Cleave.

During the reception hour Mrs. Harry D. Hobson and Mrs. Virgil Perrine will preside at the coffee urns and at the punch bowl will be Miss Alvina, Miss Lorraine and Miss Leona Meyer. Serving will be Mrs. R. I. McLaughlin and Mrs. Herman Wacken. Assisting about the rooms will be Miss Laura Gaskill and Mrs. Hugh Aspinwall. Miss Alice Perrine will pass the guest book. A bouquet of pink gladioluses in a silver bowl flanked by white tapers in silver candelabras will center the serving table. At one end will be the bride's cake.

Miss Helen Barrett, who has been manager of the cafeteria at service club No. 1 at Camp Adair the past year and a half, is leaving today for Fort Lewis where she will have a similar position.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Manning and Children, Peter and Nancy, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Harvey, Jr. of Portland are leaving Tuesday for Neskeowin where they have taken a cottage for a week.

A Church Ceremony

Miss Donna Marie Brown Married To Sergeant Hagstrom, Saturday

Miss Donna Marie Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Ray Brown, and Sergeant Roland G. Hagstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lars E. Hagstrom of Seattle, exchanged their marriage vows at the First Evangelical church Saturday night at 9 o'clock. Rev. Herbert Anderson read the ceremony before the altar banked with white gladioluses and greenery. Lighting the candles were Miss Elvira Behrens and Miss Evelyn Halvorsen, who wore pink dresses.

The bride's father sang "Because" before the bride party entered, and Mr. Clifford Worm sang "God Give Me You." Mr. Robert Lumm of Portland played the accompaniments and wedding marches.

Of white satin was the bridal gown. The bodice was made with a lace yoke and tiny buttons extended from neckline to waistline in back. The long sleeves ended in points over each wrist. The full skirt terminated in a court train. The full length tulle veil which extended beyond the train was fashioned with a shorter veil, which fell from a halo of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white gladioluses and pink roses. Around her neck was a single strand of pearls, a gift of her parents.

Miss Jean Brown was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a blue dress made with a net skirt and lace bodice. The princess style dress was made with three-quarter length sleeves and a full skirt. She carried a pastel nosegay and wore flowers in her hair. Miss Ann Pearson of Portland was the bridesmaid and wore a similar dress of yellow with net skirt and lace bodice. She also carried a nosegay of summer flowers and had flowers in her hair.

Attend the Groom

Mr. Eric Hagstrom of Portland stood with his brother as best man. Seating the guests were Mr. Clark Robb, United States navy, Private Audrey Blanton and Corporal Nicholas Svolas.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Brown wore a teal lace gown and a corsage of tulipman roses and peach gladioluses.

The brown home was the scene of the wedding reception where the newlyweds greeted their guests. Mrs. L. L. Thornton presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Jay Nash cut the bride's cake. Serving were Mrs. M. D. Cochell, Miss Gladys Dalke, Miss Conner Keller and Miss Betty Seder of Portland, Miss Dorothy Englehart passed the guest book. In the gift room were Miss Lucille Bair and Miss Betty Doud.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the bride wore a pink dress with navy blue coat and white accessories. Sergeant and Mrs. Hagstrom will reside at 607 North Commercial street while he is stationed at Camp Adair.

The new Mrs. Hagstrom is a graduate of Salem high school and is laboratory technician at Reid Murdoch and company. Sergeant Hagstrom received his education in San Francisco.

Don't Look Now..

but... we wondered when we saw two pictures in the paper the other day. One was a "pillbox destroyer" and the other a "pillbox hat." We saw very little difference, except that there was a girl under one of them.

Farmers' lament... When we pay six cents an ear for corn for dinner, we recall the clear, dead, days when we had trouble selling a half acre full for a dollar a sack. Why is it we are never where we ought to be when the money is passed out?

Teatime... Some of the guests at a garden tea we attended in the Homer Smith gardens on Saturday, entertained us by turning somersaults on the grass. We can stand on our head, but thought it the wrong place to prove it. Oh yes, the acrobatic ones were very, very young and came with their mamas.

Psychologically speaking... Saturday afternoon air was somewhat cooled in Willson park, when the fountain was turned on. Somehow, a fountain with cool water playing, makes even beautiful Willson park more attractive.

Fussy appetite... When the Bruce Spauldings added the goat, John Holman, to their household, he was supposed to dine freely on the succulent poison oak on the lot next door. Like Ferdinand, he prefers flowers, and finds marigolds best suited to his digestion.
