

Mill City Has Many Visitors

Masonic Picnic Sunday
Near Mill City
Well Attended

MILL CITY, Aug. 17—A guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baltimore this week was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Tracey Tunicliff, of Nehalem. She made the trip with Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Batterson (Wanda Gregory) who visited her mother, Mrs. O. Gregory. The Battersons have purchased the Tunicliff home in Nehalem. Mrs. Tunicliff was among the first people to live in Mill City and relates many interesting things concerning the building up of the town.

Guests at the Carl Kelly, sr., home last week were their son and family, the Russell Kellys, and Mr. and Mrs. Burton Thorne, all of Portland. Also Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kelly, jr., and daughter, Karen Jean.

Attending the covered dish dinner last Sunday for which the Masonic lodge was host, were the members of the local Eastern Star and friends. The dinner which is an annual affair was held in the grove on the Verne Clark place, where it was held last year. Fifty people attended the dinner.

Mrs. Ida Swift and her granddaughter, Mary Lee Goode, were honored Sunday afternoon, August 13, on their birthday anniversaries when a group of friends and relatives gathered at the Swift home. Present were Mrs. Ida Swift, Mary Lee Goode, Mrs. Don Goode, Billy and David, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bertram, Mrs. Anna Swift and Miss Edna Swift.

Miss Edna Swift, of Portland, is spending her vacation with her mother, Mrs. Ann Swift.

Bear Family Visit Portland

TURNER—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bear drove to Portland Sunday to the home of their daughter, Mrs. R. E. Stewart. Stewart is in a hospital at the present time. E. C. Bear and son, Billy, were also on the trip.

In the afternoon they drove their son, Willard, who was released from Emanuel hospital that day, to his home at Scappoose, where he is high school principal. He had spent 13 days at the hospital after a knee operation.

H. W. Miller and family, residents of the community for a number of years, who live on the W. Winslow property, will move this fall to a new place near Hopeville in Polk county.

Mrs. E. C. Bear and daughter, Eunice, are in Walla Walla to spend a week with Mrs. Bear's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Gillett, and her brother, Charles Gillett and his wife at Pendleton. They will return early next week.

Mrs. D. R. Standley has returned from a trip to Seattle.

Mt. Angel KCs Plan Program

MT. ANGEL, Aug. 17—Local Knights of Columbus Tuesday night heard Joe Wavra, new lecturer, outline a program of speakers, discussions and other entertainment features as part of the organization's meetings for the coming year.

Attendance at the laymen's retreat this weekend was advocated for all members.

A special prayer was offered for the safety of Sgt. Wilbert J. Predeck, who was reported missing in action in France.

The business meeting was followed by card playing and refreshments. Refreshment committee for the next meeting includes Roy Palmer, Fred Cooley and Otto Wellman.

Plan Reception For Missionary

WOODBURN—To welcome Irene Forsythe, missionary to China, on furlough, the women's societies of the First Presbyterian church will hold a reception in the social room of the church Saturday afternoon. Women from the Bethel and Gervais Presbyterian churches and all community church women are invited.

Miss Forsythe will speak at the Presbyterian church in Woodburn Sunday morning at 10:30, and in the Bethel church at 11:30. The basket dinner will be held in the grove on the Bethel school grounds, with the Bethel, Gervais and Woodburn congregations participating. Round table talks and visiting will be enjoyed during the afternoon.

Sunday night union services of the Woodburn churches will be held. Miss Forsythe will give an illustrated talk. It will be held in the Methodist church at 8 o'clock. This is Miss Forsythe's first visit to Woodburn since her return from China on the first trip of the Gripsholm. She is a member of the Woodburn Presbyterian church.

Silvertown Plans For Victory Day

SILVERTON, Aug. 17—Victory day plans are being formulated at Silvertown through a group of city officials and business men and will be patterned after Portland's closing program as well as including a community center observance, details of which are yet to be worked out. Mayor Reber Allen will issue a proclamation which will be distributed to all of the business houses for their approval. Closing will be voluntary and not compulsory, those working on the program stated Thursday morning.

Meeting in the group on plans were R. B. Duncan and Earl J. Adams, retail trade committee of the chamber of commerce; Mayor Allen, City Manager H. C. McCrea; Bert Terry, police judge; Chief of Police A. Amo and his two officers, Victor Grossnickle and W. M. Andres.

Churches Unite, Change Is Made

DAYTON—Rev. E. C. Hicks, pastor of the Dayton-Lafayette Evangelical church for four years was returned to Dayton. Lafayette was set aside because Dayton has during the past year merged with the Dayton Methodist congregation, making total membership of 105 members. The Dayton church dropped the denomination names and adopted the name of "The Pioneer church of Dayton."

Lyle Leach, a student of Cascade college, Portland, was appointed to the Lafayette Evangelical congregation.

Pleasants Visit Dallas Relatives

DALLAS, Aug. 17—Capt. and Mrs. J. C. Pleasant and their small son, Jim, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Pleasant. Capt. Pleasant has been in the army four years. He is serving as an instructor at Camp Hood, Texas. On the way to Dallas a front tire on their car blew out, damaging the car, but they escaped serious injury. Mrs. Pleasant plans to remain in Oregon, while he will report back to Camp Hood.
